SchoraLA .- Some of the indications of this Schorala.—Some of the indications of this loathform disease, which is commonly called "King's Evil," are preternatural, hard glandulous, and incysted tumors, situated about he neck behind the cars, and under the chin. The most successful remedy now in uso, is Merchant's Sari saparilla. (a very active preparation of that root) which attenuates, afters, and evacuates the viscid juices, and thereby rapidly and radically cures the disease.
