COMFORT FOR THE BABY.

Flies and Mosquitoes Must Be Kep

Away in Summer. Here is a way to make your baby carriage comfortable during the homonths. It will cost almost nothing in the way of time, trouble or money and will mean endless comfort for both mother and baby. Half a yard of fine wire, four yards of mosquito net ting and a bunch of white tape wil be all that is necessary. Make a circle of the wire and sew the netting on it as shown in the cut, leaving an open ing at one side. Run the tape through the bottom hem and slip the whole thing over the top of the carriage parasol, drawing in the tape andtying it under the carriage. See that there are no flies or mosquitoes inside before you close the side opening Bables suffer untold misery from flies during the hot weather. Think of having three or four sticky flies on your face and not being able to brush them off. The baby will sleep just twice as long if safely enclosed in this cage. It cents nor take more than half an hour to make. The result will be a happy baby and a mother who can enjoy a

"While we were all in the garden in the evening I went into the house for something and the dog missed me. Jumping the fence he set off en the return journey just as darkness was coming on. He could not have wasted much time about it, for my servants told me he was back at the farm more than forty miles away, early next morning, and they kept looking out for me, as we were generally not far apart. "I had that dog from a puppy, and I knew he had never seen that road before. It was dark soon after he started, yet he must have traveled at the rate of five or six miles an hour all the way, at a time few, if any, people or conveyances would be near to help him along.

IMPOSTOR POSED AS LONG-LOST SON.

Lived on the Fat of the Land Till the Real Jake Kinderman. Made Appearance.

San Bernardino, Cal.-By the return of Jake Kinderman aftertwentyone years' absence, his family find that that they have been made victims of an unscrupulous imposter who for several years has posed as the real Jake Kinderman, lived at ease, and disgraced the family name by his strange conduct. Because they supposed he was their son they put up with him.

The imposter dropped into the family six years ago and laid claim to being the long lost son. He was received with wide open arms as he told a straight story of his past. Friends of the family from far and near were invited to meet him. Then he began to show signs of a peculiar nature. He carried two big pistols in his belt and wore a cowboy hat and cowhide overalls. He shocked his relatives by applying for the position of official gog catcher. For months he rode a big horse, chasing dogs. It was made so warm for him that he finally left, but he reappeared in Passadena, where he took the dog catcher's job. Later he went to Long Beach to catch canines. After that he drifted into Arizona and six months ago returned, being given another welcome by the parents. For several months he had been

On a recent morning a stalwart young man called at the Kinderman home. He was in the navy blue.

"I'm your son, Jake; don't you know me, mother?" he exclaimed as his parents opened the door.

Mrs. Kinderman caught one glimpse of the man's honest blue eves, heard his voice and fainted. The sailor carried her into the house, while his father, brothers and sis ters swarmed about him, not knowing who he was nor whether he had better be placed under arrest.

"Jake! Jake!" cried the overjoyed mother. She revived, and in an instant the entire family was about him, completely carried awa; with joy at his retura.

How the imposter became possesed of the information which made it so easy for him to set at rest all fears as to his identity is a mystery to the real Jake Kinderman, though it is certain that the two men must have met probably in some foreign land, during the wanderings of the real Jake Kinderman.

When the real Jake ran away with Joe Rubidoux they followed a circus. Then Kinderman joined the navy, and for eighteen years has served Uncle Sam. He fought for his country at Manila. He was won't cost more than twenty five seized with a desire to know the fate of his family and he started for home on a leave of absence. He will return to the navy for a three years few minutes leisure to read or sew. | calistment and when that is served he will be retired.

CHILDREN MADE BLIND,

One-Third Victims of Careless Doc-

Springfield, Ill .- One-third of the blind chudren of this country are the victims of careless physicians or midwives.

This is the charge that Superintendent George W. Jones of the Illinois School for the Blind, makes in an articles in bulletin of the State Board of Charities. Superintendent Jones says:

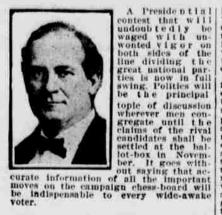

"Intiammation of the eyes of the new born is an acute infection occurring from one to three days after birth. A two per cent, solution of silver pirtate is an absolute specific for this disease and a one per cent. solution can be administered without danger by the most untrained per-

AUTOS USELESS IN WAR.

Tests at Pine Plains Manoeuvres Were Unsatisfactory.

New York City .- The automobile is practically useless for military purposes, is the gist of the report filed at the headquarters of the Department of the East, United States Army, on Governor's Island. This report, signed by Lieut, Col. E. F. Glenn, Twenty-Third Infantry, and Capt. William T. Johnson, Fifteenth Pine Plains, N. Y., during the thirty days' army manoeuvres.

"The Philadelphia Record" Actively Supports Bryan

Democrats turn naturally to "The Philadelphia Record" for such information. It is the only Democratic newspaper in Philadelphia recognized the country over as one of the leading exponents of Democratic opinion on this edge of the Continent. It is fair, though partisan; it chronicles the telling blow, no matter who is hit. Suppression and misrepresentation are weapons that have no place in its armory. "Square deal" Democrats and Republicans will find the daily budget of "The Record" essential to an intelligent understanding of the progress of a lively Presidential canvass.

No newspaper ever achieved popularity on the strength of its political attitude alone. "The Philadelphia Record" is no exception to the rule. It is lifted above the common level by many distinctive features that appeal to the varied interests of every member of the household. It prints the news—all the news—in a concise, brisk form that has come to be known, even among its contemporaries, as "Record style." A proper sense of perspective dictates its thorough presentation of happenings in its own immediate field—Pennsylvania. New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Its editorial treatment of the questions of the day is at once well-balanced and aggressive.

"The Philiadelphia Record" exploits no fads and rides no hobbies, but it is pre-eminent in its special departments. It is the recognized authority in the field of sports and the turf. Farmers and shippers swear by its market reports, which are always complete, accurate and wholly reliable. To the practical man its columns of popularized science are entertaining and helpful; the practical woman finds the matters that He nearest to her heart treated amply—and sanely—in a department devoted to the home, dress and the world of feminine achievement. There is a corner in "The Record" for boys and girls; a weekly column of condensed, up-to-date information for the farmer; a daily bouquet of breezy aneedotes—"The Reporter's Nosegny"—so good that they are clipped and reprinted by newspaper editors throughout the country.

If you want a clean newspaper, worthy to occupy an honored place in the home circle—

If you want a live newspaper without a stream of vellows in its make and the stream of the stream of vellows in its make and the stream of the stream circle—

If you want a live newspaper without a streak of yellow in its make-up—

If you want a stalwart Democratic newspaper that will keep you thoroughly posted on every phase of a stirring national campaign—

If you want a family newspaper the profit and pleasure of reading which will be shared by others, no matter how diverse their tastes and inclinations—

You want "The Philadelphia Record."

It is the only paper that fills the bill.

"The Philadelphia Record" will be mailed to your address at the following rates:
