How strange! When Vermont showed only a slightly reduced majority for the Republicans their papers throughout the land were pointing to it as a sure indication of the election of Taft. When Maine went Republican by only eight thousand, the smallest majority in twenty-five years, the same journals are busying themselves to the point of ridiculousness to make their readers believe that it has no bearing on the fall election whatever.

Mark Twain and the Burglars.

Humorist Clemens Posts a Note After He is Robbed.

Two burglars who broke into the residence of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) in Redding, last Friday night, were captured next morning on a New York, New Haven and Hartford train, between Bethel and Redding, after a desperate fight, in which Deputy Sheriff Banks of Redding, was shot in the leg. The prisoners, who are believed to be professional crooks from New York, refused to talk.

Mr. Clemens posted this notice on the door of his house.

NOTICE—To the next burglar: There is nothing but plated ware in this house, now and henceforth. You will find it in that brass thing in the dining room over in the corner by the basket of kittens. If you want the basket put the kittens in the brass thing. Do not make a noise—it disturbs the family. You will find rubbers in the front hall by that thing which has the umbrellas in it, chiffonier, I think they call it, or perfolo, or something like that. Please close the door. Yours truly, "S. L. CLEMENS."

Jewish Holidays.

New Year's, Atonement and Feast of Booths Are Three Great Days.

The season of the Jewish holidays will begin during the latter part of this month and extend well into October. This is a time of particular religious and historical importance and is generally observed among the Jews throughout the world.

The holidays this year extend from September 26th to October 17th; the three great days being New Year's on September 26th, Day of Atonement on October 6th and the Feast of Booths which extends from October 11th to 17th. The first two are of purely religious significance and the last has also a historical importance.

These holidays reach way back into antiquity for their source, to a time when the lunar calendar was that of all Eastern peoples, and so these holidays are still determined by lunar calculation.

New Year's day marks the beginning of the religious year of the Jewish faith, and derives its sanctity from the fact that it is preliminary to the great Day of Atonement, which, as its name implies, is intended as a time for the atonement for sins and short comings through prayer, self-inquiry and contemplation. This day is regarded by the Jewish people as a day of great solemnity.

Five days after Atonement comes the Feast of Booths, which is a thanksgiving festival. During the Jewish commonwealth in Judea it was made the occasion for thanksgiving to God for the season's crops, which by that time had been garnered. It was also connected with the period of Jewish history following the exodus from Egypt when the Jews lived in the wilderness in tents. This fact is commemorated by the erection of booths usually in the synagogue and by many individuals in their homes. This last holiday is of a week's duration, but only the first and last days are observed by temple services.

May Stop Trains on P. & R.

The Catawissa Division Needs Rain.

So low is the water supply getting on the Catawissa division of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad that traffic all along the line is being held up.

Practically all the trains are now watering at Mainville, the supply having given out at Beaver, Ferrdale and Brandonville. Even the passenger trains which usually water at Beaver are now getting water at Mainville and the supply there is so limited that freight trains are frequently delayed several hours while sufficient water is accumulating in the tank to allow them to get a supply.

If the present conditions prevail much longer it will be with great difficulty that trains can be operated on this division.

EX-Governor of Wyoming Endorses Pe-ru-na.

Other Prominent Americans

Give Pe-ru-na Great Credit.

"I have such confidence in prominent personal friends who have used and endorsed Pe-ru-na that I feel justified in assuming that it is a valuable remedy for catarrh and an excellent general tonic."

John W. Hoyt, Ex-Governor of Wyoming.

The Magnificent State Capitol Building of Wyoming.

LIST OF PROMINENT AMERICANS.

Gen. W. H. Parsons, Confederate Army, ex-State Senator, Texas. Col. Bailey, of Washington, D. C., Labor Organizations and U. V. L. Col. Patten, of Washington, D. C., Military and Masonic Orders. Hon. R. S. Ryan, of Alaska, Ex-Member English House of Parliament. Congressman Cale, of Alaska, well known on Pacific Slope.

Gen. W. H. Parsons.

Gen. W. H. Parsons is ex-State Senator and ex-Special Judge of the Supreme Court of Texas, also Brigadier General in Confederate Army. In a recent letter from 925 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C., this prominent gentleman says:

"Upon the recommendation of personal friends and many strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Peruna in the treatment of the numerous symptoms of the la grippe with which I have been afflicted for four months past, I have been induced to undergo a treatment with this justly celebrated formula. I feel a decided change for the better after using it only one week. It is especially good in toning up the stomach and has had a decided effect upon my appetite. I therefore feel much encouraged that I am on the road to complete restoration.

"My numerous friends in Texas, where I have had the honor to command a brigade of her Veteran Cavalry in a four years' war, may accept this voluntary testimonial to the merits of Peruna as a sense of obligation on my part for its wonderful efficacy."

Col. Wm. Bailey.

William Bailey, 681 St., N. E., Washington, D. C., Past Col. Enc. No. 69, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and Secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.

Within a short period he has been persuaded to try Peruna, and his present healthy condition is attributed to his judicious use of that great remedy. Washington climate is notoriously bad for kidney and liver troubles, yet by a judicious use of the remedy he is now quite cured and in excellent physical condition.

This brief statement of facts, without exaggeration or hyperbole, appears to tell the whole story, which the Peruna Company is authorized to use, if it so chooses, believing, as I do, that by so doing it will be for the general good.—Wm. Bailey.

Col. C. L. Patten.

Col. C. L. Patten, 569 T St., N. W., Washington, D. C., a Lieutenant in the Old Guard, an exclusive organization composed of soldiers of distinction who fought in the civil war, and a Thirtieth degree Mason, writes as follows: "I have used Peruna, and desire to recommend your remedy as an invigorating spring tonic; also one of the best remedies that I ever tried for coughs, colds and catarrhal complaints."

Hon. R. S. Ryan.

Hon. R. S. Ryan, now residing in Nome, Alaska, was formerly a member of the English House of Parliament, and Secretary to the late Irish patriot, Charles Stewart Parnell. His Washington address is New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C. He writes: "I have used Peruna and can recommend your remedy as a very effective cure for colds and catarrhal complaints."

Hon. Thomas Cale.

Hon. Thomas Cale, elected to Congress from Alaska, is well known on the Pacific slope, where he has resided. His Washington address is 1312 9th St., N. W., Washington, D. C. He writes: "I can cheerfully recommend Peruna as a very efficient remedy for coughs and colds."

Postmasters as Teachers.

Will Aid in Instructing School Children on Postal Service.

Postmaster General Meyer has issued an order directing all postmasters to unite with local school authorities in adopting the most effective method of instructing school children as to the organization and operations of the postal service, particularly the proper addressing of letters and the importance of placing return cards on envelopes.

Postmasters are directed to arrange, if possible, to deliver personal talks to the pupils, and give teachers access to the postal guide and the postal laws, and render them every assistance in obtaining necessary information.

Head Cheese.

Take a pig's head (upper parts only, using the lower halves for roasting), thoroughly clean, and let lie in salt water over night. Put on to boil in plenty of water, and boil until the meat drops from the bones. Strain the liquor it was boiled in, and set away to cool. When cold, remove the fat, when the liquor will be ready to add to the meat, which must be looked over carefully, to remove any small bits of bone, and chopped very fine. Season to taste with salt, pepper and sage. Put on again to boil for about five minutes. Then pour into dishes and set away to cool. If sage is not liked, add any flavoring desired.—October Woman's Home Companion.

Advance Thanks.

The phrase "Thanking you in anticipation" is now becoming common. I think it is one of the meanest ever invented and one of the most insulting, for it implies that, however much pains the worker may take, he will get no thanks for it afterward. Why should he? He has been thanked already. It further implies an imperious and insufferable demand which must and shall have immediate attention on pain of being considered no gentleman. Surely no one who really respects a correspondent ought to employ this touting bagman's phrase.—Professor Skeat in London Academy.
