Preparatory service and business meeting on the preceding Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Chapin of Schoolcraft, Mich., have returned to their home after spending a couple of months in the east. Dr. Chapin was formerly a prominent physician and a leading citizen of Benton, and moved to Schoolcraft many years ago. Both he and Mrs. Chapin have many relatives and friends in this section.

John D. Fowler, son of Nathan B. Fowler of this town, was killed at Hinsdale, Illinois, last week by being run over by a train. He resided at Downer's Grove, Ill., and went to Hinsdale on business, and it is supposed he was struck by another train as he alighted. Some years ago he was Superintendent of the Bloomsburg Water Co.

The arrangements for the formal inauguration of the Rev. Dr. William Perry Eveland as president of the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, which will occur on Friday, October 26, are being completed as rapidly as possible. There will be a number of presidents of prominent schools present and many ministers from various points in the State.

Another shooting case comes from Berwick. John Alterio, an Italian of West Berwick on Friday evening last shot Mike Sterijko, a Slavonian, in the leg and abdomen. The wounded man was taken to the Wilkes-Barre hospital, and Alterio was committed to the Bloomsburg jail in default of $3000 bail. It is thought that Mike will recover.

At State College.

Prof. J. A. Dennis went to Bellefonte on Saturday as a delegate to an Odd Fellows Encampment.

Incidentally he attended a banquet on Wednesday evening given by the Bloomsburg Club of State College. This town and vicinity has a large delegation at that institution, and they have organized a club with seventeen members.

Boy Wanted.

A boy sixteen years old with fair common school education is wanted at this office to learn the printing trade. Full particulars as to work and pay will be given on application.

Bloomsburgers At Towanda.

The Bradford County Teachers' Institute was held at Towanda last week. Among the instructors were Prof. C. H. Albert, and Prof. O. H. Yetter.

Speaking of the former the Argus says: An address was delivered by Professor C. H. Albert of the Bloomsburg Normal School on the foundations of education. Miss Maude Welles of Lock Haven Normal school gave a fine recitation entitled "Marcelles of the Slow Race." At the afternoon session of Monday Professor Albert, who is a very pleasing speaker, continued his address on education, starting from fundamental principles and giving teachers many valuable hints on teaching and mental concentration.

Of Mr. Yetter the Journal says: The morning session opened at 10:55 by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," led by Professor O. H. Yetter of Bloomsburg, who has conducted the music here for several years. Mr. Yetter is highly popular with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Menagh of Washington, D. C. have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. C. E. Savage.

Ex-sheriff John Mowrey was in town last week. He was among the Democrats from a distance who attended the mass meeting at considerable personal inconvenience.

John G. Laubach of Sugarloaf was among the upper end people who attended the fair, and found time to give us a welcome call. He has been a reader of the COLUMBIAN for many years and is always paid up in advance.

John Morris of Greenwood was among the Democrats who came to town to attend the Mass meeting on October 10th. He drove seventeen miles and home again in order to be present. Such devotion to political principle is the kind that counts. John is a son of Wesley Morris.

ROOBE-WIRT WEDDING.

themums and autumn leaves filling the centre of the table. The breakfast was delicious and elaborate. At one point, boxes of the bride's cake were given to each guest, and the ice cream was served in individual white heart shaped boxes surmounted by tiny doves. During the breakfast an Hungarian Band played delightfully and frequently the men sang, one of them a soloist, having a fine baritone voice.

The leave taking of the happy pair was informal and charming. As the bride left the room she was showered with lilies of the valley. The color scheme of the wedding was white; chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley. The ushers at the church who were also at the breakfast were: Messrs. Karl Funston Wirt of Bloomsburg, Paul Coburn of Boston, Richard K. Hartwell of Chicago, Raymond Kirk of Chicago and Corbin Edgell of New York all having been Harvard classmates of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirt's other guests at breakfast were: Bishop Darlington, the Reverend Mr. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rodgers, Miss Rodgers, Mr. Kenneth Rodgers of Germantown, Mrs. J. A. Roche, Miss Helen Roche, Mrs. Howland of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. James Roche of Bridgeport, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. R. S. George of New York, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dunning of Syracuse, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. George Sirret of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Dallett Wilson of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Armand Brand of New York, Mr. Wymer Mills of New York, Mr. Graham Smith of New York, Miss Robinson Smith of New York, Miss Nan Denison of Syracuse N. Y.

Many beautiful presents were received in Bloomsburg, some in New York and some sent direct to Chicago, the bride's future home. The bride's gift to the groom was a beautiful pearl scarf pin. Among the gifts were from Mr. and Mrs. Wirt a complete set of table silver in an oaken case; Mrs. Roche, the groom's mother, a silver tea service, colonial pattern; Mr. Karl Wirt a very handsome large silver salver; the bride's grandmother an exquisite colonial cake basket.

The day was perfect, bright sunshine, a day of Indian summer. After their bridal holidays Mr. and Mrs. Roche will make their home in Chicago where the groom is secretary of the Otis Elevator Company.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wirt entertained at dinner at the New Netherland Hotel. There were ten covers. The guests were the mother and sisters of the groom, the bride and groom, the bride's brother, Bishop Darlington and the Rev. Mr. Nichols.

An Occasion of Interest

Councilman James Magee 2nd has kindly consented to give to the people of Bloomsburg his celebrated lecture on his recent trip abroad, in the M. E. Church, this Thursday evening, Oct. 19. This is a benefit for the Sunday School, and the talk will be historic, interesting, beneficial, and we bespeak for him a full house. A silver offering will be taken at the door.
