Erie Weekly Observer.

ERIE, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 13, 1849. THE RESULT IN THE STATE. We are yet, Friday noon, uncertain of the exact result in the State, though from the very meagre returns before us we are confident the Keystones is redeemed, and Gamble elected by a handsome majority.

"THE VERDICT OF THE PEOPLE"

The Washington "Union" publishes a table showing the number of members which were elected to the next Congress before, and the number elected since. General Taylor came into power. This table shows that one hundred and thirty-seven members were elected before the 4th of March, of whom eighty-two were whigs, and only fifty-five were democrats.

MUZZLES VS. FALSHOOD.

We have often to be told that he who is most prone to change his opinions moves upon his neighbor, is the most likely himself to be dishonest. The Editor of the Commercial is a notable instance of this. Thus he has from time to time charged this press, and its Editor, with being under the control of certain individuals—
