

TERCENTENIAL EXPOSITION

Is Eighty Per Cent Ready to Open at Time Set This Week.

NEGROES TO EXHIBIT

President Roosevelt to be Present Magnificent buildings still unfinished—Naval Display Will Include the Atlantic Fleet, Besides Those of Foreign Countries.

Norfolk Va., April 23.—Despite the splendid efforts made, the Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition will be opened this week unready.

The grounds and buildings are about eighty per cent finished. No exposition ever before has presented such a permanent appearance...

The exterior of most of the buildings will be ready when the exposition is formally opened Friday, April 26th.

Twenty-five states will trace their history from their earliest days to the present.

The State buildings have been grouped along the historic shore of Hampton Roads and they command an excellent view of the navies of the world.

The naval display will include the Atlantic fleet of the United States Navy, under command of Rear-Admiral Evans, which is conceded to be the finest organization of fighting ships...

Another Government building is to be the negro building, the exhibits in which will be designed to show the progress of the negro race.

To Meet Gen. Kuroki. Washington, April 23.—The war department has ordered Lieut. Gen. MacArthur, now at San Francisco, to proceed to Seattle to meet Gen. Kuroki, the Japanese commander, and members of his staff, who are expected to arrive there on May 1.

MAJ. GEN. ARTHUR MACARTHUR.

Expected to arrive there on May 1. He is accompanied by his staff, who will act as an escort. MacArthur will be accompanied by a Japanese military party...

SHOT TO AVENGE DAUGHTER.

Ex-Judge Loving, Thomas F. Ryan's Superintendent, Explains Killing. Lynchburg, Va., April 25.—Ex-Judge W. G. Loving, who late yesterday afternoon shot and killed Theodore Estes at Oak Ridge, the country estate of Thomas F. Ryan...

Volcanoes in Chile Still Active.

Santiago, Chile, April 25.—Severe volcanic eruptions continue in the southern part of Chile. The town of Valdivia is covered with ashes and overhung with clouds.

FRANCE DECORATES CARNEGIE

Made Commander of Legion of Honor At Peace Dinner.

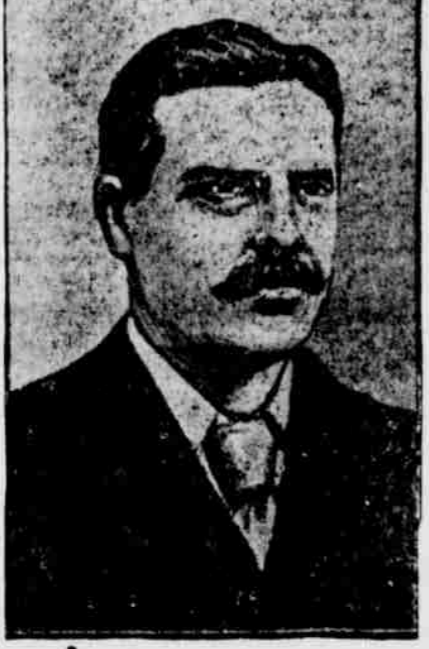

New York City, April 23.—Andrew Carnegie, Pittsburgh's apostle of peace and father of the peace congress just adjourned, had pinned about his neck a broad red ribbon from which hung the cross of a commander of the Legion of Honor.

The ribbon was so broad that it hid Mr. Carnegie's collar entirely, and only his startled beard could be seen above the red band which the Baron d'Estournelles de Constant himself a wearer of the French cross of honor, pinned the bow behind Mr. Carnegie's head.

It was at the dinner which was given at the Hotel Astor jointly with another one at the Waldorf-Astoria for the entertainment of the delegates and foreign guests at the peace conference that the presentation was made.

Rev. C. F. Aked Arrives.

New York April 23.—"I know nothing of Mr. Rockefeller," said the Rev. C. F. Aked, as he arrived from England to take charge of the so-called Rockefeller Church on Fifth avenue.

REVENUE FAKED

about him. I think it is very hard to keep calling that church "Rockefeller's church." Why he is not a member. It is a powerful and influential church without Mr. Rockefeller. He is a seat-holder and belongs to a church in Cleveland.

QUAKE LEVELS TWO CITIES.

Chilpancingo and Chilapa Almost Destroyed—Other Cities Cut Off.

Mexico City, April 24.—A frightful loss of life and property, it is feared, was caused by the earthquake which threw this city into panic Monday night and lasted four and a half minutes.

It is known that the towns of Chilpancingo and Chilapa, in the State of Guerrero, 125 miles southwest of this city, were destroyed, and that eleven persons were killed and twenty-seven badly injured in Chilpancingo, Guerrero's capital.

Five hundred lives were lost in the destruction of Chilpancingo and Chilapa, a telegram to the National Bank of Mexico here states, adding that both towns were completely destroyed.

Government officials do not believe this report. It is admitted that both cities were severely damaged, but it is not thought that the deaths will even approximate 500. The houses there are low and massive, built of stone, to resist earthquake shocks.

BAN ON RACE TIPSTERS.

Fraud Order Issued Against "Sure-Thing" Men at Gravesend.

New York, April 25.—The postal authorities in Brooklyn and Manhattan are investigating advertisers who offer to give "sure-thing" tips on the races for a consideration. A fraud order forbidding him the use of the mails was issued against a tipster who lives near the Gravesend track.

This man advertised in several newspapers that he was in a position to sell "inside stable information." Chief Inspector Mayer sent one of his men to see the tipster. The man was unable to tell from whom he received his alleged information, and his case was reported to Washington.

$1,000,000 GIFT TO NEGROES.

Miss Anna T. Jeanes, a Quaker, Benefits Southern Elementary Schools. Philadelphia, April 25.—Miss Anna T. Jeanes of this city, by deed of gift executed last Monday, created an endowment fund of $1,000,000 in perpetuity, the income from which is to be applied toward the maintenance and assistance of elementary schools for negroes in the Southern States.

It is said to be by far the largest single gift for public elementary school purposes ever donated by any philanthropist in this country.

WORLD NEWS OF THE WEEK

Covering Minor Happenings from all Over the Globe.

HOME AND FOREIGN

Compiled and Condensed for the Busy Reader—A Complete Record of European Despatches and Important Events from Everywhere Bottled Down for Hasty Perusal.

Secretary of War Taft declared Cuban national elections would be held in May or June, 1908, and that progress at Panama pleased him.

Havana despatches stated that the conservatives and liberals were quarrelling in the Electoral Commission over the federalization of Havana.

A bill for the investigation of the lower criminal courts of New York city and Buffalo was introduced at Albany.

The steamer Anacatia and fourteen persons aboard sank during a storm on Lake Michigan.

Rhode Island's Legislature adjourned sine die without having broken the deadlock in a vote for a United States Senator.

Oliver M. Dennett, a broker, was arrested charged with being an accomplice of W. O. Douglass, who stole $200,000 in bonds from the Trust Company of America, New York City.

Damages amounting to many millions of dollars were caused by the fire in the Toulon arsenal and more than thirty people were injured by falling walls.

The British Territorial Army bill passed its second reading in the House of Commons.

President Roosevelt, answering labor critics, repeats his statement that Moyer and Haywood are undesirable citizens.

Commissioner Bingham, New York City in reorganizing the detective bureau, will personally inspect and investigate each man.

Mrs. Anisla Louise de Massey's trial for the murder of Gustave Sluon began in New York City with the selection of the jury.

President Charles C. King, of the First National Bank, of Scotland, S. D., has been arrested charged with stealing $67,277 from the bank.

Colonel C. D. Parkhurst proposed a naval demonstration against Oyster Bay as a feature of the summer's coast defence manoeuvres of artillery and militia.

All the ships in the American fleet assembled in Hampton Roads are ready to welcome the foreign men of war which will attend the Jamestown Exposition opening.

The United States Supreme Court dismissed the appeal of "Lord Barrington," convicted of the murder of James P. McCann, a horseman, in St. Louis.

Rhode Island's Republican State Executive Committee declared for Colonel Colt for United States Senator.

Minnesota's Legislative Committee reported that the railroads of the State were worth $215,000,000, or $185,000,000 less than the amount of capitalization.

Rear Admiral Evans, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, declared the United States should keep six ten battle ships each in the Atlantic and Pacific.

Secretary of War Taft told Puerto Ricans in Ponce they enjoyed all the liberty of the American people.

Havana bankers declined Governor Magoon's invitation to borrow the surplus in the Cuban treasury, saying they could not lend the money they had.

Governor Hughes said Mayor McClellan had ample power under the present laws to investigate all departments of the New York city government.

Defendants in the suit for an accounting of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy's property filed answers declaring the suit was not brought in good faith by her "next friends."

Three Ohio counties are reported to be in favor of Mr. Taft for the Presidency in preference to Mr. Foraker.

William J. Bryan and Senator Beveridge advocated the necessity of a federal license for big corporations.

Norfolk Va., enforced its Sunday blue laws so that officers and men of visiting war shops were unable to get drinks.

Governor Hughes declined to sign the Whitney bill, favored by Senator Raines, making changes in the Exercise law.

Senator Alfredo Zayas, a liberal leader in Cuba, declared the second republic would be established and the Americans withdraw completely.

Counsel for the plaintiffs in the suit for an accounting of the estate of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy said no answer was given to their proposal that six persons be allowed to interview the Christian Science leader and qualify as witnesses concerning her mental condition.

Fear of a democratic victory in 1908 was given as the reason for the resignation of John F. Stevens as chief engineer of the Panama Canal.

FOREIGN NEWS.

According to a St. Petersburg despatch the Tsar, in granting audience to M. Golovin, President of the Duma, expressed astonishment at the unproductive character of the parliamentary debates and criticized the president for his manner in presiding.

Striking bakers three thousand strong assembled on the Place de la Concorde, Paris, and marched to war the Madeleine, being dispersed after several collisions with the police.

Special news from Russia said the Tsar had given to M. Stolypin discretionary power to dissolve the Duma.

Several thousand workmen, discharged from the Woolwich arsenal for reasons of economy, marched to the House of Commons to impress their grievances upon the British government.

News from Pareto Plata was that the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Dominican Congress had reported on the American treaty, favoring its amendment.

Senator Bourne, of Oregon, declared the public demanded the nomination of President Roosevelt for a "second elective term."

Luther Burbank, a horticulturist, said in a book just published that the human race could be improved by methods similar to those used in improving plants.

Thousands of Americans, says a London despatch, are making the British metropolis their halting place in the course of their automobile tours through Europe.

As the time approaches for the discussion of home rule and the reform of the House of Lords in Parliament the liberals are greatly stirred, says a despatch.

M. Clemenceau's decree removing the religious element from the ancient fete in celebration of the deliverance of Orleans by Joan of Arc has caused a great stir in that city, says a despatch.

M. Pierre Thierry is suing the former Empress Eugenie to collect the amount of a loan made to Napoleon III. by his uncle, says a Paris despatch.

According to a despatch, Dr. Wood McMurtry, who has become famous in Europe for automobile touring is now bringing out a revised edition of his touring map for Central Europe.

A strike of waiters in the cafes of Paris has begun on the boulevards.

Earthquake shocks were felt at Tortosa and Murcia, in Spain; in the vicinity of Constantople, Turkey, and at Askabad, in Russia Transcaspian territory.

In the British Parliament the Attorney General introduced a bill constituting a Court of Criminal Appeal.

A menacing naval demonstration is being made by French war ships off Mogador, and the situation in Morocco is declared to be very critical.

SPORTING NEWS.

W. A. Larned and George Wrenn, Jr., won the round robin doubles in lawn tennis tournament at St. Nicholas Rink.

William Sandler, a Columbia student, was drowned in the gymnasium pool of the university, his body remaining there twenty-four hours.

YALE APPLAUSE TOO WARM.

Students Warned Not to Break More Glasses and Furniture. New Haven, Conn., April 25.—In the last month an orchestra has played for Yale men at the evening meal at the Yale dining hall. So enthusiastic have the students been that they have broken hundreds of dollars' worth of furniture and glassware in showing their approval.

The dining hall management finally took the matter up with the college authorities and each student has received a notice to "hereafter confine their applause to handclapping and yelling."

The Mongolia Redoated.

Moji, Japan, April 24.—The Pacific Mail steamer Mongolia, which went ashore in Mayatomo Strait, near here, was assisted into deep water at high tide, and proceeded on her way.

She apparently sustained no serious damage.

Village Justice A Suicide.

Paterson, N. J., April 24.—When confronted by his wife, Frederick W. Gardner, a wealthy resident of Ridgewood and Justice of the Peace, shot and instantly killed himself tonight at the door of the home of Mrs. Benjamin Eglin, the young wife of the village blacksmith.

$500 For Slapping Woman.

Chicago, Ill., April 25.—A jury fixed the price of one slap in the face, administered by William B. White to Mrs. Anna M. Moss, at $500. The cause of the argument which led to the slap was the refusal of Mrs. Moss to pay the rent of her flat.

Fairbanks's Plant Burned.

Springfield, April 25.—The Indianapolis Frog and Switch Works, owned by Vice President Fairbanks, was destroyed by fire. The loss was $250,000.

TOO MUCH PROSPERITY.

Reason Given by Western Electric President for Dropping 5,000 Men.

Chicago, April 24.—The Western Electric Company recently has dropped 5,000 out of 25,000 men from its pay rolls. Not hard times, nor the expected approach of hard times, but "too much prosperity," was assigned by President E. M. Barton to-day as the cause of the company's action.

"The high prices for copper, steel, and lead metals, which we use very largely, make construction of plants in which our apparatus is used very much more expensive than at any time for twenty-five years," he said. "Our customers, then have to face the probability that the plant put in at the present rate of cost could be duplicated within a few years at greatly reduced outlay. The fundamental difficulty, therefore, is too much prosperity."

PASTOR AFTER LONGWORTHS.

Says Entertainment They Gave on Sunday Violated All Law.

Cincinnati, April 24.—"The breakfast given by the Longworths on Sunday was just as much a violation of the law as the open saloons downtown," declared the Rev. Robert Watson, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, to-day.

In his sermon yesterday the Rev. Mr. Watson denounced the guests at the Longworth breakfast, many of whom were members of his own congregation.

"Congressman Longworth and his family not only broke the laws of the State and Church, but the laws a Congressman, sworn to uphold the Sunday," he said. "Longworth is laws, and yet he deliberately breaks of God as well, in giving an entertainment such as this 'breakfast'."

CHINESE ENVOY RECALLED.

Liang Tun-Yen, a Graduate of Yale to be New Minister at Washington.

London, Tuesday, April 24.—The Peking correspondent of the Times says that Sir Chenting Liang-Cheng the Chinese Minister at Washington, is to return to Peking.

He will probably have the posts vacated by Tang Shao-Yi, namely President of the Board of Foreign Affairs and Controller-General of Maritime Customs.

Sir Chenting Liang-Cheng will be succeeded by Liang Tun-Yen, at present customs Taoatl at Tien-Tsin, Liang Tun-Yen is a Cantonese and a graduate of Yale.

JAMES EADS NOW EXPELLED.

Driven from the Welfare Association, Which He Founded.

St. Louis, April 25.—James Eads How, Socialist and phalanthropist, and heir of James B. Eads, builder of the Eads Bridge here, has been expelled from the Welfare Association, which he gave a fortune to uplift the proletariat.

Gen. Fry, who led Coxey's Army to Washington, led in the movement to expel him.

Bachelor of 101 to Wed Girl of 100.

St. Louis, April 23.—The authentic records of human history contain no parallel to a marriage which, it was announced here to-day, is being planned to take place at Batesville, in the Tennessee mountains, on Aug. 1. The bridegroom will be John B. Bundren, a well-to-do bachelor farmer, who attained his one hundred and first year the first of the present month. The prospective bride is Miss Rose McGuire, of Preston, Lancashire, England, who on the day set for the wedding will be exactly one hundred years of age.

Bundren will go to England in June for his bride. He has never smoked or drunk and is well preserved. He expects to live fifty years longer, he says.

Curfew Law for Plainfield.

Plainfield, N. J., April 25.—Mayor Charles J. Fisk issued a sweeping order to the police ordering that all children under 14 years of age be kept off the streets after 8 o'clock at night when unaccompanied by their parents.

The order transmitted to Chief of Police Kelly instructed him to announce to his men at roll call that wherever a child of tender age was found in the street after that hour, the policeman should tell the child to go home, and in event of a refusal to take the little one to its parents.

Hats Off to the Flag!

Columbus, Ohio, April 24.—At the first dress parade of the Spring, held at Columbus Post several civilian spectators were requested to remove their hats in salute to the National colors.

"I shall insist upon every one removing his hat when the National colors are raised in this parade and on other occasions of the kind," said Col. Glenn, commanding the post, "Everybody should show such respect to the flag of the United States, and I intend to enforce such respect here."

4 Men and 250 Horses Killed.

New York, April 24.—At least four men were killed and 250 horses burned to death in the destruction of the big stables of the Dispatch Express Company, formerly the old Christopher Street car barns, at Nos. 368 374 Christopher Street.

For hours panic reigned in the neighborhood from the wild stampede of 170 horses which had been unleashed from their stalls in time to escape the flames.

CUBANS PRAYING FOR BARR.

Liberal Leader Objects to Paying $2,000,000 for Churches.

Havana, April 23.—Prayers were offered in all the churches throughout the island Sunday for rain, which has not fallen for six months. The country is parched, many cattle

JOSE MIGUEL GOMEZ are dying and flocks are devastated various sections. Jose Miguel Gomez, the Liberal leader in a statement published, protests against the purchase of church properties by the Government for $2,000,000. He gives as his reason that the church titles are questionable, and the price far in excess of the value of the property.

PLAGUE AT CARTHAGENA.

Three Hundred Persons Sent to Hospital There.

Madrid, April 25.—According to an evening newspaper the Ministry of Marine has received a telegram from the Captain General at Carthagena saying the plague is raging at that port. Three hundred persons have been sent to hospitals.

BASEBALL LEAGUE SUMMARIES.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table showing standing of National League clubs: Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Boston, Pittsburg, St. Louis, Brooklyn.

American.

Table showing standing of American League clubs: Chicago, New York, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston, Detroit, Washington, St. Louis.

FINANCIAL.

Stocks were irregular but closed strong.

London markets, though the volume of business did not grow materially, developed a much more cheerful tone.

Details of the Morse steamship merger were announced.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wholesale Prices of Farm Products Quoted for the Week.

The Milk Exchange price for standard quality is 3 1/4 per qt.

Large table of market prices for various goods including Butter, Cheese, Eggs, Live Poultry, Dressed Poultry, Vegetables, Hay and Straw, Grain, etc.