- A beautiful face and a form of grace, Were a pleasant sight to see; And gold, and gems, and diadems
- Right excellent they be: But beauty and gold, though both be untold, Are things of a worldly mart;
- The wealth that I prize, above ingots or eyes. Is a heart-a warm young heart! Oh, face most fair, shall thy beauty compare
- With affection's glowing light? Oh riches and pride, how pale ye teside
- Love's wealth screne and bright? I spurn thee away, as a cold thing of clay, Though eilded and carved they art 1 For all that I prize, in its smiles and its right, Is a heart-a warm young heart!

Corcoran and Riggs, the American Bankers.

All the world now knows the American Roth childs, Corcoran and Riggs; their fame has spread from this metropolis to London, Paris, Vienna, Hamburgh, and in short, everywhere that trade and commerce flourish, and yet, within a very few years, they were as little known as the humble corrispondent you have selected to give you the sayings and doings of Washington. Alas, what changes take place in this mundane sphere! Some men rise to fortune almost in spite of themselves, while bad luck and ill fortune pursue others from the cradle to the grave. The bare idea is enough to make a man a firm believer in predestination. The head of the house of Rothchilds was deeply impregnated with this feeling. According to his own admission, he would never have anything to do with an unfortunate man, declaring that he had known very shrewd and-sensible people of that caste with their toes out of their shoes. Instead of eschewing such people, I think it would have been more to his credit to have relieved them. The head of our Washington Banking House W. W. Corcornn, is the son of a poor Irish shoemaker, who settled in Georgetown, in the District & Columbia, upwards of half a century ago, and was a warm-hearted, generous son of Erin, a great lover of liberty, an a genuine disciple of democracy. In the struggle between the elder Adams and Jefferson, he was equally ready with his purse and shillelah, to promote or defend the cause of the people. By industry and integrity he famassed a handsome for tune, and retired from business. Such was the esteem in which he was held by his fellow citizens. that he was chosen mayor, and held the office until the saw fit to resign it. In after years the depreciation in Georgetown was so great, that his estate, which was considered an ample competence for all his children, became a mere pittance. William, the present banker, was the youngest son, and commenced his career in the auction and dry goods business, in conjunction with a brother somewhat older than himself. There affairs turned outdisastrously, and they failed, the partners sacrificing everything to meet the demands of the creditors.

Mr. Wm. Corcoran was then employed to aid in winding up the affairs of the old Bank of Columbia, which had turned over its assets to a branch of the United States Bank for the benefit of its creditors, and I am sorry to say it was not long before this very branch broke, like all the rest of that unfortunote concern. It was here, probably, that Mr. Corcoran first learned the rudiments of money-making. While engaged in this settlement, he paid his addresses to a daughter of Commodore Morris, a young, levely and blooming girl, but the father having violently opposed the match, on account of Mr. C.'s circumstances, the young lady saw fit to give the old gentleman the slip, and unted her destiny with Mr. C. She did not live, however, to see his present affluence, but died early, leaving an only daughter, now sole heir to the father's great possestion. Mr. C. afterwards opened a broker's office in this city, and managed matters with so much skill, that his accumulations were exceedingly rapid. In the arrangement of some business for Mr. Elisha Riggs, of N. York, that gentleman became so pleaswith the financial skill evinced, that he placed his son, George W. Riggs, in partnership with Mr. Corcoran, with liberty to draw on New York to an unlimited extent. This was the commencement of the bridge, Eigen W. W. W. Loonis. Corcoran, with liberty to draw on New Lora Condition of unlimited extent. This was the commencement of the celebrated banking-house of Corcoran and Riggs, and it went on in one full tide of successful experiment form its first formation to the present time.

Such men deserve the blessings of fortune to be showered on them. George W. Riggs retired from the firm before the second loan was taken in part by the house, but a brother of his taking his place, the original firm of Corcoran & Riggs still stands. Mr. Riggs is now enjoying olium cum dignitate on a beautiful country-seat, about one hour's ride from Washington, where he gives up his time to the parsuits of literature, and the improvement and adorement of his ten. Such is a brief history of the origin of the house of Corcoran & Riggs, a firm that has amassed more wealth risen higher in public opinion, and wielded more influence, for its short career, than any other in the world .- Washington Correspondence of the N. O. Delta.

DR. TOWNSIMD'S SARSAPARILLA.

The great beauty and superiority of this Bersaparilla over all other unclicine is, while it endicated disease, it invigorates the body. It is one of the very best Fal and Winter medicines ever known; it not only purifies the whole system, strengthens the person, but it creates new, pure and rich blood; a power possessed by no other medicine. And in this lies the grand secret of its wonderful success. It has performed within the past two years, more than 33,000 cures of severe cases of disease; at least 20,000 of these were considered incurable.

More than 3,000 cases of Chronic Rheumatism; 2,000 cases of dispepsia; 4,000 cases of dispepsia; 4,000 cases of dispepsia; 4,000 cases of the different Female Complaints; 2,000 cases of the Officent Female Complaints; tating the patient GREAT FALL AND WINTER MEDICINE.

7,000 cases of the different Female Complaining 1,000 cases of Strofula;
1,500 cases of Strofula;
1,500 cases of Stease of the Kidneys and Dropsy;
8,000 cases of Gease of the Kidneys and Dropsy;
8,000 cases of Consumption;
And thousands of cases of diseases of the blood, viz: Ulcers, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the Face, &c., together with numerous cases of Sick Headache, Pain in the Side and Chest, Spinal Affections, &c., &c.

This, we are aware, must appear incredible, but we have letters from Physicians and our Agents from all patts of the United States, informing us of extraordinary cures. R. Van Buskirk, Esq., one of the most respectable Druggists in Newark, N. J., informs us that be can refer to more than 150 cases in that place afone. There are thousands of cases in the City of New York, which we will refer to with pleasure and to men of character. It is the best medecine for the preventative of disease, known. It undoubtedly saved the lives of more than 5,000 CHILDREN THE PAST SEASON.

As it removed the cause of disease, and prepared them for the Summer season. It has never been known to injure in the least the nost delicate child.

RHEUMATISM.

-RHEUMATISM.

This Sarsaparilla is used with the most perfect success in Rheumalic complaints, however severe or chronic. The astonishing cures it has performed are indeed wonderful. Other remedies sometimes give temporary relief, this entirely eradicates it from the system even when the lumbs are dreadfully awollen.

If Hear Mr. Beth Terry, one of the oldest and most respectable lawyers in Hartford, Conu. The following is he extract of a letter received from him:

DR, Townsend. -I have used one bottle of your Sarsaparilla, and which I am subject, from an injury occasioned several years jago, in a public stage. Please send me two bottles to the care of Dr. Seymour. I have conversed with two of our principal physicians, nd they recommend your Barsaparilla. Hartford, March 12, 1815.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

Cleanse and Strengthen. Consumption can be Cared. Bronchitta, Consumption, Lieur Computinit, Colds, Catarrh, Coughs, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Soreness in the Chest, Heric fissh, Night Sweats, Difficult or profuse Expectoration, Pain in the Side, &c., have been and can be cured.

Name to be cared. The containing the cough, but not so severe as to provent me from attending to my busines. Within the last few years it increased on me gradually. At last 1 became reduced—I breathed with difficulty, and rased with my. Cough much had matter, and for the last nine months previous to my using your Sarsaparilla, had regular might sweats; indeed, my friends and my self supposed that I would die with the consumption; but I have the happiness to inform you that to my surprise, after using three bottles of your Sarsaparilla, I find my health restored. It relieved me gradually, and I am enjoying better hoalth than I have for 26 years. I had almost entirely lost my appetite, which is also returned. You are at liberty to publish this with my name in the papers, if you choose.

My little žirl, who is three years old; had a very bad cough the turned. You are at liberty to publish this with my name in the papers, if you choose.

My little girl, who is three years old; had a very bad cough the whole of hist Winter. While using the medicine I gave her some of it; and lisoon entirely relieved her, as well as myself, and she is now well and hearty as any child I ever saw. She was also full of little blotches; it took them away and her skin is smooth and fair now; and I am satisfied she recovered her health from using your excellent medicine.

8. W. CONANT.

CIRLS, READ THIS. You who have pale complexions, dull eyes, bletches on the face, rough skin, are "out of Spirus," use a bottle or two of the Doctor Townsend's Sarsaparilla. It will cleanse your blood, remove the freekles and blotches, and give you animation, sparkling eyes, flue spirits, and beautiful complexion—all of which are of immense value to unmarried ladies.

TO MOTHERS & MARRIED LADIES. The Extract of Saraparilla has been expressly prepared in reference to female complaints. No female who has reason to suppose she is approaching [that critical period, "the turn of life," should neglect to take it, as it is a certain preventative for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which females are subject at this time of life. This period may be delayed several years by using this medicine. Not is it less valuable for those approaching womanibod, as it is calculated to assist nature, by quickening the blood and invigorating the system. Indeed this medicine is invaluable for all the diseases to which women are subject. ubject. It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies—by removing the impurities of the body—hot so far stimu-lating the system as to produce a subsequent relatation which is the case of most mediclines taken for female weakness and disease. SCROFULA CURED.

This certificate conclusively proves that this Sarsaparilla harfect control over the most obstanted diseases of the blood. The personnel red in one house is unprecedented.

THREE CHILDREN.

Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir. I have the pleasure to inform you that three of my children have been cured of the Scrofula by the use of your excellent medicine. They were afficied very severely with bad sores thave taken only four bottles; it took them away, for which I feel myself under deep obligation.

Yours respectfully,

CAUTION.

Owing to the great success and immense sale of Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, a must or of men who were formerly our Agents, have commenced making Sarsaparilla, Elitars, Butters, &c. &c. They generally put it on in the same shiped boutles, claiming that theirs is far superior and four times strenger than Dr. Townsend's, &c. hoping thereby to deceive the public. Some of these unprincipled men publish counterfeit certifications, others have induced their brothers and other interested presons to allow the use of their names, to which they put esquire to give them respectable names procured by using Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, publishes then as cured,by his sunf. He also publishes the certificate of a person Who styles himself an M. D., who mends hoes digs wells, and doctors horses by turns for a livelihood. They also published certificates signed by fictitious names stating they have used Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and that it injured them &c. These, and a great variety of other tricks are performed by these men, to gell their trash. The public should be on, their guard, and look out for counterfeits.
