THE RACE MEET.

If the weather man is on the side of the Bloomsburg Driving Club, we will have two days of fine sport this week. Great interest has already been shown, and the general opinion is bound to increase until tomorrow, the first day of the meet. Few dreamed that the entries would be so liberal, even the officers of the Club, are surprised at the number and quality of the horses that will compete for the purses, and they express themselves as well pleased with the outlook. The track is in excellent shape for good work, and racing enthusiasts may expect some close and exciting finishes.

Some of the horses already on the grounds are Big Steve, Happy Baron, Bud L., Senator L., George Rex, Plumber Boy, Mont Medium, John Splan, Uncle Job, Rags, Count Chimes, Pauline, Sildare and others. The Bloomsburg Band will furnish music on to-morrow, and the Jerwick Band will be here Saturday.

The starting judge is J. M. Wilcox, of Wilkes Barre. The judges are H. J. Conner, of Orangeville; R. K. Jackson, of Berwick and C. V. McKelvy, of Bloomsburg. The timers are E. F. Carpenter, of Bloomsburg; W. Kase West of Janville, and S. K. Heller, of Berwick.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 25. 2:40 Trot or Pace. Purse $100 14 entries. 2:20 Trot or Pace. Purse $100 8 entries. Free for all, 10 entries.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 26. 1:14 Trot or Pace. Purse $100 8 entries. 2:27 Trot or Pace. Purse $100 11 entries. 2:40 Trot or Pace. Horses owned in county, 1/2 mile heats. Purse $50 7 entries.

Shooting Was Late This Month.

The Shamokin Daily News has the following to say of Centralia's latest shooting affair:

"The residents of Centralia were treated to their usual monthly murder scene last evening. Owing to the tiresomeness of the usual man-shooting and other affairs, the monotony was entirely done away with this time and when the smoke of battle had cleared away a woman, with a gun in her hand, was found to be the guilty party. "The regular time for a murder in the mountain town is somewhere around the 15th of each month. A full moon, combined with rather cool weather, compelled a postponement of the event this time and no date was set. Despite the sudden decision to pull off the affair, a fair sized audience was present, however, and at least four persons are ready and willing to testify that they had the extreme pleasure of being in at the death.

"As usual, bad whiskey and a few other bad things have to do with this tale. It might also be marked that there is a movement afoot in Columbia county to have Centralia transferred to good old Northumberland county. They'd love to see that the town sort of belongs to us, but we don't want it, there's enough doing here without Centralia."

RISE OF NORMAL GRADUATE

Professor W. Fowler Bucke, the principal of the Harrisburg Technical High School, or manual training school as it is called, Thursday evening asked the committee on manual training school to release him from his acceptance of his re-election as principal. He desires to take a new position elsewhere and the committee agreed to commend the release.

Professor Bucke stated to a newspaper reporter that he had accepted a chair of educational psychology at Genesee University, New York, $2,000 a year against $1,600 at Harrisburg. He is the first principal of the Technical High School at Harrisburg and is a graduate of Bloomsburg Normal School, Dickinson College and Clark University.

Licensed to Wed.

Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts C. M. Terwilliger this week issued the following marriage licenses:

Oscar M. Erdman and Miss Lizzie J. Heacock both of Benton. James Caddy of Hazleton and Miss Laura Brooks of Bloomsburg.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Beware the Signature.

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales. Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum. The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to—they mitigate, but cannot cure. It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions. Hood's Pills are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

FARMERS PICNIC

The 13th annual picnic of the farmers of Columbia and adjoining Counties in charge of the Sugarloaf Grange at Grass Mere Park Aug. 17th was a grand success.

It was the largest assemblage of farmers that ever came together at a picnic in this section of the state and it was the "real farmers picnic of Columbia County." The Orangeville Band was present and enlivened the people with music.

D. O. Coughlin Esq., of Wilkesbarre, and Hon. Andrew L. Fritz of Bloomsburg, former plow boys of that section delivered able and suitable addresses for the occasion.

They explained how the trusts and railroad companies prevented the passage of laws to equalize taxation between corporations and farmers, laws to allow the trolley roads to carry freight, laws to stop railroad companies from discriminating against the eastern farmers and shippers by charging enormous freight for short hauls.

Some parties connected with the Grange picnic at Whitenights Grove have made statement that the Grass Mere Park Grange picnic "was not a farmers picnic and that few farmers were in attendance and that it was a railroad picnic."

We are safe in saying that twice as many farmers were at Grass Mere as were at Whitenights. The Sugarloaf Grange had the Grass Mere park rented for that day and the railroad company had no more to do with the Grass Mere Picnic than it had with the Picnic at Whitenights. We are glad that the picnic at Whitenights was also a success, and we wish it success in the future but we hope to hear no further mis-statements about the Sugarloaf Grange Picnic.

J. P. Laubach, Committee.

SAMUEL BOGART DEAD

The death of Samuel Bogart occurred at his home in Camden, N. J., on Tuesday. The cause of his death is not known. County Commissioner William Bogart received a telegram which simply said that he had passed away. The deceased will doubtless be remembered by many of our readers. He was born at Rohrsburg about thirty-two years ago and was a son of Samuel Bogart. For a number of years he assisted Commissioner Bogart in conducting a store at Espy. About eight years ago he went to Philadelphia and opened several cheap lodging houses. The venture proved a success, his accommodations were constantly taxed to the utmost and he amassed a lot of money.

He is survived by a wife and two children. He was a half brother of County Commissioner Bogart and Frank Bogart of Rohrsburg and of Mrs. Chas. H. Dildine of Rohrsburg.

Creveling Family Reunion

The Creveling family reunion will be held this year at Whitenights Grove, near Zaner's, on Thursday, September 7th, next. Basket dinner will be partaken of at the grove. All members of the Creveling family and their friends are cordially invited to be present on this occasion. An interesting program has been prepared for the entertainment of those who attend.

L. M. CREVELING, President.

A home without a home newspaper is like a house without windows—you see nothing and know nothing of what is going on around you. The successful business man reads, and his family reads, and consequently are well informed on the topics of the day.

The American hen, according to statistics, leads all domestic enterprises as a money-maker. It may also be noticed of this successful fowl that she gives a good example to human kind in never cackling about her success until she has results to show for it.
