SPRING ARBOR DAYS.

Governor Stuart Makes April 3rd and 24th Arbor Days.

Governor Stuart issued a proclamation designating April 3 and 24 as Arbor Days.

The American people are on the verge of a timber famine. The annual consumption of lumber is now more than three times as great as the annual growth.

Pennsylvania has made a commendable beginning at systematic forestry. The State now owns more than three-quarters of a million acres of forest land.

Trees are valuable not merely for use as lumber, but also for shade and for fruit.

Our State occupies a foremost place in the value of its orchards and fruit trees. The rising generation should feel a special interest in the planting of the best varieties of trees.

Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, A Powder.

It makes walking easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Swollen and Sweating Feet.

The Rotary, is the Name of a Perfect Nickle Alarm Clock.

Whether you are required to report for work 'On the minute' or a person of leisure, a good alarm clock is often a necessity.

Ultra sound sleepers, after using the common, continuous alarm clock a short time, have found that the alarm awakens them momentarily only.

The retail price of the clock is $2-50. On account of the universal depression, the manufacturer was compelled to have ready money.

The saving is yours, but hurry, as the demand is greater than the supply.

GRAVEL CURED

(Philadelphia, Penn., Item.) A healthier, heartier, happier man than John J. Neill, of 2437 North 8th St., Philadelphia, could not be found in a day's search.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY Although disheartened, he bought a bottle of it, and within a month had experienced beneficial results.

Favorite Remedy is prescribed with unflinching success for rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation, and nerve troubles in which it has cured many that were considered beyond the aid of medicine.

The anthracite coal regions of Pennsylvania include 1750 square miles of actual deposits. There are 480 square miles in nine counties. The lowest beds are in the Wyoming Valley regions, being only 700 feet above sea level, the highest are in Freeland and Hazleton, 1700 feet above sea level. There are thirty-two nationalities in the population of the coal fields.

CASITORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought. Beware the Signature of

William T. Creasy's Record

As Viewed by the Newspapers and Prominent Men of the County and State.

THE JOHNSTOWN DEMOCRAT SPEAKS OUT AND SAYS:

"It is reported that an effort is being made in Columbia county to defeat Representative Wm. T. Creasy for renomination. This would be a state wide misfortune were it to succeed. Mr. Creasy is one of the really strong men of the Pennsylvania legislature. His record is exceptionally meritorious and he has rendered the people of the whole state most valuable service in fighting and in many cases defeating legislation of the most shameful character proposed in the interest of political bandits and their corporation principals.

Mr. Creasy has been in the house for several years and he has come to know the ropes as no new man could hope to learn them without at least an equal length of service and an equal grasp of the fundamentals of good government. The Columbia county farmer is a man of sterling integrity, of courage and of deep and abiding conviction. There is no better Democrat in the state than this big man who commands the respect as he has compelled the wholesome fear of the corrupt gang which has so long ruled at Harrisburg and which is now trying to keep a number of its pets and retainers out of the penitentiary. To lose his strength and his sagacity, and his keen and ardent devotion to the common good from the house in order to make room for some one who is looking for honors, would be little short of calamity.

Of course Mr. Chrisman, the gentleman who is trying to unhorse Mr. Creasy, is clearly within his right. He is a Democrat and he may with propriety aspire to serve his party. But has he a right in pursuing his ambitions to pull down or even attempt to pull down one who has stood so bravely under such a great stress and for so long for all that is best in Democracy and for everything that has been for the advancement of good government? Ordinarily it makes little difference who comes and who goes in the legislature. The practice of rotation in office perhaps is an unimportant detail as it affects the average case. But when it strikes at such a figure as that which Farmer Creasy has made in the Pennsylvania legislature it becomes pernicious; it is more honored in the breach than in the observance.

It is to be hoped therefore that in the interest of the Democratic party of the state as well as in the interest of Pennsylvania, whose faithful servant Mr. Creasy has been, Mr. Chrisman will defer his ambition to serve the people of Columbia at Harrisburg. We do not imagine that Mr. Chrisman would claim for himself that he is better equipped than Mr. Creasy for the work which so needs to be done. He can hardly ask the Democrats of the state to look upon him as a better Democrat or as one more loyal to the best traditions of the great party of the plain people. Mr. Creasy is known far beyond the borders of this commonwealth as a man of progressive ideas. He is known as a Democrat of the highest type and as a legislator who brings to his task not only the advantages of a large experience, but also the qualities of mind and heart which differentiate the statesman from the mere politician. He is needed at Harrisburg. The loss of no other man would be so keenly felt. And Columbia county will make a sad mistake if she shall allow the state to lose his services."

HON. JERRY S. BLACK, LATE CANDIDATE FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET, AND GRANDSON OF THE GREAT JURIST JEREMIAH S. BLACK, SAYS:

YORK, PA., March 25th, 1908.

HON. WILLIAM T. CREASY, Catawissa, Pa.

My Dear Creasy:—In my judgment you owe it to the party and to the State to continue in the service of the people as a member of the Legislature.

For many years you have stood out as a member of the Legislature the uncompromising opponent of bad legislation.

Your leadership of the minority party of the House meets the approval of every Democrat in the State. Your long experience combined with your good judgment and aggressiveness make you a Democratic leader worthy of the name.

With my best wishes, I am, Yours sincerely, J. S. BLACK.

The Philadelphia North American says: "Mr. Creasy is the most useful member in the Legislature."

The Philadelphia Record says, editorially: "Talk of opposition to the renomination of 'Farmer' Creasy as the Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives from his district is likely largely hot air. The good people of Columbia county are too keenly alive to the interests of their prosperous section to willingly dispense with the services of such an honest and able spokesman at Harrisburg. The people of the State at large share this good opinion of Mr. Creasy, and confidently look for him to occupy his old position at the next session of the Legislature."

HON. LEONARD RHONE, FOR MANY YEARS MASTER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE AND AN ARDENT WORKER FOR THE INTERESTS OF THE FARMER SAYS:

TO THE CITIZENS OF COLUMBIA COUNTY:—The people throughout the State, especially the farmers, are greatly interested that your county should return Hon. William T. Creasy (better known as Farmer Creasy) to the Legislature, because of his valuable services to the cause of good government. Especially are the farmers throughout the State anxious for his return on account of his leadership in the interests of agriculture on the floor of the House of Representatives. Respectfully submitted, LEONARD RHONE.

In another part of this paper William T. Creasy announces himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature to succeed himself.

Mr. Creasy is well-known to all people in the county. His reputation as a legislator is one of the best.

He has always been on the side of the people, and during his long service in the Legislature has advocated many reforms. His friends are hoping that he will be renominated and elected.—Sentinel and Daily.

In another column of this paper Wm. T. Creasy makes his formal announcement as Democratic candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Creasy's services in the Legislature are too well known to need comment. One of the State leaders of Democracy he has long taken an active interest in Columbia county politics. He has a national reputation as a Granger and is one of the county's most progressive farmers.—Morning Press.

In this issue we announce the name of Hon. Wm. T. Creasy for the Legislature. Every voter knows the farmer. He is an experienced legislator and long years of service in the lower body of the lawmakers of this State has rounded out of him the best parliamentarian of the State. He asks your suffrage.—Benton Argus.
