For I thought, dear boy, of thee and me. I watched a parent bird that fed Her fledgling many a vernal day. Training his dainty wings to spread And lightly flit frow spray to spray; Away-afar-I marked him soar, Never to own fond guidance more. Can care and love thus wasted be?-Sadly I thought of thee and me.

I watched the moon rise sweetly bright, With one fair star that lay below. Each lovelier shone from mutual light. As hearts united , gentley flow: Though moon and star in heaven divide. Time brings them over side by side, Glorying I spoke, thus may it be!-

DODGING A MILITIA FINE.

For I thought dear boy, of thee and me

BY THE YOUNG 'UN.

In days gone by, when the objectionable militie laws were in force in Massachusetts, the customary draft was made in a country town a few miles from Boston, and notice to "appear, armed and equipped, according to law," was left at the boarding house a wag, who possessed very little material "music" in his soul. Determined that he would neither "train" nor pay a fine, and entertaining, withal, a very indifferent opinion of the utility of the system, he took no notice of the summons. Having been duly "warned," however, as he anticipated, at the expi ration of a few weeks the sergant waited upon him with a bill of nine shillings for non-attendance at the musster.

"You're fined, sir-nine shillings-non-appear

"What is it?" asked the wag, pretending to misunderstand the collector.
"Fine for not training!" brawled the other.

"Shan't pay it, fellow!" "It will be three dollars next time I call."

But the wag could nt hear a word he said, and in the course of another mouth he received a peremptory summons to appear forthwith at a courtmarshall in the district, instituted for the purpose of trying delinquents, and collecting such fines as could be scared out of the non-performers of duty. Having fixed upon a final plan to dodge the issue, at the appointed hour he waited upon the court to show cause, if any he had, why he shouldn't willingly toted a musket and knapsack about the town for twelve mortal hours, and otherwise perform legal annual duties of a live "patriot."

He has ushered into the court-room immediately -which has held in an old country house-where he discovered some three or four persons seated, attired in flashsy regimentals, and whose awful "yaller epoletts" alone were sufficient to command the attention and respect of the profoundest beholder. Though somewhat disconcerted at this rather unexpocted exhibition of sours and buttons, he put a hold face on the matter, and responding to the directions of the junjor member of the august court head vanced to the table, and the chief functionary commenced the examination. "Your name, sir?"

The offended placed his hand quickly to the side of his head, without uttering a word or mooving a muscle in his face.

"What is your name?" repeated the questioner in a loud voice. "A little louder," said the wag, without reply-

"Name!" shouted the Judge. "Taunton, Bristol county." "What business do you follow?"

"Main street," said the deling lent. "Your buisiness?" yelled the officer. "Right-hand-side as you go up." "How long have you been there!"

"About two miles and a-half." "How old are you fellow?" continued the Judge,

"Boss carpenter." "What the devil's the matter with your ears?" "Doctor Scarpie's oil, sometimes." "What, sir?"

"Sometimes Cur'em's cintment." "Why don't you answer me?" "Nearly five years."
"He's as deaf as an adder," remarked the Judge turning around to his suborninates earnestly. "Clear the lubber out." "You are not liable to perform military duty," said the secretary, with his mouth close to the wag's "I know that," said the fellow coolly.

"His hearing improves," ventured the sergant. "What do you suppose we sit here for?" asked the Judge, in a loud voice, at last. "A dollar and-a-half a day," said the sergant. "He may go, Mr. Sergant."

"He may go, Mr. Sergant."
"You can go," said the under officer pointing to

But our friend took no notice of the order. "You may oo!" yelled the Judge. "Good God! is it possible a man can be as deaf as all that?"

"I can't say," continued the delinquent, pre-tending not to understand yet; but I should think-"Go-go" screamed the Judge; "there's nothing to pay. The Lord pity the general who had a regiment like you to command! Show him the door, major;" and our hero soon found himself at liberty. He was never again summoned to train during his residence in Taunton .- Flag of our Union.

A SHREWD REPLY .- A young friend of ours was undergoing an examination for admission to the -----had pushed his questions pretty closely, but the candidate was never at fault .-Finally, the Judge pounced upon him as follows: "Suppose that a Boston importer should come to you with a case like this' -and here the Judge went on to state one of the most complicate questions that arise in regard to marine insurance. It was a poser. Our friend, intending to practice in the country, was not "posted up" on this topic. But he was a Yankee, and he never was at a loss for an answer. closed off with the inquiry, "What would you say?" our friend promptly replied, "I should tell him to sit down Sir, until I could look at the same of the state of the same of So soon as the Judge had summed up his case, and sit down Sir, until I could look at my books."-"The beat thing you could do—the very thing you ought to do," rejoined the Judge, "you are admmitted, Sir."

"DEM'S EM .- A pious old negro, while saying grace at the table, not only used to ask a blessing on all that he had at his board, but would also petition to have some deficient dishes supplied. One day it was known that Cato was out of potatoes, and suspecting that he would pray for the same at dinner, a wag provided himself with a samall measvegetables, and stole under the window, near which stood the table of our colored Christian. Cato drew up a chair and commenced:

"O massa Lord! will dow in dy provident kindness condescend to press obbery ting afore us: "an be preased to stow 'pon us, jus a few taters-an all be praise." (Here the potatoes were dashed upon the table, breaking plates and upsetting the mustard pot.) "Dem's 'em. massa Lord!" said Cato, 'only jis luff 'emdown a little easier nex time!'

THE FRENCH PRESIDENT. - We have conflicting accounts as to the sepublicanism of the French President, but of his popularity there seems to be little doubt. His magnificent fetes and servants in green livery appear to rouse no opposition among the mass, although it is easy to conceive that the austere democrats regard these vanities at once with austere democrats regard these vanities at once with sorrow and with anger. The London Spectator says—

"President Bonaparts is indulging Paris to its heart's content, with palace gaieties of Imperial pattern. His doors are guarded like Napoleon's, with gigantic porters in the true Napoleonic livery; he stands in an hereditary posture, with his hands behind his back: he is right royally affable, with a few words for everybody; he hugs Count Mole and fondles M. Thiers; in short, he is imperial and condescending, magnificent and popular."

They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation

The following letter is from Mr. Alonzo D. Felter, of Kingston, N. Y. a gentlemon of high respectability and influence.

Kingston, Ulster Co., N. Y., Jan. 24, 1848

To Dr. A. H. Crinistic—
About the first of November last I called at your office and purchased one of your Galvanic lielts, and I am happy to say that it has made a new man of me. For your I have been, troubled with Rizumstrism, very severe, and a general weekness of the whole system, and very nervous, with pain in the head, so severe that I would have to take to my hed three or four times a day. My friends are astonished at the perfect and wonderful cure wrought on me.—I never was better in my life than now, and I know that this is altogether owing to your GALVANIC BELT, for I had had the best physicians, and had tried every thing previous to using it, without effect. Very respectfully, ALONZO D. FELTER.

Mr. Fritzen procured a number of the GALVANIC BELT'S, and having disposed of them among his friends, thus writes:

No. 2.

Kingston, May 6, 1849.

My Dram Docton,

You ask me to give you an account of the success of your GALVANU BELLYS in this region. I can truly say that they continue to do wonders; hundreds wear them, and I do not know of a solitary case of failure in their use. I told a Belt and tho Magnetic Fluid to a lady here some weeks since. She had a complication of nervous disorders, and was very low. Dr. Nelson attended her, but did her no good; and the Doctor blew out considerably when she got the belt, and ridiculed it; but the lady used the Helt and was cured. Now this Doctor had the Dyspessia for a great while, and could not cute himself, but gets this lady's Belt; wishes it kept a secret, puts it on himself, and it did him so much good, that yesterday he called on me and got one for his wife.

Miss Vandenars, of this town, lay all winter with the Rheumatism. She got to be perfectly helpless. Every one who saw her said she could not live. She sent for a GALVANIC BLUT—put it on—used the Fluid freely, and in Eight Days sate were our visiting, and is to say Karanten NATT were ! The Doctor who attended Miss V., houled at the Belt, but now says there is certainly a remarkable curative power in your Belts. Mr Dran Doctor.

EIGHT DATS SAT. WENT OUT VISITING, AND IS TO BE MARKED NEXT WENT! The Doctor who attended Miss V., houled at the Belt, but now says there is certainly a remarkable curative power in your Belts.

Mr. John Eman, merchant of this place, was reduced to a mere skeleton, by Dyspepsia and general chronic disease; he got a Belt and the Fluid, and is now as healthy a man as we have got in Kingston. He has spent large sums of money in various nostrums previously, but they all proved uscless.

No. 5.

An old gentleman by the name of Newkirk, had the Dyspepsia for thirty years. He tells me that he could not eat only thing without its rising on his stomach; he was very much emiciated and looked miserable; but he purchased a Belt from me, and after wearing it 3 or 4 weeks, he drove up to the door and said he had come to thank me for relling him Crimitis Belt, as it had made a well men of him. He says that he now eats and digests perfectly, and that he is as hearty as any of his neighbors. He isabout 60 years of age.

Mr. Wood, of Mathletown, was drawn up with Croup and Rheumatism, so that he could not move, this brother got a Belt for him, and in one week he was so well that he was about attending to his business. He says it is the greatest thing on earth.

No. 7.

The wife of Mr. Joseph King, of Kingston, has been some thing on carth.

No. 7.

The wife of Mr. Joseph King, of Kingston, has been complaining of lassitude and general weakness for several years, and also troubled with indigestion. Bhe got the Belt and Fluid, and Mr. King told me this day, that his wife was like another woman, it had done her so much good. I could give you a great many more cases, equally successful, but I suppose these will be sufficient. I may say that I never was engaged in any but mess that has been so fortunute and satisfactory to all concerned. Very truly yours, ALONZO D. FELTER. To A. H. Christiff, M. D., New-York.

ANOTHER INVALID RESTORED TO HEALTH. ANOTHER INVALID RESTORED TO REALTH.

(Read the following statement of facts from Mr Ell Bailey, a highly respectable merchant of Vienna, Johnson co, Illinois.)

Gentlemen:—A desire to benefit the afflicted throughout the land has alone induced me to make the following statement of facts respecting one of the most astonishing cures ever recorded. My son, now seventeen years of age, has been afflicted during his whole life, with a constant cough, pain in the side and chest, accompanied with hight sweats and hectic fever, which produced great emaclation and deblity; and at intervals during the night, his expectoration would become so great as to endanger his life from strangulation. During the time be was attended by many physicians of the highest repute, whose prescriptions gave but temporary relief—in fact, so alarming were the symptoms and so inveterate was his iscense, that I was compelled to believe him bayond the reach of Medical aid!

All of our neighbors and friends who saw him, regarded him as one who was rapidly approaching an early and premature grave.

one who was rapidly approaching an early and premature After having thus exhausted the skill of the best physicians one who was rapidly approaching an early and prematice participated the heat physicians without obtaining relief, I was prevailed upon by the advice of a friend to make use of Wister's Endsom of Wild Cherry. He commenced its use about the 36th of December, 1841, the first bottle of which gave astonishing relief, and I began again to indulge in the foul hope that he might yet be restored to health. After having continued the use of it until three bottles had been taken, the disease was entirely evercome, and his chattered constitution and emneiated form restored to sound and permanent health, which he continues to enjoy up to the present time.

I believe the gensine Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry to be one of the most valuable medicines ever discovered—knowing, as I do, that the above cure was effected solely by its use.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully.

Your most obedient servant.

April 0, 1846. Will please read the following statement from the Harrison Gazette:—The incredulous are invited to read the following note from Rey Mr Coldron, whose character for truth and veracity stands above suspicion, and have their doubts singelled as to the superiority of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY over stands above subjetion, and are the relational subjetion and of the same character, superiority of WISTAR'S BALSIM OF WILD CHERRY over all other remedies now before the public of the same character. Coayrov, 1qd, Jan, 25, 1818.

It is no less a duty than a plear are to state for the benefit of the afflicted, that I consider Wittar's Bayean of Wild Cherry a great blessing to the human race. Having tried it in case of sove, o affliction of the lungs, I unbestimitely recommend it to those similarly anticed as the best remedy I have ever tried and one which carred me when physicians said. I must the, and when I thought apyself, that my time to depart was near at hand.

There is a difference between WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and all other preparations of Wild Cherry. The true and genuine Balsam, as sold by us, contains, besides the extract of Wild Cherry bark, other medical agents of great character and efficacy in the cure of coughs, colds, and general diseases of the chest and sings. But all the important difference between this medicine and all others of the kind is, that Wistar's Balsam cures, while other remedies give only temporary relief to the sufference by the D.
