MRS. EDD

Cabinet at Pleasent View Now Divided in Favor of Mrs. Stetson.

CONSPIRACY ON FOOT

Charge is Made that the Leader of the Christian Science Church in New York City Is Identified with Strange Activities at Concord, and that Frye Is Her Agent.

Boston Mass, May 7 .- Developments in the equity suit to compel an accounting of the estate of Mary Saker G. Eddy reveal an amazing state of affairs at Pleasant View, Concord, N. H., where the aged counder of Christian Science, according to the sworn charges of her relatives is a helpless prisoner in the power of conspirators.

Former Senator William E. Chandler and all the lawyers associated with him as counsel for the plaintiff relatives now express the belief that Mrs. Eddy, wrecked in health and unbalanced in mind, is beset on every side by two opposing sets of conspirators, engaged in a desperate con-Met for mastery.

It is now charged that Mrs. Agusta Stetson, leader of the Christian Selance cult in New York City, is closely identified with the strange activities at Pleasant View: that Calvin A. Frye, the all powerful footman-secretary, is Mrs. Stetson's agent in that louse of mystery; and that a plot is m foot to compel the retirement of Mrs. Eddy and the elevation of Mrs. Stetson to the leadership:

It is further charged, on the trength of new-found evidence, that Alfred Farlow, H. S. Hering, Irving Tomlinson and the other defendants named in the bill of equity, are com-Mined in determined opposition to the Stetson-Frye group.

SLAYER OF THREE CONFESSES.

Tells of Murder Without the Slightest Sign of Remorse.

Goshen, N. Y., May 7 .- "Take me out and kill me any time you pleass said Charles H. Rogers when at his journey's end here. He was locked up in the couty jail charged with three peculiarly atrocious murders.

He had made full confession that he was the sole person responsible for the killing of Fred R. Olney, Willis Olney and Alice Ingerick, daughter of their housekeeper, Mrs. Inserick, whose life he also tried to take at the Olney farm near Howell's Station on the Erie, fourteen miles from here.

The murders were done on Oct 6 1905. For a long time it appeared as if justice would be folled. Although Rogers, who was a farm laborer and a trolley motorman, was under suspicion, there was little to connect him with the crime, except the fact ha he had dissappeared e day of the the murder.

Persistent but vain efforts had been made to discover Roger's wheareabouts, until the final clue came in a way that proves again the truth of the trite saying, murder

AUTO HUNT IN JERSEY.

State's Machine, in Disguise, Starts Out to Get Speed Violators.

Trenton, May 9. Somewhere on the highways of the State is the new seventy-five-mile-an-hour automobile of State Motor Vehicle Commissioner J. B. R. Smith, waiting for violators of the State auto laws. The machine went into commission to-day and departed from the State capital under sealed orders.

This is the opening of the campaign against violators of the State automobile laws. The new machine, holding State Inspectors, has no distinguishing marks on it.

The number will be changed from time to time, and arrangements have been made to substitute another car as soon as autoists learn the identity of the State machine. Occupants of this car will have power to stop any automobilist and demand the production of his credentials.

STRICKEN DUMB IN COURT.

Lawyer Who Was About to Plead May Be Forever Mute.

South Norwalk, Conn., May 9 .-Ernest C. Gregory, a young lawyer, appeared recently to make an appeal for a client. As he attempted to address the Court his voice failed him and he could not utter a word.

The lawyer coughed, hemmed and rubbed his ears, thinking that perhaps he couldn't hear his own voice, and the Judge thought the proceeding decidedly unprofessional, as the spectators had begun to laugh. Ho started to upbraid the lawyer, but Gregory fell back in his chair almost in a swoon from surprise and grief. The laughter subsided when the gravity of the situation became apparent. It was thought that the affliction might be but temporary, but experts have ascertained that the vocal organs are paralyzed.
