BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1909.

ANNUAL DIRECTORS' ASSOCIATION MEETING.

Supt. W. W. Evans has issued the following circular:

The twenty-eighth meeting of the School Directors of Columbia County will be held in the Normal Auditorium, Saturday, March 20th.

Each director is cordially invited to bring his wife to this convention, and all the teachers are welcome to attend.

The forenoon session will begin promptly at 9 o'clock. Rev. I. M. Bachman of Locust will conduct the devotional exercises.

As soon after 12 o'clock as possible we shall assemble in the Normal Dining Room for our annual banquet.

After the dinner (before we leave the dining room) there will be several short talks of a humorous character, calculated to aid digestion and amuse us during the noon spell.

Humor's son! made up of wisdom and of fun; Medley of all hat's dark and clear, Of all hat's foolish, all that's dear.

After the ball is set in motion the following order will be observed: 1. Geo. A. Laub, "Blessed Hour of our Dinners."

O. J. Hess, "The Farmer feeds Them All." 3. Mrs. G. L.olly, "The Hand that Rocks the cradle Rules the World."

4. E. J. Beishline, "As the Twig is bent, the Tree is Inclined." 5. E. J. Beare, "And Still the Wonder brew, that One Small Head Could carry all he Knew."

6. Boyd Prescott, "Where Ignorance is bliss 'Tis Folly to be Wise." 7. A. C. Smith, "Business is Business."

8. T. Harvey Doan, "There's Many a Slip, Twixt the 'up and the Lip." Besides these here are many others who will be called upon if time will permit.

As soon after 2 o'clock as possible we shall convene in the Auditorium to continue the regular program. J. C. Brown will be the first speaker; his subject is Closer supervision. Ira A. Roberts will follow with a paper on Undue haste in Education.

Supt. Killgore will speak next on Selection and appointment of Teachers. Supt.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation

Kemp's Balsam

Will stop any cough that can be stopped by any medicine and cure coughs that cannot be cured by any other medicine.

It is always the best cough cure. You cannot afford to take chances on any other kind.

KEMP'S BALSAM cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, grip, asthma and consumption in first stages.

It does not contain alcohol, opium, morphine, or any other narcotic, poisonous or harmful drug.

Coughlin will give the last address on the subject, Co-operation of Educational Factors.

Following this the business of the association will be transacted. The treasurer will make his report and the officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

An effort is being made to have "congregational" singing this year. If there are to be other features of entertainment, they will be announced at the time of the meetings.

Directors can secure copies of the school law and the annual reports at the Superintendent's office any time during the afternoon.

In as much as this meeting had to be held on the above date to secure the banquet, and since it conflicts with the date for the County Teachers' Association it has been decided best to merge the two associations.

Let every director who can, bring his wife with him; come to have an enjoyable time socially; make it a point to get acquainted with each other; resolve to gain a few good practical ideas which will be worth carrying back to your home districts, and thus this meeting through you will prove a wide-spread influence for good.

Electricity From Sun.

Current Obtained During Day is Stored for Night Use.

That he has successfully solved the problem of storing up the sun's rays and converting them into electrical energy is the claim made by a Boston inventor, says the New York Herald.

He is George S. Cove, and he demonstrates the success of his invention by lighting his workshop, at No. 486 Somerville avenue, Somerville, with electricity generated with a simple apparatus on the roof.

Cove's invention will be known as the "solar electric generator," and he says it can be built at a cost of $100 each. It consists of a framework to be placed in an opening where it will receive the direct rays of the sun.

If the sun goes under a cloud an automatic cut-out breaks the circuit between the generator and the batteries. The device is thus entirely automatic. When the sun sets at night it automatically shuts off the storage batteries and begins again in the morning.

THE EGG PROBLEM AND THE FARMER.

He Should Manage His Fowls Systematically. Like the Regular Poultryman.

Market Designations for various Grades of Eggs.

Eggs that are not fresh are unfit for food says the Philadelphia Record. It is gratifying to note that the Pure Food Commission is taking the matter in hand.

BEWARE OF THE HIDDEN NEST They like to be private when laying time comes, and every now and then the farmer happens across these nests and generally finds them well filled.

Again, during times when the hens are not doing much laying the farmer's wife is very apt to save up the eggs laid until she has accumulated sufficient numbers to make it an object to take them to the store.

IMPROVED METHODS MUST BE ADOPTED. The farmer must keep his poultry under the same conditions the poultryman does his, if he wishes to profit by the work and build up a reputation for reliable goods.

An egg should never be sent to market unless its condition and age are known to the shipper and can be guaranteed. Under no circumstances should eggs found in the "hidden nest" be allowed to be palmed off on the innocent buyer.

Brick Roads Wanted. State Highway Petitions Shows a Preference for Substantial Construction.

A preference for brick pavements in country districts instead of macadam roads is being shown in petitions to the State highway department.

Greene county, and two big contracts are pending for Westmoreland. Petitions have just been received from Pine Creek township, Jefferson county, for three miles of brick pavement, and Warsaw and Snyder townships of the same county may do the same.

Branding the State Highway department as "mismanaged," and the roads built under its direction "exorbitant failures," Farmer William T. Creasy, president of the State Grange, delivered a fiery address at the Snyder County Farmers' Institute, recently, in the course of which he said: "There is not a competent head to the State Highway department," he declared.
