THE WHIG CONTINUE TO CALL THE DEMOCRATS "LOCOFOCOS." AND THE PONTIAC EMPIREUM (DEM.) RETURNS THE COMPLIMENT BY CALLING THE WHIGS "DO-GOODERS."
 We disagree in toto with the above suggestion! If Whig editors choose to make blackguards of themselves by calling their opponents nick-names, it is no reason we should follow their bad example. No, no, brethren, our cause and principles need none of the high-sounding and clap-trap of whigery to defend them—Right in themselves, they can be sustained without resorting to our pet. Call them whigs, and if they choose to call us "Locofocos," let them—only shows the weakness of their cause, and the neglect of their education!

THE BEAUTIFUL TALE ON OUR OUTSIDE, ENTITLED "GRACE ATHERTON, OF THE ATTORNEY HOUSE," WILL BE CONCLUDED IN OUR NEXT.
 Some of our readers think it one of the best tales of the day equal, in many respects, to "Dirbin's Best." It is copied, as the reader will see, from that excellent paper, the "Boston Office Branch," in which there is no family paper in the country we take more pleasure in recommending to our friends.

ESTIMATE—ONE CENT REWARD.
 The "Woodstock (Va.) Tenth Legion," says that Mr. Richard Miller, the Post-Master at Edinburgh, in that state, has received his mailing papers, and that his successor cannot be found—no such man being known. O. Fitz Henry, you will have to try again, or offer a reward. Say, for instance one cent, payable in your paper.

CLAYTON'S PORTRAIT OF THE WHIG PARTY.
 John M. Clayton, secretary of state, wrote a letter to the whigs of Delaware, upon general topics, in which occurs the following paragraph:—"The departments at Washington have been crowded by a host of the expectants of office, never before exceeded, not even in the first year of the ascent of Jackson!"

THOMAS R. WARING DIED OF CHOLERA ON THE ROAD NEAR FORT KEARNY, IN JUNE LAST.
 He is said to have been the only son of a widowed mother, now living in Meadville, Pa. His papers and effects are in the hands of Col. Bonnoville, at Fort Kearney.

THE COMMERCIAL HAS MADE A DIRECT ATTACK UPON THE POLITICAL CHARACTER AND INTEGRITY OF MR. TREASURER BALL, and yet to what the ice cream with any "ultra whig" that Mr. Ball's personal and political organ, the Gazette dare not defend him. Who takes the bait?

A PUNK ASSAULT.
 A young man named Jack, of Erie, Pa., has been assaulted in another column. We believe his wound to be a mere abrasion, and that he will soon be back at his old haunts. It can be had at nearly all the stores in this place.

 This branch of art is now in great demand. Drawing and Engraving Laid out by Wm. H. Brown, at No. 104 E. 10th St., Erie, Pa.
