A young and very pretty lady, riding in the Unnord cars, was observed to have a piece of "court plaster" on her lip. When the cars had emerged from one of the long covered bridges, into the light, it was observed to have disappeared; but they instantly detected it clinging to the lip of a young man who sat on the seat with her! They both looked as innocent as if they "hadn't been doing nothing.'

SPAVIN .- This disease shows itself in a variety of forms, and is very frequently obsti-- nate and difficult to manage; and cases are not unfrequent in which it has resisted every plan of regular treatment. They owe their origin to hard work in early life. In these affections, evinced uncommon energy, and numerous are the instances in which it has been known to effect a fadical and perfect cure. FOR JAUNDICE.

VALUABLE ANTI BILIOUS MEDICINE: It is well known that the South and West suffer more from biblious disorders than from all others' combined.— This is partly owing to the climate, but chiefly to the nature of Southern and Western life. The sensations ac-companying liver complaints are of the most wretched description. Habitual drunkenness is frequently brought on by liver complaint. A patient sufforing from this dis-ease, should not be mocked with preceded currer; yet there are very few medicing status worth a straw in the removal of this complaint. Calomet has intherto been there are very few medicizes that are worth a straw in the removal of this complant. Calomel has intherto been the chief reliance, but the remedy has proved itself worse than the discuss! What then shall be done? We say, give Wright's ladina Vegetable? Ills a trial. If they do not exceed your expectations, we are willing to hear all the opprobrium of failars.
