The news brought by the Hibernia, though not of a very decisive or startling nature, is somewhat important. From England we have the gratifying intelligence that the Navigation bill, or rather the bill to abrogate the existing navigation laws, passed the House of Lords without any material amendment. At any other time this bill would create a profound sensation in this country as it is another conclusive evidence that the old and "obsolete ideas" which have so long restricted trade between one nation and another, are fast falling before the ouward march of truth, but now when the eyes of every friend of republicanism are turned with anxiety to the struggle between King-craft and Democracy which is being settled at the point of the bayonet in other parts of Europe, it will hardly elicit a comment. Its results. however, will be the same. We are gratifyed too to see that the British government repudiates all cognizance or sanction of the recent proceedings of the French Government in their treatment of the Romans. In regard to the Cauadian rebellion loss bill, an animated debate had taken place in Parliament in which Mr. Gladstone and Lord Jo'n Russel participated, but without any decisive action being taken, it was postpon-

The following is a condensed, but very full summary of the news.

The Cholera has again appeared in England, and several cases have occurred in Manchester, and other parts of the country. At Paris the cholera is making the most frightful have—even more so than in 1837. Upwards of 11,000 deaths have already occurred, and in one day, there were about 900 cases and 600 deaths reported.— Marshal Beaugeaud and many other persons of emineuce have fallen to the scourge. It has broken out anew in Silesia, Vienna and Presburg, and is raging most fearfully at Alexandra and Cairo, in Egypt. Rome ATTICKED BY THE FREIGH TROOPS.—From Rome we learn that the French army commenced the attack on the 30th May, and after a sanguinary engagement, in which the Romans lost 800 men, succeeded in carrying reveral important posts. A series of attacks stated, but in which the invading army has suffered most. The French papers publish conflicting reports of the operations of the army, but from accounts received to the 5th inst., it is clear that Gen. Oudinot had not then gained access to the city, though he had gained a posicommand the city. The latest despatch from Gen. Ou-dinot is to the 6th inst, at which time he opened his trenches and had regularily besieged the city.

Several attempts were made to erect barriades. In the evening the Assembly declared itself in permanence, and passed a decree declaring Paris in a stite of stege. On Thursday the alarm had considerably subsided, and business which was chirely suspended the day, previous, was generally resumed.

At one time the peril was imminent, and nothing but to courage and prudence of the President, aided by frames, and sagacta, prevented the most serious conthe courage and princenses of the most serious consequences. Numerous/arrests have taken place, including several members of the Assembly—M. Arago and Ledra Rollin being among them. Proscription! Proscription!!

THE above is at this day by far the most general cry throughout our land. Scarce any one escapes its outum. Even Gen. Taylor, that great and good man, is frequently accused of it. He, however, as often denies the charge as it is made, and boldly asserts that he there for the through it.

Taylor, that great and good man, is frequently accused of it. He, however, as often denies the charge as it is made, and boidly asserts that he "removes for cause only."

The Subscribers have quite recently got out a NEW STOVE on the elevated oven principle, which they call the KEYSTONE COOKING STOVE. End Stove is so decided an inprovement on all and every Stove heretofore made (having so many good qualities others are void of?) that those engaged in the manufacture of a much inferior article have taken the alarm, and at once raise the cry of proscription, and expect by this to escape a general route. Such cry, however is a useless waste of the raw material. The edict has been issued—community claim the right to select the best-stove out! Hence the Rey-tione Stove must sujercede and remove all others, including Sennett's Patent. The verdict, however, e. will be, "Removed for cause only," so we stand in a position is similar to General Taylor, and as he is justified so shall we be.

while—fortunate, happy romainin y—I came to the determination to resume it. Opisider for a moment what your situation would have been had I determined otherwise. One or two stores would have monopolized the business. To accomplish which end, Empire Block, Keystone Block, or some other high sounding name. have monopolized the business. To accompish which end, Empire Block, Krystone Block, or some other high sounding name, would have been flourished about your ears to drak attention, and any and every means resorted to obtain notoriety. This would'ful course have been all perfectly right. All the the thunder, smoke and dust that can be evoked will amount to nothing, as this community are too enlightened to be deceived by such nonsense—they care nothing about names and locations, but resort to the places where rich and fashionable goods are kept and sold at reasonable prices. Whatever may have been the consequences, in pursuance of the above determination, in my, late visu to the cities of New York and Philadelphia. I purchased a very large quantity of the richest and most fashionable Drass Goods in market, including a great variety of the newest styles of Dress Sliks. John D. I started, and was gone from home about four months, but experienced no relief whatever, and was finally advised by some of my flends to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which I commenced using—To my own surprise, and after using two bottles, I was completely restored to health and continued up to this day without any symptoms of the old complaint, or any ischness of any other kind. I send you this that you may make use it as you deen fit, knowing as I do, that the Balsam had saved my life when all other remedies had failed. Mr. Stoan—Dear Sir: One of my horses had a large bony tumor on his breast bone, immediately under the collar, which lamed him and rendered his services of very bittle value. Tainhfully applied several bottles of Dr. Taylor's Nerve and Bone Liniment, without the least benefit. I then procured Wilder's Celebrated Horse Ointment, and used that until I became fully as isfied that it would never relieve the animal. Finally I obtained a box of your truly valuable Ointment, and in less than 00 days from the first application the tumbr entirely disappeared, and the horse was well. Yours, POPULAR OPINION.

These remedicans longer remain among those of doubtful utility, they have passed from the tide of experiment, and now stand higher in reputation and are becoming more extensively used than all other articles of the kind.—Mich. Chy News. THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD.

I applied your Ointinent freely and often, and notwithstanding, the animal could startely bear any weight on the diseased leg, yet in consequence of pressing business. I ventured to start with the horse on my return to Du Buque, a distance of some 100 miles, just at the breaking up of streams, through which I was obliged to ford and expose the leg and wound of the horse to frequent drenchings of water, show and deep mud, still the horse continued to improve.
