purposes and objects?
We have them before us. They are here fully disclosed. We see in them the secret causes that contributed to bring about the late mischievous results in Pennsylvania. The Philadelphia [nativo-American] San, the organ of that guilty faction whose sharp-set appetites are so ready seculion up the whole of our foreign settlers at a sinnaked deformity to the just rebuke of an insulted people. This party stronuously claims to have been the very first to bring forward the name of General Taylor for the Presidency, and that of Governor Johnston for the chief magistrate of Pennsylvania. The native Sun boasts very vehemently and vociferously on this point. The editor says: "The native-American party came into existence but a few years ago, and their power has already been felt to the extremity of the State;" and that rupon the 7th of November it will be also felt throughout the nation." "Their fourteen thousand votes," continuce this unfledged Native Sun, "have already turned the election for Governor in this Commonwealth, and mainto contributed to place Wm. F. Johnston in the Gubergatorial chair." The editor still proceeds. He has not vet finished his boastful cry over the late Pennsylvania defeat of the Democracy. He comes yet closer to the main point, and thus exultingly rejoices over the fact that they "have great reason to be proud of the result; for simost," says the enraptured editor, "almost immediately after the receipt of the news of the resignation of Gov. Shunk, we suggested the nomination of Mr. Johnston

Let us examine further. Here again we have the fink avowal of what this native party so ardently and warmly claim to have done in effecting the whig Presidential nomination. Stand back, Mr. Balie Peyton; go into the corner, Mr. Truman Smith, with your pliant secret circular readers, tools, and followers. Your labors and toils are but a cipher to the great work accomplished by Lewis C. Levin and his band of natives in the goodly city of "brotherly love."

Hear the editor of the Native organ: "It is a singuter fact that the same Native American party which first saggested, and afterwards triumphantly elected Governor Johnston, first brought forward also to the notice of the people, for the high office of President of the United States, 'Old Rough and Ready,' the people's candidate!" And, by a resolution of these same natires, passed at their recent national convention, the natives of the whole Union were invoked to rally with energy in support of Gen. Taylor; and the Sun, from which we now quote, in remarking on the Philadelphia selection, says that "that conrection adopted their nominee;" and the editor most esaltingly cries out, in view of their great victory. "How proud a position we already occupy!" Proud position, ruly. And it needs only the warm and generous support of the foreigners of this country to render it enviable. Under the golden rule we are required to "love our enemies," and why should not the foreign vote of this asylum of the oppressed of all nations be everywhere given to build up this Native American interest and spread abroad its influence over the land?

Irishmen, we make an appeal to you. From a nation of generous impulses, you have come among us to share is freedom's blessings. The bravest of your sons have fought and fell for liberty here. Their ashes repose, promiscuously mingled with the bones of those who breathedget the mountain air of the Emerald Isle. The dust hat covers them knows no distinction between them.-Can you support the Native American candidate?

Germans, you had a Do Kalb and a Steuben once among us; and-you yourselves have shared largely in all the battles and conflicts of that adopted country, to the defence of which you have been so often summoned .-You come to partake with us in the freeman's rights .-An you for the Natice American ticket?

Laylayette-Poles, through whose patriotic veins the lood of a Kosciusko courses-Swiss, Spaniards, Danes, Scotchmen, Englishmen, Swedes, Norwegians, all-are tog ready to enlist under the Natice American standard? and of adoption—a constitution that knows no arbitrary estinctions, and under which the naturalized citizen stands on the ground of equality with the notive-born? will you, can you, we most solemnly inquire, can you march up to the ballot-box and sanction by your votes this native American nomination? Germans, Irishmen. frenchmen-all of foreign birth-to you we make our appeal. Are you willing to bind yourselves, by chains so gilling, to the fortunes of the man first brought out by the muve-American party for the Presidency?

We think we can anticipate your indignant response. We cannot mistake your utter abhorrence of the guilty means thus boldly resorted to, to rob you of all your rights and privileges as American citizens. That you will reat with the indignant scorn they so justly merit, these niserable attempts upon your liberty and rights, we have an abundant guarantee in that general intelligence, and in that quick sense of injustice which have proved suffident, everywhere, to enable you to make your own deleace, and to seek your own redress of injuries. THE MEETING ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT:-The Democ-bey turned out in strength on Wednesday night, and albough disappointed in the attendance of speakers from litsburgh, Hon, Mr. Wilkins, and others, who were exseted to be present, listened with marked attention to e gentlemen who occupied the stand. Geo. H. Cutu. Esq., of Girard, who is doing good and efficient serrein the Democratic cause, first addressed the meet iz exposing, in his good-n ttured and peculiar manner, bemonstrous and eidiculous inconsistencies of the whigh put, and touching with emphasis upon the rather sore Blect of Taylor's nomination merely for his availabili-. the result of his supposed popularity as a soldier and notes ful general. Some of our whig friends present visced under the infliction, saying in their hearts, doubtkm, with fat Jack-

'No more o' that, Hal, an' thou lovest me;" and feeling as uncomfortable to all appearance, as a mouse a s trap. We recommend to them Taylor's "last letter" a panacea for "all the ills" whig "flesh is heir to." Hou. James Thompson followed Mr. Cutler, and for a hour and a half, held the undivided attention of the adience. His speech was a masterly exposition of the naciples of the Democratic party, as opposed to the iraponsible, "no principle" policy of the whigs, and he dup, to the detestation of every honest man, that disruceful, aye, infamous coalition of the whige and Nahu, which, if we are defeated in this State, has contribuled more than anything beside to that result, and which how moving Heaven and Earth to accomplish our Tenhrow in the Presidential contest. He held up to he jut abhorrence of the foreign-born citizen, that dan-[Prous and proscriptive doctrine of the whig party, which would not only prevent all foreigners from naturalintion until after a residence of 21 years, but even then sould forecer withhold from them the rights and privikge of American citizens—the right to hold any, even neanest office, in the gift of the United States. We late neither time nor space to notice the Judges' speech detail. That it was goood and effective, we argued from the blank visages of the few whigs present, and the tusted countenances of our friends. He was interapted by repeated applause, and when the Judge closed 'he brought down the house."

Hon. John Galbraith next occupied the stand, and with few plain and pertinent remarks, mostly on the subject the tariff, closed the speaking of the evening. GEN. TATLOR'S WITNESSES.—In his late speech. Mr.

Vehater said of Gen. Taylor: "I think of him very much as he seems to think of

Now hear what Taylor thinks of himself.

"I greatly doubt my qualifications to discharge the du-Of course, then, Mr. Webster doubts his qualifications, ad hence his declaration that Taylor's was a nominaon mot fit to make."

IMPORTANT ADMISSION!!

edged by the Eric Gas ttel!!

We find in the Gazette of the 2d inst, the following admission of a fact which they have been so strenuous in bu ever hoisted its hydra head among us with more hid- denying. Since they have admitted it so candidly it will coas deformities, with more of the serpent's venom, than be no longer a question. But to the admission. The Gazette savs:

"We find it in an article from the Philadelphia Sun, the organ of the Native Americans in Philadelphta, pub-lished in the Observer under dute of the 25th ult. It is in these words:"

"THE LAST NATIONAL CONVENTION of the NATIVE AMERICAN PARTY PASSED A RESOLUTION, REQUESTING THE NATIVE MERICANS OF THE UNION TO RALLY WITH ENERGY IN SUPPORT OF GENERAL fle meal, has opened up the scene that exposes their TAYLOR FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED

he regarded those questions as settled; constitutionally speaking by repeated adjunction and long acquiescence But II in cases of palpably unconstitutional and hasty and inconsiderate legislation in the WOULD exercise the VETO, and under this reservation, he might safely be relied on to VETO any bill containing the Provisions of the Wilmot Proviso."

That this is the view the Southern whigs take of Taylor's Allison letter, and the construction they put upon it That is the construction those who know Taylor besthis bosom friends-his political advisers, put upon it.

Nor Through YET .- The whigs of this section are not yet through with their lamentations, over the enthusiastic Democratic rally on Saturday evening last,-and although it had been made the subject of continual conversation from that time to the present, the Gazette, in its last issue has seen fit to give it nearly half a column of "special pleading" in a vain endeavor to counterbalance its influence. Now why is it that our whigs feel so very tender upon this native union? They do not, they DARE NOT deny that they elected their Governor by this union, and others as disgraceful. Is it that they are too honorable, too high-minded, or that they have too much regard for the rights of those who seek our county as the land of Liberty, the land of equal rights? Not a bit of it. It is because they fear the just indignation of those men, whom they have it in their hearts to trample under foot as they would a dog, if they had the power.-Yes, we say that these same whigs, who are now all smiles to the Foreigner, who are endeavoring to be hand in hand with the naturalized citizen. HAVE UNITED, WILL AGAIN UNITE, and if they are successful and get the power into their own hands will PASS LAWS curtailing, if not entirely depriving the Foreigner of his right as a civizen of this country! For proof of this we cite them to the past acts of their party, to facts which are now before thom, and which cannot be controverted, as well as to the speeches of prominent men of that party, who are continually using low and degrading terms, such as "ignorant Dutch and Irish, paupers of the old world, people who don't know enough to vote," &c. &c.

It is not our desire nor intention to pander to the prejudices of any set of men for the sake of gain, nor to state falschoods for the purpose of obtaining votes, but we do ask the naturalized citizens of this county to ascertain the facts in reference to these matters.-to examine carefully. and see who are and who are not their real friends-see what party has always contended earnestly and conscientiously for their rights, and vote occordingly, and we have no fears for the result. Will they do it? We believe they will. The attention with which they listened to those speeches which have caused so much trembling in the whig camp, give us confidence that they are not nterests, their oven rights.

As Unwelcome Trip .- A young lad some 11 years o age, son of Mrs. Haines, residing in this place, had quite an adventurous trip last week on the lake. He was Will you push aside the constitution of this your chosen waiting for the arrival of the steamer Ohio, and to amuse himself, at about 3 o'clock on Suturday morning, stepped into a rudely ernstructed ferry boat at the harbor and paddled out at the end of the piers. He laid down his single oar to "bail ship," not observing that he was making out into the lake, until he had got so far that his effor s to return were without success. The wind was then blowing gently from the South. It was quite dark, and when out about one mile, he states that he pulled off his clothes and plunged into the lake and swam for shore with the boat in tow; his strength gave out and he again to said estate to pre-ent them properly authenticate with the boat in tow; his strength gave out and he again. forts to return were without success. The wind was got into the boat, dressed himself, and from exhaustion laid down and took a quiet sleep. He awoke about sunrise, and was then about five miles from shore. Looking about he espied a brig at some distance from him passing down, and by fastening his pocket handkerchief to the onr, succeeded in getting the attention of the crew of the brig, who shortly came to his relief and took him on board. He returned home again on Monday morning. from Buffalo, satisfied with his short cruise on Lake Erie .- Conneaut Reporter.

> GER. TATLOR A WHIO .- Speaking of Gen. Taylor, the Hon. Daniel Webster, in his recent speech in Boston. soys:

> "I believe him to be a Whig—that he will e elected by Whigs—that he will choose a Whig Cabinet, and administer the government honestly on whig principles, and by the support of whig measures."

We copy the foregoing for the perusal of such Democrats as funcy General Taylor is anything but a whig, and who have been thinking of giving him their votes -Mr. Webster says that "Gen Taylor is to be elected by Whigs." He takes no Democrat into the account. He relies wholly upon the Whigs for Gen. Taylor's success, and we trust he will have none but Whig rotes. Daniel Webster has resolved, if General Taylor should be elected. to claim his election as exclusively a Whig triumph. He will doubtless say of the Taylor Democrats, what he said of the Conservatives, after the election of Gen. Harrison, that they were about an "omnibus load."

A STRONG APPLICATION .- Mr. Giddings, in his recent speech at Cleveland, made the following effective application of the known parsimony of Gen. Taylor. His love of money stands out prominently in his character: "Another fact he would mention, that so far from Taylor daring to desort the South on this subject, he had a still more powerful interest not to desert himself—that by allowing slavery to be extended over New Mexico, his (Taylor's) property, in slaves, would be enhanced thirty thousand dollars. It is folly, said he, to suppose that the man who refused to pay ten cents postage on a letter, is usensible to such an interest. Hero Backus, having come to,' arose, looked daggers at the speaker, ar sounced upon him in this wise: 'Sir, will you consider t honorable in a constituent of yours, to suppose that you could be influenced in your Representative duties by consideration like this?' 'Yes,' most emphatically se 'Yes,' most emphatically said Mr. G., 'if I refused to give my sentiments publicly when asked. Suspect me of anything,' said he, 'when I tamper with my constituents."

Gen. Taylor has written a letter to Dr. Pannell, a whig candidate for elector in Virginia, saying that he will reto the Wilmot Proviso should he be chosen President, ## and Congress should adopt it.

Lewis' Gothic Hall! A day or two since, we dropped in at this establishment, and found one of the best assortments of Jewelry and Fancy articles in that line, we ever saw out of our large cities. Mr. Lewis exhibits his wares with an agreeable and polite readiness that cannot fail to secure customers, and the attractive show window occupying nearly the entire front of the building, is an invitation to enter that, we suspect, our jewelry-disposed ladies find difficult to resist. The prices, so far as we are capable of judging, are favorably and trade-provokingly low, and the styles and patterns of the newest and most recherche varieties. Give Lewis a call, and satisfy yourselves.

Frie, Oct. 28, 1549.

Onto vs. Taylon .- The Cleveland Democrat, which is a strong free soil paper, and the organ of the Giddings nterest, thus walks into Tayloriam : The Election-its Result .- Enough has been heard of the election in this State, to put it beyond a doubt that Taylor stands no more chance of carrying the State, than Lucifer does of becoming an angel of light. So he will have to get on as well as he can without this 'damned abolition State.'

On! "No PROSCRIPTION."-On Monday week last only thirteen men were discharged from their employment at Pottsville, in this State, for the heinous crime of voting the democratic ticket.

The report of the death of Fitz Green Halleck is contradicted. It grew out of the death of William P. Hallett, for a long time clerk of the Supreme Court, who died of typhus fever on Monday evening.

Is not this satisfactory?"

We say AVE, we are satisfied with the admission, however painful it may have been to make it.

GEN. TAYLOR—PROVISO—VETO.

The Richmond (Va.) Republican, a Taylor paper, in giving an account of discussion between Mr. Wise and Mr. Joseph Segar, the latter a leading Taylor stumper, at Hampton, Va., a few weeks ago, reports Mr. Segar as having used the following language:

"Gou Taylor took the true view of the veto power—was not for its abrogation, would not veto bills relating to the currency, fiscal operations, the tariff and internal improvements, because, like Madison, in regard to the bank, he regarded those questions and learned and the properties of the great and ask for pamphlet. TESTED BY THOUSA DS. WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

CLARCELY have ten short years elapsed since an humble at thempt was made to could ine, in a stituble medical preparation a few of the herbs of the in hand. All was dark at the time as to a few of the herbs b) the In Inn.! All was dark at the time as to the result. The most that yould be estimated was, that the principles adopted as the basis to build upon were sound. So much respance was placed upon cajoned and the lance, that the ill success of the new experiment would have tended to confirm that reliance, while it shook the spurpose of the projector.

Now, however, all doubt and dafficulty is at an end. Everywhere this medicine has been greeted with welcome; everywhere that its use been attended with the most gratifying success. Error singlibe similars, its sates are now counted by millions! and it is held in tigher estimation at the present time than when it was origin by introduced.

r. Wright—Some time since, your agent left me a supply of ar Indian Vegetable Pills. I have found said pills to be in great centand tately for the cure of Pever and Ague. Mr. James Boyd has a son who has been Baid up with Pever and Ague, and had tried various other remedies, all of which proved of no avait—He determined to try your Indian Vegetable Pills, and by using one box is now sound and well. Mr. T. Spencer had a daughter, Mr. H. Groves a son, and Mr. C. Nichols and three of his tamby were all down at the same time with I ever and Ague, and had also trie I the various other reagences willout effect. Your Indian Vegetable Pills soon testored them all by perfect health. I can assure you from what I have seen, your Indian Vegetable Pills may be relied on for a perfect cure of Feyer and Ague.

Dr. William Wright—Dear Sir. I among of the many whose aversion to quack most turns has deprived them of the Lenefits resulting from the use of good medicines. Acting under this influence, I have seldom resorted to the Pill box. Last March, when you commenced advertising in my paper, I was induced to give your Indian Vegetalk Pills a trial, and after having fairly tested their ments for myself and family, gave them a decided preference over every other preparation.

In every meaning when afflicted with sick headache, or when the stream of, the was commbered with morbid humors; I found speedy relief from the use of your Pills. For a genite medicine, one or two will be found mild though effective. Where bite or other impurities have accumulated, and more thorough medicine is required, a dose of three or four of these pills taken on going to bed, will be found effectual in cleansing the stomach, and restoring the bowels to a healthy state.
