THE COLUMBIAN. BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1909.

Entered at the Post Office, Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1886.

Six dead and scores prostrated by the heat is the record for Philadelphia on Tuesday.

Yesterday was the occasion of the national celebration of the birthday of the French Republic.

The Men's Adult Bible Class of the Methodist Church will hold its annual picnic at Klein's Grove next Saturday.

Miss Bessie Nelson, of Indiana, has been elected instructor in the commercial department of the Bloomsburg High School.

The annual Glidden Automobile tour started from Detroit on Monday, thirty cars being entered.
The tour will end July 29.

Over forty new gas ranges have been installed in Bloomsburg since the organization of the Columbia Power, Light & Railways Co.

"Pop" Watts, an old time Bloomsburg baseball player, is still in the game, and expects to return here this summer to finish the season.

An explosion of gas on the U. S. armored cruiser North Carolina, lying in the harbor of Santa Lucia, Italy, killed one officer and blinded another.

Harry R. Kauffman has opened an electrical supply house at Danville, in addition to his Centre street store in Bloomsburg. He handles all kinds of electrical supplies.

There was launched in New York Harbor last Saturday a replica of the "Clermont," the first steamboat in which Robert Fulton sailed up the Hudson River. The boat is to be used during the Hudson-Fulton celebration next September.

The movement toward the establishment of a constitutional government in Persia begins to look successful. The revolutionists have already entered Teheran, the capital, and the situation has become similar to that in Turkey a few weeks ago.

The cities of the Missouri and Mississippi Valleys have been suffering greatly from the floods which have inundated them and have caused hundreds of thousands dollars of damage, and in some places cut off all railroad communication.

Miss Margaret Brooke and Walter S. Brooke at their home on Market Street are entertaining Miss Natalie Hall, of Philadelphia, Miss Edith Browne, of Lansdowne, Miss Vera Hemingway, of Camden, and Fred S. Welsh, of State College.

The architecture of the Forestry Building at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition is of an unique style. The building has imposing facades made of giant logs in the rough. Four million feet of lumber are contained in the immense logs which were procured at great expense.

The famous old wooden covered bridge across the Hudson River between Troy and Waterford was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday.
It was the oldest bridge of its kind in the United States, having been opened for traffic in 1804 from which time it has been in constant service.

A number of suffragettes who were arrested in London last week and sent to jail, charged with disorderly conduct while attempting to present a petition to Premier Asquith, proceeded to make life miserable for the prison authorities, and refused to eat. How much better if they refused to talk!

SATURDAY'S COURT.

For the purpose of approving the bond of some tax collectors and considering the transfer of the license of the McHenry House at Benton from Adam Mourey to Harry Aurand a short session of the Court was held Saturday afternoon with all the Judges on the bench.

The matter of the approval of the bond of George M. Linville, tax collector for West Berwick, caused considerable interest.

Fred Ikeler, Esq., presented a very numerously signed petition asking the Court in the event the bond offered by Mr. Linville was not approved, that the Court appoint Edward M. Kocher tax collector for the borough to fill the vacancy. James L. Evans, Esq., presented a similar petition asking that the appointment be given to Horace Breese in the event Linville's bond was not approved. The bond offered by Linville was in the sum of $15,000, and signed by Samuel Hess, Chester Marr, D.
Ray Dieterick, William Linden and Parvin T. Groh, and after a short consultation the Court approved the same and settled the matter.

The bonds of Henry Gellinger, tax collector for Catawissa in the sum of $10,000, and D. C. Shoemaker, tax collector for Millville in the sum of $2,000, were approved by the Court.

The license for the McHenry House in the borough of Benton, held by Adam Mourey, was transferred to Harry Aurand, who has purchased the property, after hearing the evidence of the applicant, and Percy Brewington and Daniel Eckerd.

Aurand was called before the Court and informed that the place he was acquiring had a bad reputation and the Court would expect him to comply with the law in every particular.

Florence Brobst, who was in jail awaiting trial at the September Sessions, upon the charge of conducting a bawdy house in Bloomsburg, appeared before the Court and entered a plea of guilty.

District Attorney Small represented to the Court that previous to coming to Bloomsburg Florence had resided at Winchester, Va., and that she was anxious to return to that place and that the people with whom she had lived were as anxious to have her return.

The Court sentenced her to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine of $100 and stand committed until the sentence is complied with.

Picture Men in a Panic.

Declare New Law Will Close All Their Nickleodeons.

The proprietors of the moving picture establishments of Chester, Pa., are organizing for the purpose of going into Court to test the validity of the new State law, which puts them out of business unless they reconstruct their places Orders have been issued to the picture men by Deputy Factory Inspector William J. Leary to either conform with his orders by having three four-foot aisles built in their houses or close up.

Deputy Leary stated that such action would be taken. "But if those places are open after next Saturday," declared the deputy,
"the proprietors will be locked up."
"This new law," said one of the proprietors "would put us out of business, and we are satisfied that the act was passed for that specific purpose. If we construct three four-foot aisles it will take up all our floor space and we will have no room to seat our patrons."

There are seven moving picture places in Chester, with a total investment of over $150,000.

Assaulted A Child.

Efforts are being made to apprehend Frank Van Horn, aged sixty-two years, whose home is near Divide, where Columbia and Lycoming counties meet, and who is alleged to have committed a heinous crime upon a child of that neighborhood. The father of the child, a man named Kile, pursued the wretch with a gun, but he was persuaded to put the firearm away and permit the law to take its course. The authorities of Jackson township, in Columbia, and Jordan, in Lycoming, have joined in the search for the accused man, who is believed to be in hiding somewhere in that section. The most intense feeling has been aroused. His alleged victim is but ten years of age. She was enticed into a barn.

A fine new line of Wedding invitations just received at this office.

I. L. Xanders of Broken Bow, Nebraska, is the guest of his college class-mate, G. Edward Elwell, Jr. He will locate at York, Pa.

Dr. I. R. Wolf of Espy has returned from Philadelphia where he spent six weeks of special study in the hospitals and medical colleges.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Funston, Mrs. A. A. Butler and Mrs. Geo.
E. Elwell went to Eaglesmere in the Funston car, driven by Boyd Cadmon, on Wednesday evening.
They left here at 6 o'clock, and reached home at 1.30 a. m.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice: Miss Nellie Boher, Mrs. Mary Carter, Miss May Smith, (2); Jos.
A. Snyder.

Cards, Miss Clara Lehr, Miss Elizabeth Manning, Miss Ruth Summers.

Robert Zahner, son of the Rev.
Louis Zahner, of Adams, Massachusetts, formerly the rector of St.
Paul's Church, was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology last month and is now located with the Riter-Caulley Company, of Pittsburg, a structural steel firm. He graduated at Williams College, Mass., three years ago.

ASSOCIATE JUDGES

Can Collect No Mileage Says the Auditor General.

By a decision made just a few days ago the auditor general has refused to put his official O. K. on any bills of associate judges in the Commonwealth in which mileage charges were made. This notice is final, he says, and unless it is declared illegal, after a court action, it will stand in the future in Pennsylvania. This was learned for the first time in the state when Associate Judge E. C. Yeager, of Roaring Creek, Columbia county, sent in his bill for attendance at the last term of court. It was returned with the item of $2.70 stricken out, and with notice that in the future no associate judges would be allowed pay for mileage.

REMAINS BROUGHT HERE.

The body of Mrs. Ella Seiss of Harrisburg was brought here on Tuesday, and buried in Rosemont Cemetery on Wednesday. The funeral was held at the home of her brother, George Kahler, on East Fifth street.

She was a daughter of Oliver C.
Kahler, deceased, and resided here for many years. Her death occured on Monday at the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia.

TRI-COUNTY FARMERS PICNIC.

At a meeting of representatives from Columbia, Northumberland and Montour counties held at Danville Saturday evening, it was decided to hold the annual Tri-County Farmers' picnic at DeWitt's Park, South Danville, Wednesday, August 10th.

Will Make Test Case.

District Attorney Salzburg, of Luzerne county, is determined to find out whether railway corporations have a right to sell alcoholic liquors on their dining-cars without a license in every county through which their respective lines pass. Seven conductors on the Lehigh Valley Railroad have given bail before a Wilkes-Barre Alderman for their appearance in Court to answer charges of selling liquor without a license in the dining cars of the company.

Nature Busy Up North.

Juggling two imposing mountain peaks off the map, transforming a bay into a lake and springing into existence two brand-new islands are the astonishing feats of nature discovered in Bering Sea by a Government party and reported to the Treasury Department this week.

In that stretch of water, with its swiftly moving current, is the Island of Bogoslof, whose constantly changing conformation has more than once attracted widespread attention. A report received by Captain Commandant Ross, of the Revenue Cutter Service, says that a party from the revenue cutter Perry landed on Bogoslof June 10, last, made a cursory examination of the island and found that a number of important changes had taken place since last year.

Perry Peak and McCulloch Peak, which had heretofore loomed high in the air, have disappeared and the opening of the bay or lagoon, a pretty spot shown in pictures on file in the Treasury Department, has closed up, forming a lake of warm salt water of a temperature of about 71 degrees. The lake is slightly below sea level and in its centre two small islands have sprung up. One of these islands is throwing off a volume of steam.

Will On Diploma.

The will of Chester Dutton, who was, until his death in Concordia, Kan., on July 1, the oldest living graduate of Yale, is written on the reverse side of the diploma which Yale granted to him in 1841, because, as Dutton explained to his lawyer when he drew the instrument, he desired his family to value the piece of parchment as he did.
