SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 13, 1849.

Goverson's MESSAGE .- This document occupies our inside columns this week to the exclusion of almost every thing else. We have neither room, time nor inclination for comment. Hereafter, when our readers have had time to digest its contents, we may be inclined to have "our say" on its morits and recommendations.

D' Our acknowledgements are due the Hon. James Thompson, for a valuable public document-the Congressional Globe and Apondox.

grate to Greenland, Simm's Hole, or some other northern El Dorado.

IP The author of our Carrier's Addres has sent us long list of Eratas-some of which were ours, but (must we say it) most of them were his own. We would have corrected them, but our outside was worked off before his communication arrived.

D'The first and second numbers of the "Home Journal" for 1849 have been received, and fully redeems all the promises made in the prospectus we published some time since. It is decidedly the paper for every lov. er of the pure and beautiful-no "Model Courier" or "Saturday Post" trash about it.

STATE CONVENTION .- The Democratic State Contral Committee have decided upon the Fourth of July next as the time, and Pittsburgh the place, for holding the next State Convention. No more appropriate time or place cond thave been chosen.

113 Hea. Joiner Cooper, of Adams, has been elected United solutes Senator, for six years, from the 4th of March next. He will occ ipy the seat made vacant by the expiration of the term of Hon Simon Cameron. Mr. Cooper is an able mun, and aside from his politics, is as uuexceptionable as any one that could have been selectad.

D We see that our friend S. S. Blauchard, of the Western New Yorker, has been elected Sargeant-at-Arms in the New York Legislature. Sam is in luck undor the Taylor reg um-first Treasurer of the county, and now Sargeant-at-Arms! However, there is no one more deserving, or better qualified than he!

D' We regret to learn that an accident of a most serious nature befel Mr. Joux Russet, of Millcrock township, on Thursday afternoon last. While at the barn of Mr. It may well be considered as a conspicuous epoch [A. K. MULLER, near his residence, where they were engain our history. The blessings of rational and god thrashing, and attempting to step over the rod of the machine, he was caught by it, and before the machine could be stooped, was very much injured. For some days his recovery was almost ontirely despaired of, but to the States a character for intelligence and vir, we are informed that yestesterday and to-day the symptoms developed are so favorable as to inspire hopes that tuh valuable information to the legislature for he will survive. It is exceedingly doubtful, however, whether in consequence of the extent of the injury to his back, he will recover his former vigor and activity of The Adjutant General's Report on the subject body. The acquisition of New-Mexico and California presents again in the National Congress the question of the extension or nonextension of human slavery. At the adoption of the national constitation, the longer continuance of what was then considered an evil was strongly agitated, and resulled in a compromise permitting it in the States where at that time it existed. The constitution, being submitted to the States, was adopted, with oring submitted to the states, was adopted, with others, by Pennsylvania; and after the lapse of more than half a century, it remains the great fundamental law of the Union. .
