SOON WE'LL EAT CANNED WHALE

Like Beef and Very Palatable; Cheap, Too-Danger of Exterminating Whales.

MANY MERITS OF THE NEW DIET

Salted Ment is Sold at the Rate of Two Cents a Pound-Most of it Now Used to Make Fertilizers-Wider Market Sought.

Victoria, B. C .- Whale meat as an article of food and the preservation of whale life in the waters of the Pacific are questions agitating the whaling industry on the coasts of Vancouver and in the far East. The many whaling companies of Japan operating steam whalers have formed a combination to enforce a close season, owing to the decreasing number of whales. This news was brought here by the Japanese liner Aki Maru, from the far East. The various companies interested in whaling held a conference, and a resolution was passed favoring the formation of a guild.

Whaling in the waters of the Canadian Pacific scaboard is still in its infancy, but the need is clearly realized of protection to the quarry, Roy C. Andrews of the department of mammals and birds of the American Museum of Natural History. New York, who has recently returned home from a five months trip spent on this island for the purpose of studying whale life, said before leaving that the whales are being hunted so extensively that they will soon become extinct.

Mr. Andrews during his stay at the whaling station on the west coast was enabled to study the subject at first hand. He himself saw more then 200 whales killed with the harpoon gun, with which the steam whalers Orion and St. Lawrence of the coast stations are armed. From the mast head of the Orion Mr. Andrews has witnessed their last struggles. Some of the whales measured eighty feet in length. From his observations carried on here and at other places he is satisfied that the days of the whale are numbered.

Up to this date the two little steamers named have accounted for the lives of more than 500 whales, and in the course of a few weeks another station on the east coast of the ilsland will be in full operation. while the sites for two more stations in the Queen Charlotte Islands have been selected, and by next season these also will be at work adding to the slaughter.

An effort is now being made to introduce whale meat as an article of food. Already quite a trade is done with Japan in canned and salted whale meat. The new idea is to start a campaign to educate the people of European race on the undoubt. ed merits of the new diet. Samples of canned whale meat have been distributed from the headquarters of the whaling company in this city, and those who have tried it say that the meat is exceedingly palatable, being much tenderer than beef and greatly resembling it in taste. At present tons and tons of whale flesh are used in the manufacture of fertilizers, which are one of the most valuable by-products of the industry, but it takes three tons of flesh to make one of fertilizer, and this latter is sold at the rate of two cents per pound, the price at which the salted meat is sold. For this reason the company is trying to create a larger market for the meat, both salted and canned.

MEN 100,000 YEARS AGO.

Exchange Professor Peuck Deduces This from Conditions in Alpine Cave.

London - Prof. Peuck, director of the Berlin Deep Sea Institute and American Exchange professor, is to lecture on the interesting anthropological discovery made in a wonderful cave named the Weldkerchlihohle, at Santis, Switzerland.

Dr. Eckehardt discovered this cave and later on Dr. Bachler unearthed in it numerous remains of a colony of bears with a quantity of human bones of the prepalaeolithic period. The discovery showed that mankind dwelt in the cave and lived on the bears which they killed in hunting.

Prof. Peuck in the course of a visit to the cave ascertained that this state of things could only have occurred during the last interglacial era. He thereby proved that human beings must have lived in the mountains before the last glacial modification of the Alps, which, according to Prof. Peuck's calculation, was about 100,000 years ago.

Robbed Ostriches.

Tucson, Arizona.-J. H. Blevn, and J. H. Rinehart were arrested, charged with the theft of feathers from ostriches. The feathers show that they have been pulled out of the ostriches and not plucked in the regular way. This is always a damaging proceeding and sometimes results fatally. At any rate, a feather will never grow in the socket from which a feather has been pulled. Blevin and Rinehart were sent to the county jail.

He was kidnapped in Baku a month as a, taken blindfolded into the mountains, compelled to build the wall around the girl and then was turned loose outside Paku. For a week he led a party of soldlers in a vain attempt to find the strt.

The girl was condemned to death in the tomb because she eloped with one of her father's servants. She was engaged to the son of a wealthy Tartar, and all preparations had been made for the wedding. She was caught with the servant after a two days' chase, and was tried at a family council. It was decided to build a wall around her and leave her to her fate. Kavulitch was kidnapped, and he was taken into the mountains to find the whole tribe drawn up to witness the living burial of the girl.

The man protested against the work, but his life was threatened unless he obeyed. The girl was tied hand and foot to a stake. She implored mercy, but her cries were unheeded. A circle was drawn around her, and the mason was made to follow it with a wall two feet thick. The wall was raised a foot above the victim's head, and a small opening was made for air, so that her sufferings might be prolonged. As soon as his work was finished Kavulitch was blindfolded again. He was set at liberty with 100 roubles in his pecket. He came to Odessa and went mad in the street. He was taken to a hospital in a straitjacket.

A LOAF OF BREAD PUT IN TWO COFFINS.

Half Buried with Wife, Husband's Grave Now Contains Other Part.

Brooklyn .- Adolph Raad, who formerly lived at No. 110 Luquer street, was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, the coffin containing onehalf of a loaf of rye bread, the other half of which had been buried with Mrs. Raad four years ago. The aged couple were born in Ludenbach, Germany. They purchased a farm in what is now Flatbush, and as the city gradually encroached upon their farm land they cut it up and sold it until they were soon able to retire comfortably.

There is an old German custom of making a wish whenever a fresh loaf of bread is cut. On September 7, 1904, Mrs. Raad had just made the customary wish, and was about to cut a loaf when she dropped dead. The husband cut the loaf and put half in his wife's coffin. The other half was preserved in a tin box, the neighbors having been instructed to put it in his coffin.

FORTUNE FOR FAMILY OF SWINDLED MAN.

Restitution Puts Impoverished Widow and Children in Affluence.

Galveston, Tex. - Mrs. George Overton and family of two sons and two daughters who have been eking out on existence on a small farm near Fort Lancaster, in Crockett County, have been presented with a thousand-acre ranch in Edward 'ounty, well stocked with cattle and $10,000 in cash, by a former partner of the husband and father of the Overtons.

George Overton, who died five years ago, was once a wealthy cattleman of West Texas, but entered into a mining project with a man who swindled him out of his wealth and lands. The partner disappeared fifteen years ago and went to Mexico, where he amassed wealth in mining and returned to make restitution.

FIRST SEA VOYAGE.

Discovery Shows It to Have Been 2,-

000 Years Before Solomon. Chicago.-Prof. James S. Breasted of the University of Chicago, announced his discovery in Sicily of a portion of a tablet covered with inscriptions, showing that Solomon did not make the first sea voyages. He says that the translation shows that the builder of the first pyramid made a journey with forty ships across the Mediterranean to Lebanon for cedar. This, he says, was two thousand years before Solomon's

Coin Found in a Fish's Backbone,

Long Branch, N. J .- Nellie Case, a servent in the home of Mrs. Oliver Byron, discovered a nickel imbedded in the backbone of a butterfish while preparing the fish for the Monday meal. The fish was bought at the market of Capt. John Hennessey. Capt. Hennessey was unable to explain the finding of the coin in the bone of the figh. He is confident. however, that the fish must have swallowed it.

Lasso Saved Man From Abyss. San Francisco, Cal.-Lassoed at the brink of a steep precipice, A. L. Banks of Philadelphia owes his life to William Rogers of New York city. With Robert Shea of New York, and James Archer of London, Banks and Rogers were riding in the mountains, when Banks's horse slipped. To save nimself Banks grasped a bush. Rogers swung his rope and caught Banks around the waist.

Where the Ways End. What is the sorrow? A little space— The cry of the fallen in the race:—

The dying cry which the world heeds Ill remembered or soon forgot. Joy or sorrow will end in rest-

And what in the transient gloom and glow Is the beautiful love that we cling to

The rose red lip, and the sparkling A gracious greeting—a sad good-by! With pallid faces and lips grief prest The lovers creep to the rose for rest.

So we smile at the dark on the pathway rough: There shall be sunshine and rest enough. After the stormy days are past, Rest shall be sweeter at last at Joy and sorrow will end in rest-

The Land of Long Ago. Adown the leafy lane of time, By vehicle of roving rhyme, To the Land of Long Ago!

Here shadows underneath the trees Are love's immortal memories, And faintly echo down the breeze Sweet vocal ghosts of melodies From the Land of Long Ago.

Here every sorrow disappears; Here hope is king, and will no tears In this domain, nor any fears-But years are days and days are years In the Land of Long Ago.

Here thrives no rank and weedy Here friendship dwells in noble state: Oh, he is master of his fate Who can unlock the narrow gate Of the Land of Long Ago.

He shall possess the golden key To pass him in, with you and me. To the Land of Long Ago: By vehicle of roving rhyme, Adown the leafy lane of time, To the Land of Long Ago.

At the Call of the Road. Let's go out on the road to-day, Out on the winding wide highway, Out where the shimmering vistas wide and wonderful, yours and

Time there was when we were not free: Custom thralled us, you and me; Old Convention bade us bide mine!

But by the eager spirit's stroke All the chains at last we broke; Slipped the leash and burst the bond At the call of the road so luring

In stuffy stalls of a house inside.

Now there is none to say us nay! Let's go out on the road to-day: Staff in hand, let us take the road And travel far to gods' abode.

Staff in hand and soul aglow. Over the halcyon hills we'll go; Over the hills and up the height Where the road dips down in a bath of light.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its turrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish it-self and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

LET PIM OFF EASY.

The Customer Was Beginning to Feel Like a Colander. Lincoln Beachy, the well known aeronaut, was criticising in New York the airship of a rival.

"I don't want to be to severe on this dangerous contrivance of yours," Mr. Beachy said. "It is a bad affair all through, but I am willing to let it off easy, as the customer did with the careless barber,

"There was a barber in South Eend who, having been out late the night before, had a shaky hand the next morning and cut a patron's cheek four times. After each accident the barber said, as he sponged away the blood, 'Oh, dear me, how careless!' and laughed, and let it go at that.

"The patron took all those gashes in grave silence. But when the shave was over, he filled a glass at the ice-cooler, took a mouthful of water, and with compressed lips proceeded to shake his head from side to side, and to toss it up and down. "'What is the matter?' the barber asked. 'You ain't got the toothache, have you?"

'No,' said the customer; 'I only just wanted to see if my mouth would still hold water without leaking, that was all.""

The Patient-Doctor, I owe you my life. I shall never forget it. The Doctor-Yes. And you also owe me for fourteen visits. Don't forget that either .- Judy.

The Report Direct.

A United States sailor who had served through the civil war and, despite years of drill, was bent in the shoulders and rounded in the back, was passing along Church street in Liverpool one day when his ship was lying in the Mersey, says Lippincott's.

Along came two smart young Tommy Atkins-straight as ramroda and gorgeous in new uniforms-who thought to have some fun with the old Yankee man-o'-warsman.

"Jack, ahoy!" cried the youngest and smartest of the two, "what are you carrying on your back?" Back came the answer, quick as a shot: "Bunker Hill," And the Tommies pursued their way with chastened spirits:

A Puzzle For Him.

Five or six men were standing outside a factory, discussing in a general sort of way the personal habits of other people.

Several very funny things were said, but the funniest of all, in the opinion of the one who overheard. was uttered by a huge navvy whose looks certainly did not contradict his statement.

"I'm sure I dunno,' he said, " 'ow them chaps manage as combs their 'air every day. I only combs mine once a week, and then it very nigh pulls my yed off."
