REVOLTING TALE OF GRIME

Orchard Tells How Circle Spread Terror Among Union's Rivals.

MURDER, HIS TRADE

Declaring Himself the Perpetrator He Swears He was Incited Thereto by Haywood and Other Officials of the Miners' Federation and Paid by Them-

Boise, Idaho, June 11 .- In soft easy tones almost like those of a woman-Harry Orchard, confessed assassin of Governor Steunenberg, told a story of nineteen revolting murders with gun and bomb, committed for cold cash, that is without a parallel in the history of crime in this country.

In the Steunenberg murder, and in all the other assassinations in which Orchard had a hand, he was acting under the explicit direction, he testified, of Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone.

He began involving Haywood from the time of the Cripple Creek strike in 1903

In all Orchard confessed to participating in the murder of 19 men. Two were killed in a Coeur D'Alene mine blow-up; two more at the Vindicator mine in the Cripple Creek district. Into the body of another man-a detective-he fired three charges of buckshot, instantly killing him. Then, he said, he set and ared the mine under the Indepenlence depot, killing 14 men. For this piece of work Haywood praised bim highly and paid him $500.

Finally after an attempt to poison a mine manager in San Francisco, rad failed, he fixed up a bomb in front of his front door that blew the mine manager into the street. The manager, however, survived.

After the San Francisco Bomb throwing he says: "I returned to Denver under the guise of a soldier & immediately called Pettibone on the telephone.

'Pettibone asked me how Bradley he continued. "I told him Bradley was still alive when I left in Francisco, but it was reported he would lose his eyesight and probably he deaf for the rest of his life.

Pettibone said that was better than £ I had killed him outright-that Bradley would now be a living exumple."

Orchard said he asked for money md received $125 from Pettibone. with the assurance that he could get nore whenever I wanted it.

He said he shadowed Gov. Pealody for weeks. First he tried to kill ifm with his shotgun, then he folbwed him to his home in Canyon tity and plotted to dynamite him. the Governor suddenly changed his abits. Orchard averred, so that enamite proved futile. The more revolting his crimes and he more lives lost in any attack the letter he was paid, he says by Haysood. Mover and Pettibone

This is how Orchard told of Steuenberg's death:

I located him just before evening. was in the saloon part of the ptel playing cards and I came out ato the lobby and I seen Mr. Steuenberg sitting in the hotel talking another man. I went up to his esidence as fast as I could walk nd placed the bomb at his gate in ach a way that when the gate was sened it was fastened with a string ad would explode.

When I was going back toward be hotel I met Mr. Steunenberg and ran as fast as I could. I was bout a block and a half from the aratoga Hotel on the foot bridge then I heard it go off. I hurried as est as I could and went into the sloon part of the hotel and met the se bartender there and helped him & up a little parcel, and then went p to my room.

Gould Would Pay Big Alimony.

New York, June 12 .- Howard buld is considering the advisadity of starting a counter-suit for sparation against his wife. Such a action, he thinks, would lessen ie chances of Mrs. Gould's obtainig a court decree for alimony of 250,000 a year.

Mr. Gould said through one of his mends that he would be perfectly willing to set aside a sufficient sum or the support of his wife, but that a certainly would not entertain the amand for a quarter of a million Mlars a year. "Not only is such a sum ridicususly large," said Mr. Gould's dend, "but Mr. Gould thinks that, wing to the conduct of Mrs. Gould uring the last three years they zed at Castle Gould, she has no alld claim for such a sum.

Croker's Orby Wins Derby.

London, June, 12 .- For the third Ine in the history of the Derby the reatest classic of the turf world has sen carried off by an American oner. At Epsom, Richard Croker's by, the son of an American dam ad ridden by Johnny Reiff, an Amrican jockey, easily defeated the est of the English three-year-olds ad came home a handsome winner y two lengths. Wool Winder was seend and Sileve Gallion, the 8 to B favorite, third.

From the financial side Croker ecaped a rich profit from the race. UTILITIES BILL SIGNED.

Effective July 1st .- Corporations Under Strict Accountability.

Albany, N. Y., June 11 .- The much discussed public utilities bill is now a law. It was signed by Governor Hughes last Thursday. It was repassed by both houses over the veto of Mayor McClellan of New York city.

The Governor filed no memorandum with the bill.

Demands Made by the New Law on Common Carriers.

Safe and adequate service and just and reasonable charges are required of every corporation, and rebates and discrimination in rates between different classes of shippers or passengers or kinds of traffic are prohibited. No common carrier is to charge any greater compensation in the aggregate under substantially similar circumstances and conditions for a shorter than for a longer distance. Common carriers must furnish to shippers upon reasonable notice sufficient and suitable cars for the transportation of freight in carload

If a common carrier has not sufficient cars to meet all reasonable requirements the cars available must be distributed among the several applicants without discrimination.

A receipt or bill of lading must be given, and corporations are prohibited from stipulating therein that they shall be exempt from any liability for loss or damage to property.

Every common carrier is specifically made liable for loss or damage due to delay in transit occasioned by negligence.

Railroad corporations are required to furnish switch and side track connections to shippers where reasonably practicable.

Common carriers are required to file with the commission and to keep open to the public a schedule of rates and fares in a form prescribed by the commission.

Neither commission may authorize the capitalization of any franchise in excess of the amount (exclusive of any tax or annual charge) actually paid to the state or to a political subdivision thereof as the consideration for the grant of such franchise.

No corporation shall purchase or hold stock in another such corporation or common carrier unless auth_ orized by the commission.

NAVY LAUNCH LOST.

Believe Six Midshipmen and Five Seamen Are Drowned-

Fort Monroe, Va., June 13.-Six midshipmen and a crew of five seamen of the steam launch of the battle ship Minnesota, now at Hampton Roads, are believed to have been drowned while returning to the Minnesota from shore during the night. The party of officers had attended a dance at the Jamestown Exposition grounds, and the launch left the exposition pier about midnight and has not been heard from since. A ditty box, or small chest, belonging to G. W. Westphal, a fireman of the launch has ben picked up affoat near berth No. 27 of the Jamestown war ship anchorage.

It was stated authoritatively that the naval officials have absolute knowledge of the identity of a steamer which ran down the launch, and that the arrest of the crew of the steamer is expected to follow.

FIREMEN WERE FIREBUGS.

Started Fires in Town in Saxonyto Win Rewards as Heroes.

Berlin, June 12 .- A series of forty three fires in Siebenlehn, Saxony, extending from 1896 to 1906, by which stxty-three houses were burned, has been traced to the volunteer fire brigade there.

Certain evidence given in a local law-suit put the police on the track of the incendiaries, and it was found that the chief traders and artisans, together with the Burgomaster, were the heads in the conspiracy.

The firemen used to be periodically rewarded for heroic conduct in extinguishing fires which they themselves had started.

Frye and Others Summoned For Equity Proceedings-Execution of Document Constituted Contempt of Court-Her Competency Attacked-Fight Promises Interest-

Concord, N. H., June 12 .- Judge Robert N. Chamberlain to-day denied the petition of Henry M. Baker, have stimulated the demand to any of Bow; Josiah E. Fernald, of Conford, and Archibald McLellan, of Boston, to be substituted as plaintiffs in the suit which the heirs-at- active. law and next friends of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy have begun to secure an accounting of the property and an adjudication as to Mrs. Eddy's mental condition.

Judge Chamberlain made no comment. His decision reads:

"The petition of Henry M. Baker. Archibald McLellan and Josiah E. Fernald for leave to intervene as plaintiffs in the equity proceedings of Eddy vs. Frye is denied."

Calvin Frye and three of the ten defendants in the suit were immediately served with summonses requiring them to give their depositions in the equity proceeding.

This decision is in favor of the next friends, who are represented by ex-Senator William E. Chandler and other prominent lawyers of New England. After their bill of equity was filed, on March 1 last, a socalled "trust deed" was recorded, in which Mrs. Eddy gave control of all her property into the hands of three trustees. This action, taken on March 6, was followed by the trustses that they should be substituted, for the next friends who had brought the suit for an accounting and an adjudication as to Mrs. Eddy's competency.

A two day's hearing in court was held at which Gen. Frank S. Streeter, of Concord, argued for the trustees that they hould be substituted, as by their acceptance of the trust they had been given the right to appear for Mrs. Eddy in all actions at law. Ex Senator Chandler, in opposing the petition, declared that the "trust deed" was executed for the purpose of avoiding the suit and that it was void because the question of Mrs. Eddy's competency already had been attacked. Mr. Chandler argued also that the hurried execution of the document while court proceedings were pending constituted contempt of court.

PAY FOR SPANISH WAR MEN.

$80,000 at Albany Represents Share of the Government.

Albany, June 12.- Upward of $80,000 from the Treasury of the United States is in the hands of the State authorities for distribution among the 10,000 or 12,000 men who served in the volunteer regiments of this State in the Spanish

American war. New Jersey and other States asserted that during the time the State troops were in the camps of rendezvous within their own States they were serving under two contracts, one with the State at their regular enlistment rate, the other with the United States at the army rate, and were therefore entitled to what amounte to double pay. This contention finally succeeded. The fund will average $6 or $7 per man.
