

THE CALIFORNIA GOLD REGION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18, 1849. Our gold region or placer is daily becoming more and more known to the world...

From November to March, the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys are too cold for gold digging...

The owner calculates, with the nice of a Yankee, that the building will be worth $200,000...

We have no workmen, nor time to do anything but dig and pocket gold. No one has much time to dig a dollar...

Thousands of applicants in Washington are daily coming here for $2,000 per annum, but when they arrive here and find no gold...

A salary of $10,000 per annum for Governor would pay how the office in California...

CALIFORNIA—A GOOD SPEC.—We believe, except it be Mr. Stephens, of Georgia...

THE FRUITS OF ANNEXATION.—A writer for the Cherokee Advocate, from Texas...

ANNEXATION.—A writer for the Cherokee Advocate, from Texas, speaks as follows: The annexation of Texas was bitterly assailed by our Federal opponents...

STARVATION IN IRELAND.

We copy from the New York Tribune the following condensed account of the piteous condition of the Irish people...

"A poor female child was found dead in a cross street, its appearance at once suggesting the destination to which it was a victim. An inquest was held, and a verdict of 'death from starvation' returned...

"The clothes had mud upon them, and he was weak. His clothes had mud upon them, and he was weak. His clothes had mud upon them, and he was weak...
