APRIL.

BY ERASTUS WHITE.

A fickle child of the young year,
That hath a smile, and hath a tear
Upon its face!
I sit beside the laughing rills—
And my young bosom lightly thrills;—
I lightly trace
Something of thee; in every breast
So fickle-like, that when confessed
"Doth folly seem!
Oh! I have often shed a tear
And smiled, before it would disappear
The little stream!
Our ways they are so like each other—
We surely had the self same mother;—
One cradle, too!
And thy soft path of crimson flowers—
It is surely the one, called ours;
And sky of blue!
Thy velvet grass—thy choral song—
Thy many footed rills—along
Whose banks there lie
The merry urchins; idly there—
Invite me to thy lovely air,
And lovelier sky!
For I am changeful, like to thee—
And something new I love to see,
Other than past!
And like to the thro' many a year,
I've had a smile, and had a tear,
That did not last

FLOGGING A CLERGYMAN.

About twenty years ago, when there were but few settlements in the northern part of Ohio, and interior preacher of the Methodist society, by name the of Johnson, was employed to travel on the extensive circuit in that section of country. Johnson was a man somewhat above the middle stature, with brawny shoulders and endowed with great muscular strenth and a degree of courage and self-possession adequate to any emeregency, qualities which admirably fitted him for conflict with the rude and boisterous elements prevading the society by which he was surrounded. In his manner he was ever affectionate, but faithful in what he considered his duty, without regard to consequences. The fearlessness with which he assailed the strong holds of depravity and licentiousness, had the effect of drawing down upon his head the indignation of a certain class of characters, who determined to get rid of him, and insulted and annoyed him in various ways, but through his coolness and shrewdness, not only were their plans entirely defeated, but not unfrequently their wicked devices were made to recoil upon their own heads.

After every expedient had signally failed, it was resolved that, as a last resort, to cause the preacher to be waylaid and severely beaten, with the assurance that unless he should decamp immediately, the same course of treatment should be followed up until the desired effect should be produced. As the instrument of their vengance, they were induced to select an Irishman of the name of Kennedy, who had the reputation of being the most athletic man in the country, and who for a stipulated reward, readily undertook the disgraceful business.

One time, as the clergyman was riding on horseback, he was met in an unfrequented spot by the ruffian, who was also on horse-back; Kennedy saluted him with much respect, and informing him that he intended to give him a sound drubbing.

"Ah, but my dear sir, you had better go about your business. If you try it you will be sure to get the worst of the bargain."

"There's little fear of that," exclaimed Kennedy, "I have baisted stronger men than you before to-day So saying he aimed a blow with his fist at the preacher's head, intending to knock him off his horse, but missing, received one in return which brought him instantly to the ground. The preacher then dismounted, and picking up his prostrate and chop fallen adversary, threw him over an adjoining fence.—

The bully, finding he had got hold of the wrong customer, wisely concluded upon a cessantion of hostilities, and looking over the fence, he cried out, as the preacher was patiently waiting for another attack—

"I say Mister, will you be good enough to throw my horse over after me?"

Johnson was thereafter permmitted to ride and preach without the slightest molestation.

DOW, JR'S CRIED.

Dow, Jr., in a late discourse, in the N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Gives the articles of his creed, and concludes with—

"I believe that the most industrious are most contented and happy. Idleness is an incubus upon the bosom of enjoyment. It is the hardest work in the world to do nothing by the month, and having nothing to do it with.

I believe that kicking against custom, and spiting in the face of fashion, is a futile and foolish endeavorer. Both may need correction—but they must, and will have their own way.

I believe that if the devil be the father of liars, he has a plugy large family to look after, and that is rapidly increasing.

I believe that girls are like kittens—gently smooth them the right way, and they rub and purr most affectionately; but give them the contrary brush and their back is up in the most disdainful manner.—They like to be kissed, but sham a delicacy about the operation.

I beleive that human flesh is hard to digest.—Jonah did'nt sit easy upon the stomach of the whale.

I believe that simple honesty, the naked truth, pure virtue, and a straight up and down way of dealing with the world, have as much advantage over nice, tricks, and stratagem, in the long run, as a good square-trotting hus over a prancing pony, or a racker that goes his mile or two like the mischief, and is done for, the rest of the journey."

YOUNG MAN, STOP.— You, young man, on the way to the ball-alley, or a billiard-room, with a cigar in your mouth, and with an appetite for a mint julip —stop a moment. Are you not in a dangerous way? Will those places, your habits, lead you to respectability or usefulness in society? Will you, by them, became more moral, more virtuous, or more inteligent? If not stop where you are, wh i search of you. You have hobleness of heart, perhaps, and a generous disposition. You may do good to those about you, if you will. Your example, if it be such as will lead to virtue, will draw others after you, or if it leads to voice or error, will also, and the more readily, lure others in the way of evil.

Then, young man, stop and think upon your course! Where is it tending? If to bad habits and low associations, stop instantly. Stand firm. Take not another step in the dangerous way, but turn back while you have the power, and seek the way of virtue, the ways of intelligence and you may do good in your day and generation, and may be esteemed by those who enjoy your acquaintance.

SPLITTING THE DIFFERENCE.—A nice young gentleman, not a thousand miles from this, after a long and assiduous courtship, found himself, one bright evening the betroth of a pretty girl, the very pink of modesty. The night he was about to take his departure, and after lingering about the door for some time in a fidget of anxety, declared and protested to Miss Nancy, that he could not, and would not leave until she kissed him. Of course Miss Nancy blushed beautifully red, and protested in turn, that she could not and would not do that. She never had done such a thing, and never would until she was married—so now he had it. The alternation and debate became deep and exciting, until the betrothed buffed outright, and declared if he could'nt kiss her he could'nt have her—and was marching off. She watched him to the gate, and saw 'the fat was in the fire," unless something was done.

"Come back, then," said she, coaxingly, 'I'll split the difference with you—you may squeeze my hand."

MARRIAGE, YET NO WIFE.—The Providence Star tells of a singular divorce case that was decided before the Supreme Court of that State last week.—One Mr. R. petitioned to have the bonds desolved between him and his lady love, on the ground that he was a husband only in the name—his wife granting him nothing more than the simplest platonic privilges The lady, it came out in evidence, married for the sake of company, but had not idea of taking any of the responsibilities of the married state; she had no taste that way, and so, to render assurence doubly sure, at night she would tie herself up in a canvass bag to guard against accidents! The court took pity on the poor fellow, and gave him a chance to try his luck again, by granting the prayer of his petition.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all

NERVOUS DISEASES,

And of those Complaints which are caused by an impaired, weakened or unhealthy condition of the

NERVOUS SYSTEM.

This beautiful and convenient application of the mysterious powers of GALVANISM and MAGNETISM, has been pronounced by distinguished physicians, both in Europe and the United States, to be the most valuable medicinal discovery of the Age.

Dr. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BELT and
MAGNETIC FLUID,

is used with the most perfect and certain success in all cases of

GENERAL DERILITY,

Strengthening the weakened body, giving tone to the various organs, and invigorating the entire system. Also in

FITS, CRAMP, PARALYSIS AND PALSY,
Dyspepsia or Indigestion,
RHEUMATISM, Acute and Chronic, GOUT, EPILEPSY, LUMBAGO, DEAFNESS, NERVOUS TREMORS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, APOPLEXY, NEURALGIA, PAINS in the SIDE and CHEST, Liver Complaint,
SPINAL COMPLAINT, and CURVATURE of the SPINE, HIP COMPLAINT, DISEASES of the KIDNEYS, DEFICIENCY OF NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL ENERGY, and all
Nervous Diseases,

which complaints arise from one simple cause, namely,

A Derangement of the Nervous System.

☞ In NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the disease, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prostrated system; while under the strengthening, life-giving, vitalizing influence of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery, the exhausted patient and weakened sufferer is restored to forever health, strength, elasticity and vigor!

The great peculiarity and excellence of

consists, in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual mode of drugging and physicking the patient, till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.

They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, and never do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since, more than

60,000 Persons

including all ages, classes and conditions, among which were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, have been

when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain!

To illustrate the use of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSPEPSIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken, which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford temporary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state, and with jaded bowlties; after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worst symptoms of an attack, and simply put the Belt around the body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the insensible perspiration will set on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSPEPSIA are PERMANENTLY CURED A FEW DAYS IS OFTEN AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS.

A CHAIN OF EVIDENCE.

No 1.

The following letter is from Mr. Munzo D. Felter, of Kingston, N. Y., a gentleman of high respectability and influence

KINGSTON, Ulster Co., N. Y., Jan. 21, 1843

To Dr A. H. CHRISTIE—

About the first of November last I called at your office and purchased one of your Galvanic Belts and I am happy to say that it has made a new man of me. For years I have been troubled with Rheumatism, very severe, and in a general weakness of the whole system, and very nervous, with pain in the head, so severe that I would have to take to my bed three or four times a day. My friends are astonished at the perfect and wonderful cure wrought on me. I never was better in my life than now, and I know that this is altogether owing to your GALVANIC BELT, for I had had the best physicians, and had tried every thing previous to using it, without effect.

Very respectfully, ALONZO D. FELTER.

☞ In consequence of the benefit experienced by himself, Mr FELTER procured a number of the GALVANIC BELTS, and having disposed of them among his friends, thus writes:

No. 2.

KINGSTON, May 6, 1843.

MR DEAR DOCTOR,

You ask me to give you an account of the success of your GALVANIC BELTS in this region. I can truly say that they continue to do wonders, hundreds wear them, and I do not know of a solitary case of failure in them use. I sold a Belt and the Magnetic Fluid to a lady here some weeks since. She had a complication of nervous diseases, and was very low. Dr. Nelson attended her, but did her no good, and the Doctor blew out confidentially when she got the belt and ridiculed it; but the lady used the Belt and was cured. Now this Doctor had the Dyspepsia for a great while, and could not cure himself, but gets this Doctor's Belt, wishes it kept a secret, puts it on himself, and it did him so much good, that yesterday he called on me and got one for his wife.

No 3.

Miss VANDERMARK of this town, lay all winter with the Rheumatism. She got to be perfectly helpless. Every one who saw her said she could not live. She sent for a GALVANIC BELT—put it on—used the Fluid freely, and in EIGHT DAYS AFTER PUTTING ON THE BELT SHE WAS ABOUT THE STREET. The Doctor who attended Miss V., hooted at the Belt, but now says there is certainly a remarkable curative power in your Belts.

No 4.

Mr. John Ewan, merchant of this place, was reduced to a mere skeleton, by dyspepsia and general chronic disease; he got a belt and the Fluid, and is now as healthy a man as we have got in Kingston. He has spent large sums of money in various nostrums previously, but they all proved useless.

No 5.

An old gentleman by the name of Newkirk, had the Dyspepsia for thirty years. He tells me that he could not eat any thing without suffering on hour's after words, he was very much emaciated and looked miserable; but he purchased a Belt from me, and after wearing it 3 or 4 weeks, he drove up to the door and told he had come to thank me for selling him CHRISTIE'S BELT, as it had made a well man of him. He says that he now eats and digests perfectly, and that he is as hearty as any of his neighbors He is about 60 years of age.

No 6.

Mr. Wood, of Marbletown, was drawn up with Croup and Rheumatism, to that he could not move. His brother got a Belt for him, and in one week he was so well that he was about attending to his business. He says it is the greatest thing on earth.

No. 7.

The wife of Mr Joseph King, of Kingston, has been complaining of lassitude and general weakness for several years, and also troubled with indigestion. She got the Belt and Fluid, and Mr. King told me this day, that his wife was like another woman, it had done her so much good. I could give you a great many more cases, equally successful, but I suppose these will be sufficient. I may say that I never was engaged in any business that has been so fortunate and satisfactory to all concerned.

Very truly yours, ALONZO D. FELTER.

To A. H. CHRISTIE, M. D., New-York.

☞ Many hundred Certificates from all parts of the country of equally extraordinary character could be given

☞ No trouble or inconvenience attends the use of DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC JEWELLES, and they may be worn by the most delicate and delicate with perfect ease and safety. In many cases the sensation attending their use is highly pleasant and agreeable. They can be sent to any part of the country.

THE 'RIGINAL AND GENUINE

HIRSBRIDGE TATTERSALL'S HEAVE POWDERS.

IT HAS CURED, in the last year—
1500 Cases of Heaves,
2000 " " Chronic Cough,
200 " " Broken Wind,
5000 " " Horses out of Condition, and other diseases.

This remedy is put up in large packages, weighing over one pound, sufficient to administer to a horse for about 10 days, and to cure an ordinary case—thus it will be seen that it is the cheapest Heave medicine that can be given, as only one dollar's worth is requisite in most Cases to cure. We know of many who have improved the value of a heavy horse fifty and some one hundred dollars, by one dollars worth of the Tattersall Heave Powders.—Only be sure to get the genuine article, and your money will be amply repaid to you.
More than 500 certificates verbal and written, have been received, attesting to the virtue of this inestimable remedy, but we have only space to subjoin the following:

Read the following:—"This is to certify, that I cured a horse of mine of the Heaves, by one package of Tattersall's Heave Powders. The horse has not the slightest sym
