ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COM-

DEMOCRATS OF PRINSYLVANIA: - If we have not litical canvass, as was accordant with custom, or from no want of inclination to discharge with effihas rather resulted from the conviction that you well understand the nature of the contest in which immensity of the interests at stake, and are fully alive to the high duties devolving upon you as Amer ican citizens. We have never for a moment doubtwhich are identical with the peace, safety, and welwe have deemed it presumptuous to importune you to the exercise of a duty, which, like Hesperian fruit, you have ever guarded with the utmost jealousy and watchfulness.

Whilst such is the pitiful condition of our opponents, we doubt whether the annals of the past rethe usual range of their intellects. The following cord a period when the Democratic party of this circumstances was related to me soon after its opcountry occupied more impregnable ground, or had currence, says a correspondent of the "Friend's Rebetter reason for hearty self-felicitations, than the view," by a man upon whose varacity I can rely, present. Unawed by the presentation of a name, who received it immediately from the subject of the associated with deeds of martial renown so recent harrative. that the land was still jocund with their recital, the Democratic party has marched steadily forward in county, Penn., not far from the west branch of the uns to divert it to the right hand or to the left, to time when that stream, across which his road lay, blind its vision, bewilder its judgment, or misdirect was much swollen by rain or melting snow. Perceiving his master in his table while and white and colored, of the lest quality; upon our time-honored flag, as prized in our heart's just estimation above all price, are these inspiring watch-words; EQUAL RIGHTS to all, and SPE-CIAL PRIVILEGES to none: No Corporate Mosopolites, or legislative interference with the business pursuits of citizens: No United States and white and white cotton do, lander slips and coming close to him, stood there till he was advanced in years, and his secured on his back. And this could not hastily be done, as the man was advanced in years, and his potime. and JACKSON. These principles form the bright constellation which has guided the Democratic party of this country through many a conflict of fear and perilwhich have made our nation honored, respected and powerful; and upon the maintenance of which we verily believe, depend the future glory and greatness, if not the existence, of this proud Republic. They constitute the creed of our political faith-the "text of civic instruction" the touchstone, by which to try the services of those we trust. Whilst we adhere to them, we need never despuir of the Repubhe, for we are on the road that leads to Peace, Liberty and Safety. .

To these principles our candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, General LEWIS CASS and WILLIAM O. BUTLER, are committed by all the obligations of the present and the past. Great and venerated as are these names, and distinguished ulike for deeds of martial and civic renown, they would present no attraction to us, or to you, but for their identification with the undying truths which we profess. We honor them for their services. their abilities, and their public and private virtues. but we honor them most in their selection as the agents for imparting a consistent and conscientious efficacy to the popular will. MORRIS LONGSTRETH, selected as the Democratic candidates for Governor, is equally worthy of our sulfrages because equally devoted to these imperishable principles. Like the lamented Shunk, he has risen to merited fame by a life of industry and integrity, unsopported by the adventitious aids of family wealth and influence—and we esteem it no ordinary praise to say, that he is worthy to assume the mantle of that venerated and lamented patriot. He was a democrat, and one of its candidates for Congress in the city of Philadelphia, in the perilous season when the great Paper Moloch waged its war against the pure and incorruptible ANDREW JACKSON. The man that could breast the fury of the King Bank then, will not quail before the assaults of the lesser principalities now. The man that was proof in that struggle against the blandishments of the most gigantic and corrupt moined institution the world has ever beheld, can safely be entrusted with the helm of State in Pennsylvania. It is difficult to conceive a crime of greater moral turpitude, than when a mun, by fair professions, gains the confidence and the votes of an unsuspecting and free people, who afterwards, by desertion of these professions, betrays the trust reposed in him. For such an offence, the laws of the land should provide a penalty. Monnis Longstreet will never prove one of these He will never "hold the word promise to the ear and break it to the hope."-He will enter upon his Executive trust a radical, reliable, sincere and honest Democrat, and will be found such, we feel assured, at the end of his service. As was the case with honest Frank Shunk, every Democratic heart will throb with rejoicing when he delivers his Inaugural, and the same warm hearts, too, whatever the circumstances, will pulpitate with sorrow when he shall send forth his Valedictory. We predict for MORRIS LONG-STRETH a career of unexampled usefulness and

We can scarcely esteem it necessary to direct addressed you as frequently during the present po-the Democracy of Pennsylvania to the paramount litical canvass, as was accordant with custom, or importance of the Gubernatorial election. Elect with the public expectation, the omission has wrisen LONGSTRETH by an old fashioned majority, of from 15 to 18,000, in October, and the task of carciency and fidelity the appointment conferred upon rying the State, by a like majority, for CASS and us by the 4th of March Convention. Our silence BUTLER, in November, is more than half accomplished. All that we need to the attainment of both these grand results, is ORGANIZATION-without the parties are engaged, properly appreciate the which it may, and often does prove true, that the "race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong." The details of this desirable work we submit to the ican citizens. We have never for a moment doubt superior discretion and judgement of the County ed, that you, one and all, esteem the Right of Suf- and Township Committees. We can only express frage as among the most invaluable of all your put the hope, that it will be most thorough and perfect, litical privileges, distinguishing your institutions reaching every house and hamlet in the wide Comabove those of any other people on the face of the monwealth-one that will arouse the dormant, exearth-nor have we at all questioned, that at the cite the lukewarm, and enkindle in the very hearts decisive moment you would again be found at your of the people a burning desire to meet their old enposts, ready to prostrate by your ballots, as you have emies at the BALLOT BoxEs -the great battle-ground, so often done before, the enemies of those principles from which Democracy is ever sure to emerge victorious. Then will the welkin again ring with the fare of the American people. So repeatedly have gladdening shouts of the honest and independent you demonstrated your acquiescence in the truism "Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty," that prosperity without a resort to special privileges and chartered monopolies.

DR. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA. THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.—This extract is put up in quart bottles; it is six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures discusses without vomitting, purging, sickening or debilitating the patient.

GREAT FALL AND WINTER MEDICINE. The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over all other medicine is, while it cradicates diseases, it invigorales the other medicines where the very best Fal and Winter medicines ever body. It is one of the very best Fal and Winter medicines ever body. It is one of the very best Fal and Winter medicines ever body. It is one of the very best Fal and Winter medicines the person, but it creates new, pure and rich blood; a power possessed by son, but it creates new, pure and rich blood; a power possessed in other medicine. And it this lies the grand secret of its won derful success. It has performed within the past two years, more derful success. It has performed within the past two years, more than 35,000 cures of severe cases of fleedase; at least 20,000 of these were considered incurable.

spinlis, Salt Rheum, Pumples on the Face, &c., together with inimercius cases of Sick Headache, Pain in the Side and Chest, Spinal Affections, &c., &c.
This, we are aware, must appear incredible, but we have letters from Physiciaus and our Agents from all parts of the Union States, informing us of extraordinary chires. R. Van Buskirk, Esq., one of the most respectable Hruggists in Newark, N. J., informs us that he can refer to more than 150 cases in that place alone. There are thousands of cases in the Chy of New York, which we will refer to with pleasure and to men of character. It is the best molceine for the preventance of disease known. I tundoubtedly say of the lives of more than 5,000 CHILDREN THE PAST SEASON.

As it removed the cause of disease, and prepared them for the Summer season. It has never been known to migre in the least the most deficate child.

RHEUMATISM.

RHILLMATISM. .

This Sarsaparilla is used with the most perfect successin Rheumatic complaints, however severe or chronic. The astomshing cures it has performed are indeed wonderful. Other remedies sometimes give temporary rehef, this entirely cradicates it from the system even when the limbs are dreadfully swollen. L. Hear Mr. Seth Terry, one of the oldest and most respectable t, Townsexp.—I have used one bottle of your Sarsaparilla, and high it is excellent in its effects upon a chronic Rheimadie (pain) to which I am subject, from an injury occasioned several (years Jago, ii) a public stage. Prease send me two bottos to the care of Dr.

our. I have conversed with two of our principal physicians nd they recommend your Sarsapatilla.

Da. Townsend—Dear Sir. Nearly twenty years ago I took a violent cold which settled on my lungs, and affected severely; indeed, thiadly it became a con tant hacking cough, but not so severe as to prevent me from attending to my busines. Within the last liw years it increased on me gradually. At last 1 became reduced—I breathed with difficulty, and raised with my Cough much had matter, and for the fast mine months previous to my using your sarsaparilla, had regular night sweats; indeed, my friends and my-self supposed that I would fire with the consumptions but I have the happaness to inform you that to my suitative, after a sing three bottles of your Sarsaparilla, I find my health testored. It releved me gradually, and I am enjor ing better braith than I have for 28 years. I had almost entirely lost my appetre, which is also minrod. You are at therety to publish data with my name in the papers, if you choose. apers, if you choose,
My little girl, who is three years old; had a very bad cough the whole of hast Winter. While using the medicine I gave her some of it; and it soon entirely reheved her, as well as myself, and she is now well and hearty as any child I ever saw. She was also full of httle blotches; it took them away and her skin is smooth, and lair now; and I am satisfied she required for he dth from using your excellent medicine.

You who have pale complexions, duff eyes, blotches on the face rough skin, are "out of Spirits," are a bottle or two of the Dactot Touriscul's Sar-aparilla. It will cleanes your blood, remove the freekles and flotches, and give you animation, spatkling eyes, flue spirits, and leantiful complexion—all of which are of manerise value to unmarried ladies.

TO MOTHERS & MARRIED LADIES. TO MOTHERS & MARRIED LADIES.

This Extract of Sar-aparilla has been expressly prepared in reference to female complaints. No tende who has reason to suppose she is lapproaching that critical period, "the turb of the," should neglect to take it, as it is a certain preventanty for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which female are subject at this time of lite. This period may be delayed several years by using this medicine: Nor is it less valuable for thos approphiling womanihood, as it is calculated to assist faintre, be according to the system. CAUTION. CAUTION.

Owing to the great success and immerse sale of Dr. Townsend's Sarsapárilla, a number of men who were formerly our Agents, have commenced making Sarsaparilla, Likirs, Bitters, &c. &c. They generally put it on in the same shaped bottles, claiming that their is far superior and four times stronger than Dr. Townsend's, &g. noping thereby to deceive the public. Some of these unprinciples men publish counterfeit certificates; others have induced their brothers and other interested persons to allow the use of their manes; to when they put esquire to give their respectating.—One makes a medicine, and pulls it with respectable manes procured by using Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, publishes them as One makes a medicine, and pulfs it with respectable names pro-curred by using Pr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, publishes them as cured by his stuff. Headso publishes the certificate of a person who styles himself an M. D., who mends hoes, digs wells, and doc-tors horses by trirus for a livelihood. They also published certifi-cates staned by fertitions names stating they have used Dr. Towns-rind's Sarsaparilla, and that it injured them &c. [These, and a great variety of other tricks are] performed by these men, to sell their trish. The public should be on their guard, and look but for counterfeits.

East, Lection, Pa., May 29, 1847.

Geo, E. Stanton—Dear Sir, I consider it my duty to express my sentiments in behalf of your my abrable medicine, Hunt's Liniment. I have for some time past used the Liniment in my practice, for various diseases, and feel satisfied, from the success attending its applications, that it merits all that can be said out its behalf. I consider it one of the best external remedies I have ever used in case of Tenter, Ringworm, Sait Rheum, Pams, Brunes, Swellings, Cuts, &c. The cheap rate at which the article is to be had, places it within the reach of all. It should one the principal external remedy of every family.
