Improved Musical Instrument.

Musical instruments have, as a rule, been entirely ignored by inventors. There seems to be no desire to design anything new in the musical line, probably because the popular piano, violin and other common

HORN MAGNIFIES THE SOUND.

Musical instruments are perfectly satisfactory. Nevertheless, anything new in this line should prove interesting, as, for instance, the one shown in the illustration, the invention of an Idaho man. This instrument is a combination of a mandolin and a horn, the latter serving as a sort of megaphone, increasing the volume of sound. In the majority of stringed instruments of this class the sound emitted is so fine and delicate that it can be heard but a short distance from the performer. Not so with this instrument. The sound is magnified by the horn and transmitted with increased power.

The Olive Oil Cure.

Many women exhaust their system by not taking daily care of their health. Those who are troubled to know how to proceed should take a tablespoonful of olive oil daily. It is good for the skin, the digestion and the liver, making them do their work well.

Fill a wineglass partly with water, then put in the oil and more water, gulp it down, and you will not taste it. Get the best olive oil that is to be got.

This is a treatment that may not suit everybody—it does suit most people; but ask your doctor, because he may know of some bodily peculiarity that might make it disagree. There is no treatment that will suit everybody, but in nine cases out of ten those who follow this advice will testify to its wisdom, and will be quite astonished at the result.

It makes you vigorous, brisk and not overburdened.

Paid Her Fee.

An old Scotch lady used to be attended by a doctor to whom she invariably gave a guinea when he went to see her. He had told the friends with whom she lived that her death would probably be sudden, and one day he was hurriedly sent for as she appeared to have become unconscious. On his arrival he saw at once that the old lady was dead, and, taking hold of her right hand which was closed, but not rigid, he calmly extracted from it the fee which she provided for him, and as he did so he murmured, "Sensible to the last!"

THE CALL OF THE SEA.

"The water is fine; come in!"

This is the call of the sea, the generous invitation of Old Neptune to partake of the delights of his realm, and it sounds clear and distinct from each of the points in the greatest chain of seashore resorts in the world—the wave-washed New Jersey coast.

Gay Atlantic City; witching Wildwood; New Cape May in the first flush of its rejuvenation; Sea Isle City, Ocean City, with their smaller sister-resorts nearby; Asbury Park and Long Branch where sylvan shades meet incoming billows—each echo the call to young and old; "Come one; come all!"

Unequaled opportunities are offered to pay a visit to the Southern New Jersey sea coast resorts in the great seashore excursions of the Pennsylvania Railroad now being run at frequent intervals.

From Lock Haven, Williamsport, Lewisburg, Mocaqua, Sunbury, Daphin, and principal intermediate stations the remaining dates for these popular outings are Thursday, August 22, and Sunday, August 25.

The Thursday excursion tickets are good for a ten-day stay at the shore; the Sunday tickets for a five-day stay.

Passengers to Atlantic City may use the famous Delaware River Bridge all-rail route at a slight additional cost. Tickets will be sold to Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Anglesea, Holly Beach, and Avalon.

Passengers may stop off at Philadelphia within limit of the ticket either going or returning. Frequent trains run between Philadelphia and all seashore points.

Full details of these fine outings beside the sea may be obtained of Ticket Agents.
