George Verdy of Philadelphia is visiting relatives here this week.

Work on the Yorks house is again being delayed by the non-arrival of terra cotta tiles.

The attendance at the Milton Fair last Thursday was said to be the largest in the Fair's history.

Dr. and Mrs. Altmiller are in Philadelphia this week. They have rented the residence of T. L. Gunton, and will take possession on November 1st.

M. P. Lutz & Son are actively engaged in the real estate business, and handle a large number of properties. Their bulletin board always shows some good bargains.

We go to press on Wednesday this week in order that the office force can attend the fair. It is the only vacation asked for during the year, and it is well merited.

The bulletin board outside the White House Restaurant, which announces the good things to eat on the inside, is written in a hand that would do credit to a professor of penmanship in a business college. Will Bachman is the artist.

The report that a number of race horses on their way to the Bloomsburg fair were killed in the collision at Millerstown, was incorrect, and the horses are here and will go in the races. It does not appear how the report started, but many of the daily papers printed it on Monday.

Charles M. Terwilliger was nominated for Prothonotary for a second term without opposition. His efficiency in the office is conceded by everybody, and of course he will be re-elected. But it is not safe to take anything for granted in politics. The only sure way is to vote, and vote straight.

Vote the straight ticket this fall—give the Republicans a new idea of the real strength of the Democratic party in Columbia county. Don't be a stay-at-home nor a bolt. Your ticket is composed of good men for the candidate for state treasurer down to county auditor. Let us go back to the old majority.

Frank W. Miller, Democratic candidate for Register and Recorder, is attending the fair this week. Mr. Miller has made friends throughout the county wherever he has gone, and he will get a big vote on November 7th. His ability to fill the office is undoubted, and his popularity assures his election by something more than the usual majority.

St. John's Episcopal Church at Catawissa is at present in charge of Rev. R. S. Nichols, rector of St. Paul's Church, and the arrangement may be continued, as Christ Church, Berwick, is anxious to have a minister who can devote all his time at home. Services are held at St. John's Church every Sunday afternoon by Mr. Nichols.

Judge Mayer, of Lock Haven, has been on the bench thirty seven years, and will soon be seventy-five years old. He is President of the board of trustees of the Lock Haven Normal School. There are very few if any other judges in the state who are serving their fourth term. Judge Mayer has always had a high reputation as a jurist.

Miss Helen Pardee, daughter of Calvin Pardee of Germantown, Pa., was married to Walter L. Foulke in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Whitmarsh, Pa., on October 6th. She is a granddaughter of the late Ario Pardee of Hazleton, and a grand niece of Capt. J. B. Robison of Espy, her grandmother, Mrs. Ario Pardee, having been a daughter of William Robison, deceased, of Bloomsburg, and a sister of Capt. Robison.

Chas. P. Elwell will continue to teach during the summer months. Instruction in piano-forte, violin, harmony and composition. Send for circular or call at 233 West Third street, Bloomsburg.

The population of the United States is only 5 per cent. of the population of the world, yet that 5 per cent. produced, according to the last census, 22 per cent. of the world's wheat, 30 per cent. of its gold, 32 per cent. of its coal, 32 per cent. of its iron, 33 per cent. of its silver, 34 per cent. of its manufactures, 35 per cent. of its iron, 36 per cent. of its cattle, 50 per cent. of its petroleum, 54 per cent. of its copper, 75 per cent. of its cotton, and 84 per cent. of its corn. Uncle Sam has a big and a very productive farm.

The opening of the fall teaching season has increased my classes in music, but have still time for others. Piano-forte, violin and harmony taught in the latest, best and most thorough methods. Refer to the many pupils who have studied with me during the past year, for results and references. Prospectus for 1905-06 sent on application. Write or call on Chas. P. Elwell, 233 West Third St. Bloomsburg, Pa.

Christian A. Small Esq. had no opponent for the nomination for District Attorney. He was unanimously placed upon the ticket, and he ought to receive the solid support of all Democrats. He has been an active party worker, serving as chairman of the county committee, and is entitled to recognition if party services count for anything. While the office of District Attorney is not and ought not to be a political office, you do not see Democrats elected to that office in Republican countries. Columbia county is democratic, and the public offices should be filled by Democrats.

Boy Wanted.

A boy sixteen years old with fair common school education is wanted at this office to learn the printing trade. Full particulars as to work and pay will be given on application.

Kennedy Players Here Fair Week

The Kennedy Players who began a week's engagement at the Delevan opera house last night, were greeted by large and enthusiastic audience. No popular priced company appearing here this season has made a more favorable impression on the opening night, and the indications point to another successful week of repertoire.

"The Midnight Express" a delightful comedy drama written by John J. Kennedy, the leading comedian of the company was the attraction and it was a remarkably strong one, as it furnished plenty of laughter and amusement and still served to show the full strength of a well balanced company.

As a fun maker John J. Kennedy is easily in the front rank, and there is an irresistible charm about his rich, melodious voice.—Daily Journal Meriden.

KILLED IN WRECK.

A rear-end collision at Millersburg on the Philadelphia & Erie railroad on Sunday morning resulted in the death of Theodore Scott of Sunbury. He was a son-in-law of Geo. B. Martin of Bloomsburg, having married Mr. Martin's daughter about a year ago. Several cars of a freight train broke loose from the train, and before they could be taken on again the passenger train crashed into them. Scott was fireman on the passenger, and he was crushed under the engine. Charles Berry, freight conductor, and Ralph Hendershott, flagman, both of Sunbury, were also killed, their bodies being burned to a crisp.

On hearing the sad news Mr. and Mrs. Martin went to Sunbury, and arrangements were made to bring Mr. Scott's body here for burial on Wednesday. They arrived on the 10.41 train and were taken direct to Rosemont Cemetery, where the services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Thomas.

Trolley to Northumberland

A proposition is on foot to build a trolley line to be known as the West Branch Electric Railway Co. from Danville to Northumberland.

The West Branch Electric Railway Company will in reality be an extension of the Danville and Bloomsburg Electric Railway Company. It is made up of the majority of members of the Danville and Bloomsburg Company whose signal success in the building of the latter line inspires confidence that the Danville and Northumberland line will be built without delays that frequently occur in construction of trolley roads.

The proposed road will be easy of construction, owing to the absence of heavy grades between Danville and Northumberland. Neither will there be any streams that need bridging. Best of all there will be no railroads in the way so that the vexed question of grade crossings with its subsequent litigation and delay will be entirely eliminated. The Danville and Northumberland line will be built along thoroughly improved lines, the cars and all its equipment being first class and modern in all respects.

Verily Danville is becoming a trolley center of no little importance, says the Morning News. Northumberland is but eight miles from Montandon, where connection can be made for Williamsport. In addition to this the new line will connect with Sunbury and thence with the gigantic system of lines built or under way that will open up all the central part of the State and connect with Philadelphia, while to the eastward of us we already have communication with Catawissa, Bloomsburg and Berwick with prospects in a short time of reaching Nanticoke and points beyond.

McClellan as a White House Possibility.

The name of George B. McClellan again looms up in the history of this country, associated with great possibilities. In the young man renominated by Tammany for Mayor of New York city, some people see a future Governor of New York State and a possible President of the United States. The failure of the so-called reformers to agree upon a proper man to contest the Mayorality fight with McClellan leaves the office in his grasp. Only death or some untoward circumstance can prevent McClellan being elected Mayor of New York city in November next to serve for four years. The lease of official life will carry him prominently before the people until after the next Presidential nominating convention and election. His term of office will expire January 1, 1910. What changes in political history can happen in that time!

Mr. McClellan is personally an attractive man and a very capable politician. The Democracy has no cleaner man in the ranks of its younger leaders. He is as little defiled as anybody ever was who had touched Tammany Hall. But it must be remembered that the power of the Eastern Democracy is very limited now; that the Western wing of the party is well organized and aggressive; that Mr. Bryan is still its hero, and that his distrust of men of Mr. McClellan's environment is profound. And it now seems likely that even if he should not ask for the nomination himself, Mr. Bryan will no doubt be powerful in the convention of 1908 as he was in that of 1904.

FREE TRAINING OF NURSES

Young Women of Small Towns and Country Districts to be Favored

By the terms of a fund to be administered in connection with the Philadelphia School for Nurses, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, a number of young women from every county will receive free training in Nursing. It is planned to ultimately reach and help in this way every village and township.

The young women will be provided with room, board, nurse uniforms and all the refinements of a well-appointed Christian home. At graduation the diploma of the School and the Order of the Red Cross will be conferred, qualifying for practice in any State or country; the railroad fare will then be paid back home.

Those applying and chosen to receive the benefits of this fund will be given two years' training, with a rich experience in nursing the sick poor of the city under skilled leaders. The term may be shortened to eighteen months by taking a preliminary course of six months' and study at home. A special short course enables young women to quickly qualify themselves for self support and a substantial income.

In addition to regular nursing, the young women are taught how to recognize, avoid and destroy contagion; how to establish and maintain perfect sanitary conditions about the home; they are prepared for positions as office nurse and physician's assistant; they get a practical knowledge of City Mission movements, Deaconess training, College settlement work, and are trained for special positions of trust in institutions.

The School is ten years old and is endorsed by physicians, leading educators and prominent men throughout the country.

ELECTION DRAWS NEAR

Three weeks from next Tuesday will be election day. Upon the action of the Democrats of Columbia county on that day depends whether the party is to be strengthened or weakened. A full vote, and the election of the whole ticket by a fair majority will give it strength and renewed vitality, while the defeat of any man on the ticket would give still further encouragement to the opposition in their boast that this will be a republican county in the near future. Such a result we do not deem at all probable, and yet if professed democrats go wandering after strange gods, or do not vote at all, they weaken the party, and render strange things possible. There is always danger in the stay-at-home vote.

This being an off-year, there will be no speeches through the county, but it ought not to require stump speeches and brass bands to arouse the people sufficiently to get every man to the polls. There is a strong opposition to the Republican candidate for State Treasurer within that party. The corruption of the machine has reached a point where the better element of the party can no longer endure it, and there is revolt all along the line. Our candidate, William H. Berry, will be supported also by the Prohibitionists and the reform Republicans, from which sources he will receive a very large vote. His election therefore depends upon the Democrats. If they do their duty, and give him a full vote, his election is assured.

Fidelity to Public Trust.

The estate of the late Robert E. Pattison of Pennsylvania, has been wound up and the net amount of it found to be $4545.11. Fidelity to public trust is an admirable quality, but the example of Robert E. Pattison tends to show that there is not much money in it. But it is not less worthy of emulation by those who esteem their own self-respect and stainless honor above all monetary consideration.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Stormy October Says Hicks

Hicks predicts plenty of storms during October. The autumnal rains are due and the St. Louis weather prophet says there will be general storminess all over the country. Other October periods will bring heavy frosts and spurts of snow and sleet with high gales over the great lake region and along the North Atlantic coast. The month will close with high tides and seismic disturbances.
