ounded as we are in this county with Mexian whigs, we have all kinds of news. The Jeral papers pronounce vengeance and woe n you poor fellows who are suffering privation d'exposuro in a foreign land, fighting for the rights and honor of your country. I feel for my pert, as if I should like to see all such aprincipled traitors share the fate of Riley's gion, or placed in front of Worth's division, Il guarded, so that they could not run; for we may judge from their discurse and exressions, you would have seen them in full with Santa Anna for Guadalupe. I uld like to have seen them at the storming (Chapultepec, or taking of the city, or in me of Worth's hard-fought battles, previous o that, in place of riding about at their, ease, mouncing the war as unjust and uncalled er: and some go so far as to say they hope ou may find all your graves in Mexico.or my own-part, I know that I feel as sensi to as any mother can for a son, and I should happy to have you at home; but have chosen the army, not through nesity, but of choice,
