

BLOOMSBURG, PA., THURSDAY NOVEMBER 4, 1909.

VOL 43.

WHEN YOU WANT TO

Open a Bank Account Have a Check Cashed Borrow Money, or Make an Investment

CALL ON THE OLD RELIABLE -

The Farmers National Bank OF BLOOMSBURG

Capital, $60.000

Surplus $100,000 C M. CREVELING, PRES. M. MILLEISEN, CASHIER.

DIRECTORS

J. L. MOVER N. U. FUNK C. M. CREVELING C. A. KLEIM W. L. WHITE C. W. RUNYON DR. J. J. BROWN M. MILLEISEN

3 Per Cent. Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

Two Prisoners who were Cleaning the Corridor went out the Door when the Warden was not Looking.

ONE GIVES HIMSELF UP.

was Joseph Kelly of Danville. Kel- asking for a new irial, was also ly then completed his remarkable continued pending a disposition of escapade by surrendering himself a petition for suspension of sentence to Sheriff Ent at the Bloomsburg and placing the defendant on projail yesterday atternoon, after being bation as provided for under the at large a little more than twenty- Act of May, 1909. The District four hours.

with John James, was arrested on will make this disposition of the October 1st charged with the lar- matter. It is the defendant's first ceny of a cellar furnace from the offense, and he has a family de-Fowler property on First street. pending upon him for support. Kelly, who has not yet had his trial, along with another prisoner, the auditor in the estate of Martha who was serving time for nonpay- J. Hartman, deceased, were withment of costs, on Saturday morn- drawn and the report confirmed. ing were put to work cleaning out The Court made the following two prisoners, who bided their time tiff's cost."

escaped prisoners made good use of following opinion: "For the presthe interval and succeeded in get- ent we will not grant or refuse a

The regular monthly session of argument court was held on Monday, all the Judges on the bench. The case of Albert Reeder vs. Harvey Fairchilds which was a mo-tion of the defendants for a new trial, was continued. Com. vs. Felix Kessler, the Aris-Atterney did not resist this petition Kelly, it will be recalled, along and it is probable that the Court the corridor in the Bloomsburg jail. order in the case of Thomas B. For convenience the warden left one of the gates or doors open; the other gate, it appears, was also open although the person in charge thought it was closed. The situa-tion was well understood by the the bill be dismissed at the plain-and when the guards were all ab-sent they quietly walked out. In the divorce proceedings of Guerney Lyons vs. Lillie Baker They were soon missed, but the Lyons, the Court handed down the Sunday afternoon Kelly gave himself up to Sheriff Ent at the jail. He claims to have been in Danville since his escape. Sunday decree. In view of the notice given he landed in Bloomsburg on board the 2 o'clock Danville & Blooms, why a decree should not be grant. C. LaRue Munson runs far ahead the 3 o'clock Danville & Blooms-burg trolley, alighting at Railroad ed. Returnable first Monday of Under his majority in Bloomsburg jail by unfrequented streets. He said he didn't want any officer to were appointed appraisers in estate will run over 2000.

ARGUMENT COURT.

Rev. Spencer C. Dickson, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dr. G. H. Hemingway, of Camden, N. J., a former pastor of the bride.

The ushers were L. W. Buckalew, J. Lewis Moyer, Jr., and Wal-ter Clay, of town, and John N. Costello, of Philadelphia; the bridesmaids, Miss Sophia Nelson, of York, and Miss Margaret Waller, of Bloomsburg ; the matrons of hon-or, Mrs. Ralph E. Miller and Mrs. Harry Keller, of Bloomsburg ; the maid of honor, Miss Helen Moyer, sister of the bride, and the flower girl, Miss Dorothy Grier, neice of the groom. John M. Fouse, of Pittsburg, was the groom's best man.

Mrs. R. F. Colley played Lohen-grin's march for the processional and Mendelsohn's for the recessional, and during the ceremony rend-In the local election the entire ered several pretty selections.

Democratic ticket is elected, W. P. Following the ceremony a recep ehner for Sheriff, A. C. Hidlay

L. BLACK CO.

Rochester

Clothing.

NO. 44.

HERSCHBURG CO. Rochester Clothing.

ting away.

street, and making his way to the December." get the glory for his arrest-that of Jacob H. Johnson to set aside he was practically certain of being widow's $300, on motion of Mr. recaptured and thought it would be Chrisman. far better with him if he snrrendered.

His foolishness in making a break B. Crist vs. J. W. and Emanuel for liberty is understood when it is Bogert. known that he was being held for the payment of a fine and would under the insolvency act.

KILLED BY FALL.

roof at the Kaier Brewing Com-pany's plant at Main and Leonard the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same until it is paid. Cedent, and to be a charge upon the same upo which was leaning against the continued. building to another which was on the roof, the upper one slipped, Washington Camp No. 540 P. O. S.

snowed a deep gash in the head behind the left ear. He was rush-ed to the Joseph Ratti Hospital where an operation was performed. Ut is in the estate of Amelia Apple, and Ralph Leiby, admr. of the estate of the Where an operation was performed. His relatives were sent for, and everything was done to restore him Elias Leiby, for the sale of real esunavailing, and he died a few minutes before eight o'clock.

mother, Mrs. Katharine Hennessy, master.

Upon motion of A. L. Fritz, judgment for want of an appear-The other man is still at large. ance was allowed in the case of D.

> In the estate of Frank Derr, deceased, a petition was presented by of ground in Centralia for the sum

In the case of Jacob Ludwig vs. and he fell head first, striking a presented by C. J. Fisher, a rule of counsel in the cases of Scott pile of empty barrels, then failing unconscious to the pavement. Drs. Bruner and Miller were has-Monday in December to show cause to consciousness. The efforts were tate for confirmation by the Court Miller was also heard and the The application for a charter for Court took the matter under ad- furnished good music from eight mother, Mrs. Katharine Hennessy, two sisters, Mrs. John Haley and Mrs. John Hayes, of Catawissa, and two brothers, Martin and John, Margaret Murphy, guardian of was taken to show that a gate or Elwell.

of Gary. The finneral services were held at St. Columba's Romau Catholic church, Monday at nine o'clock. Margaret Murphy, guardian of Daniel Murphy, a minor heir of the decedent, that she be allowed to join in the sale of a house and lot denied. Margaret Murphy, guardian of bars had been maintained at this point for years. This the defendant ty $2500.

Judge, his majority in Bloomsburg alone being 336. In the county it SHERIFF ELECT W. P. ZEHNER.

About one hundred and fifty Bloomsburgers journeyed to Danville last evening to see "Three Twins" at the Danville Opera House. It was a good company, the piece was well staged, the music catchy, and the lines bright.

have been released in a few days Clinton Herring, representing that of $650. The case of the Com. vs. Lewis readiness, but the reabit failed to not be divided so as to award the Cohen, who is charged with deser-widow her $300 as provided by the tion and non support, was continu- the hammer, he placed the muzzle Act of Assembly, whereupon the ed until some subsequent time on his foot; the hammer slapped, Thomas Hennessy, of Danville, widow's $300 was ordered to be which would suit the convenience and the charge went through his formerly of Bloomsburg, was killed paid from the money rising srom of all the parties and the Court. foot, tearing a large hole. William by a fall of thirteen feet, from a the sale of the real estate of the de- Judge Evans stated that he expect- Moore went to the boy's aid and

The injunction proceedings in would return, and hence would fix streets last Thursday. He, with Clyde Belig, was en-the case of Thomas E. Harder vs. The of the case of Thomas E. Harder vs. The case of Thomas E. Harder vs. The Catawissa Borough Council and before the December term. gaged in repairing the roof, and The Catawissa Borough Council, and before the December term. the performed. The wound was a pain-while stepping from one ladder was upon motion of L. C. Mensch, When he returned he would give ful one, an inch of the bone being counsel notice and they could ar- shot away, but it is not expected to range their matters accordingly. The afternoon session was nearly the Catawissa Board of Trade, was tes before eight o'clock. He is survived by his wife, his referred to Col. John G. Freeze, as sented the plaintiff and C. E. served at midnight.

Justice of the Peace. John G. Har- evening.

Kreisher, Esq., the defendant

tion was held at the home of the

Mr and Mrs. Clay left town on They will be at home at Sixty three East Fifth Street after December fifteenth.

A HUNTING ACCIDENT.

Howard Laubach, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laubach of East Fifth street, was walking with Sherman Boyer through the woods of Hemlock township on Monday hunting tabbits.

When his dog discovered a scent the boy cocked the gun to be in

He was taken to the Joseph Ratresult seriously.

MASQUERADE AT BERWICK.

tily summoned. An examination why the judgment should not be were exceptions to the return of the dance in Evans' Hall last Friday

Those present from Bloomsburg

Tuesday's election cost the coun-

Utica Clothing.

International Tailoring Co.

Made to Measure Clothing.

All High Class Merchandise.

TOWNSEND'S

CORNER

CLOTHING STORE, BLOOMSBURG, PA.