THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic National Convention, now in session at Denver, Colorado, will nominate William Jennings Bryan for President. Who will be named for Vice President, is uncertain.

One of the actions of the convention was to overthrow Col. J. M. Guffey as leader of the Pennsylvania Democracy, and to defeat him as member of the National Committee. The direct cause of this was Guffey's open opposition to | Mr. Bryan in the state convention. It was asserted by his opponents that he has used the party for his personal ends, and that he betrayed them in 1906. Mr. Guffey has pro-vided nearly all the campaign funds for the party in this state for the past twelve years.

A 62-Story Building,

Equitable Life Skyscraper to be 900 Feet High.

Plans for a new skyscraper which will overtop all New York's lofty buildings, and the flagpole of which will pierce the sky at a greater height than the Eiffel tower in Paris, the highest structure in the world, have been filed by architects for the Equitable Life Assurance society with the building depart-ment. The projected building for the Equitable will be a sixty-two story structure, 900 feet from the curb to the tip of the tower, on which will be placed a flagpole 150 feet in length The ball on the flagpole will be seventy-four feet higher than the 985-foot steel Eiffel tower. The main building, which will occupy the site of the present structure of the company on lower Broadway, covering an entire block, will be thirty-four stories, above which will rise a square tower of twenty-eight stories, capped with a cupola. The structure is to cost $10,000,000.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY, THANKS TO PE-RU-NA.

Mrs. Frank Stroebe, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis., writes:

"I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck, could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live.

"Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than f ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life.

"I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement."

This lady entirely recovered from a nervous breakdown. She did not go away to a sanitarium, and spend hundreds of dollars for a cure. She just staid at home, took Peruna, and in four months weighed more than ever in her life, had a splendid color, life looked bright to her. Peruna did all this for her. What more could be expected of any remedy?

Grant Herring, of Sunbury, won a big legal battle recently in securing a reversal in the supreme court of Judge Auten's decision in the case of Motorman Latshaw, of the Shamokin & Edgewood Park Electric Railway, against the company, in which the motorman secured a verdict of $9,000 for injuries sustained in a collision with another car. Judge Auten refused the defendants a non-suit and upon this point Senator Herring secured a reversal, practically deciding the suit

Under orders from Mrs. Cleveland work has begun on the memoirs of the late President, including clippings from newspapers and periodicals on his death and funeral. The work will require six months to complete.

As planned there will be several volumes, consisting of editorial notices, news dispatches, illustrations and cartoons, each bound in Russian levant leather, and lined with purple moire silk. Already material enough is in hand to make up six hundred pages.

Costs a Lot to Tell Taft.

It will cost $25,000 to notify William H. Taft that he has been nominated for the Presidency. The Taft Notification Day Committee has sent out appeals for subscriptions, stating that all this and possibly more will be needed if the plans that have been arranged are carried out. Probably $50,000 will be required.

Taft will be formally notified of his nomination in Eden Park, the largest park in Cincinnati, so as to give as many people as possible an opportunity to be present.

The Kind You Have Alverye Baught

Lincoln's Last Day.

"I got into the White House before 9 o'clock, not with the expectation of seeing Mr. Lincoln so early. but with the hope that I might get a place at the head of the line and be the first to see him. To my surprise I was told that he would see me at once.

"I found him alone. As I entered the door he got up quickly and strole across the room toward me, saying as he came: "Hello, Creswell! The war is over!" He grasped my hand with the enthusiasm of a schoolboy and repeated the exclamation. "The war is over!" adding: 'Look at that telegram from Sherman.' The message assured the President of the culminstion of the Carolinas. Indeed, it was glorious news. Many times with a spirit that was delightful to see. Mr. Lincoln exclaimed: 'The way is over!' Then he woulld stop, grow serious and add. 'But it has been an awful war, Creswell, it has been an awful war! But it is over!'

"When he could leave the theme that was first in his mind and heart. ne exclaimed: 'But what are you after? You fellows dont come to see me unless you want something. It must be something big, or you wouldn't be so early.' I told him my errand and handed him my affidavit. He said: 'That's not so hard. You did right to put it in writing. I don't care to read the statement. I know you know how to make affidavits.'

"Then," said Gen. Creswell, took my affidavit and wrote a brief word upon it, something like this "Do this. A. L.,' and gave it to me. I carried it over to the War Office selves in a way that would drive and after the usual fuse got the orthe horse set wild with envy. der issued. Then I went out into Maryland to attend to some business through the day, and got back into the sity late at night to find every. thing in an uproar over the assassi nation."

Marvelous Horses.

Herr Herzog and His Great Troupe of Performing Stallions.

A circus without fine horses would be like an opera without fine singers, and the Frank A. Robbins new and greatest all feature shows which is to exhibit in Bloomsburg on Friday, July 10th has just added a whole troupe of the most superb performing stallions, saddle and trick horses ever seen under a circus tent. Ten truly magnificent specimens of equine perfection, all idden, driven and performed by that master of equestrianism, Herr Hugo Herzog, who brought to this school trick horses ever on exhibition. These marvelous animals do almost everything but talk, while their drills, quick steps, cake walks and general divertisement, under saddle and at liberty in the arena never fail to excite rounds of applause. Herr Herzog is himself a perfect picture of manly grace on horseback, while his prancing steeds are the very embodiment of good manners and good breeding. They waltz, march, maneuvre, walk erect on their hind feet, cavort and obey every wink, nod or wish of their skillful trainer, and deport them-
