A Busy Day, -The day on which the next Presidential election will take place, the 7th of November, will be a busyone. Two millions of voters over the country record their suffrages for a National ruler, and as the Telegraph communications will extend by that time over nearly the whole country, enough returns of the election may be known and telegraphed by the next morning to indicate with tolerable certainty whom the nation has chosen .---This will be the greatest business ever done in one day in United States, and the newspapers, as usual, will have a considerable share in it.

Congress of NATIONS .- A congress of nations will as semble this summer at, Lima, in South America. It will be composed of representatives from the Republics of Chili, Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador, and New Granada. Why cannot-the United States be represented?

VERI TRUE .- The Gazette says "it can answer no good purpose to claborate in further explanation and defence" of its views in regard to individual liability, A a decline of 3 per cent. very sage conclusion, and one which if sooner arrived at, would have served it from its present ridiculous position. DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.-We can consistently state that Dr Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry has been extensively deed in the United States for more than teen years; that its beeneitjal effects United States for more than ten years, that its beneficial effects have been tested by thousands; that it invariably remotes a recent cough, and that hundreds of individuals, gradually sinking under that insidious attack of death's fell enumissary, Pulmonary Con-sumption, have been restored to health, happiness and friends, by its use, and are now living witnesses of the curative power of this period.

The two-third rule was adopted by yeas 115 to nays 78. Mr. Commander was allowed time to cast his whole nine r votes for South Carolina, being the only delegate from that d State. The report for credentials was received and laid on the table. Resolution was offered allowing two mem-bers of each contesting parties, of New York, to address the Convention to merrow. Before the final decission and pending discussion on this question, the convention ad-joined till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. During the forenoon great crowds were gathering outside the church and sundry stump specches were made. Max 24. The convention convened at 9 o'clock. After some discussion about the admission of the democratic mem-bers of Congress to seats, Cameron of Pennsylvania, proposed that all revolutionary soldiers in the city should be admitted to seats on the floor, which was carried.
