TEACHERS' $350,000 LEFT PROVIDED FOR.

District Must First Pay the Raise, and Wait to Be Reimbursed Next June.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaefer says that not so much money will be required as had been thought to carry out the amended Snyder Minimum Salary act passed by the recent Legislature.

This excess over the salaries paid to the teachers last year will be taken out of the increase in the school appropriation from $5,500,000 to $7,500,000 by the recent Legislature.

The Legislature set apart out of the increased appropriation $275,000 for the support of township high schools for the two years beginning the first Monday of June next, and added $75,000 to the amount heretofore appropriated for two years in aid of these schools.

These several amounts, when deducted from the total increased appropriation, will still leave more than $800,000 additional to be distributed among the 2600 school districts annually in the usual way, to be used for the purposes for which the $5,500,000 heretofore appropriated has been used.

This will give every school district in Pennsylvania a larger appropriation the next two years than this year, provided they all comply with the school laws and do not suffer a decrease of population.

The Snyder act increases the minimum salary of school teachers from $35 a month to $40 and $50, according to their qualifications and term of service, and directly affects between 3500 and 4000 teachers.

1907 a Red Letter Year.

Right to Vote Won by Women in Four Countries.

Women all over the world are beginning to look upon 1907 as a red letter year for their sex. Their first notable step ahead this year was the granting of Parliamentary suffrage to the women of Norway.

In 1888, when the country councils were instituted in England, it was thought that women were eligible, and three—Lady Margaret Sandhurst, Miss Jane Cobden and Miss Cons—were elected by the voters of London.

It is to be hoped that the gentleman will find himself equal to mothering all those babies.

Educational Association.

The third regular meeting of this association will be held Saturday, Nov. 16. Supt. M. J. Lloyd of Taylor, has promised to be present to give two addresses, his subjects to be announced.

These meetings are very helpful, and the interest is increasing.

It weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and breaks down the general health.

It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice.

Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy.

Caramels and the Pure Food Law.

Confectioners are up against it. Dr. H. W. Wiley, Government chemist, and his pure food board, have frowned upon the false and misleading labeling of caramels.

The blow falls at a peculiarly unpropitious time. The Christmas holidays are almost upon the confectioners. They are preparing for the usual rush at this season.

The difficulty has arisen because the board was called upon to answer the following inquiries propounded by manufacturers:

1. Milk Caramel.—This piece contains no milk, but is composed principally of sugar and glucose and we would like to know if milk were added to this formula whether we could still continue to call it "milk caramel?"

2. Peaches and Cream Caramel.—This piece is made up principally of sugar and glucose and milk and flavored with peach flavor.

The whole business is wrong, say Dr. Wiley and his associates, and it must stop.

The food and drug law provides that any article of food is misbranded if it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article; if it be labeled so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser; if the package containing it or its label shall bear any statement, design or device regarding the ingredients or the substance contained therein, which statement, design or device shall be false or misleading in any particular.

Card of Thanks.

I thank the good people of Columbia county for their support in my candidacy for the office of Associate Judge. Certain conditions of things brought only a small majority, but for the future it may be for the better for the party.

Most respectfully, WM. KRICKBAUM.

Why Men Desert from the Army.

(An Enlisted Man in Leslie's Weekly)

A certain troop of cavalry had about twenty desertions in one year. The writer took pains—knowing the men personally—to inquire as to the reason of the desertions.

At the commencement of the Spanish-American War, when the army was increased to war strength, intelligent non-commissioned officers received promotions to various vacancies with greater pay.

The old soldiers who could hardly write their own names were promoted to the vacancies caused by the increase.

This famous hotel is located but a few rods from the Columbia-Sullivan line in the former county and was erected a few years since by a syndicate of capitalists of Bloomsburg, at a cost of about $17,000.

MAKING A NEWSPAPER

Moving Pictures Show Every Step in Production of "The Record."

There has been a general curiosity on the part of the public to know how a modern newspaper is made and to satisfy all, the whole story was recently told at Keith's Philadelphia Theatre, in a remarkable series of life-motion pictures called "The Making of a Modern Newspaper."

The series opens with a scene representing a newspaper office over a hundred years ago. This is to give artistic and historical contrast to the great mechanical advance in journalism since that time.

The next picture shows the business offices of "The Philadelphia Record," with the office force and the ordinary routine of business going on.

Next comes a prominent feature of the making of a modern newspaper—the "Drawing of the Daily Cartoon."

Receiving want and other advertisements by telephone is an interesting sight that follows next. This is a feature of advertising that in recent times has grown to great proportions.

The final picture shows "The Philadelphia Record" at the breakfast table, and makes a fitting climax to the wonderful series.

"The Toymakers."

When Charles Felton Pidgin wrote "Quincy Adams Sawyer" the whole country laughed over this quaint and pathetic picture of rural life in New England.

He wrote the book and then the play and everybody is reading the novel and longing to hear the new opera, for it has great possibilities.

"The Jollities" make the most of the situations with their excellent company of good singers, dancers and comedians.

Messrs. Blake and Bennett wrote the music for the twenty-six clever songs and they are full of melody with a swing and "go" that carries the audience with them.

The great comic opera of "The Toymakers" will be seen at the Opera House on Thursday, Nov. 21st for one night only.
