OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND,

THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER OF THE Genuino Townsand Sarsaparilla.

Genuino Townsand Barsaparilla, Old Dr. Townsend is now about 70 years of arge, and has long been known as the AUTHER and DISCOVERER of the GEN-UINE ORIGINAL "TOWNSEND SARSAPARILLA." Being poor, he was compelled to limit its manufacture, by which means it has been kept out of market, and the sales circumscribed to those only who had proved its worth, and known its value. It had reached the cars of many, nevertheless, as those persons who had been heated of sore diseases, and saved from death, proclaimed its excellence and wonderfol.

is the interior of some diseases, and saved from death, proclaimed its excellence and wonderful. IIEALING POWER. • Knowing, many years aga, that he had, by hisskill, science and experience, devised an article which would be of incalculte ad-vanuage to markind when the tweans would be furnished to bring it into unalversal notice, when its encestimable, virtues would be nown and appreciated. This time has come, the me GRAND AND UNEQUALLED PREPARATION plicit; this GRAND AND UNEQUALLED PREPARATION is manufactured on the largest scale, and is called for throughout the teng'h and hredth of the land, especially as it is found incapa-ble of degeneration or detrioration. Unlike young S. P. Townscud's, it improves with ege, and nev-er changes, but for the bdtter: he caure it is preparel on scientific principles by arctentific man. The highest knowledge of Chenn-istry, and the latest discoveries of the art, have all been brought into requisition in the manufacture of the Oth, have all been brought into requisition in the manufacture of the Oth, have all been brought into requisition in the manufacture of the Oth, have all been brought into requisition in the manufacture of the Oth, have all been, contains many medical properties, and some properties which are mert or necless, and others, which if retained in preparing it for use, pro-duce formeating in market, which is inglutious to the system.-Some of the properties of Karsaparilla are so volatile, that they cutierly evaporate and are-lost in the preparition. if they are not preserved by a scientific process, known only to those experimeded in its manufacture. Moreover, these volatile principles, which By of in vipor, or as an eshaliation, under heat, are net, or preserved by a scientific process, known only to those experienced in its manufacture. Moreover, these volatile principles, which fly off in vapor, or as an exhalation, under lwat, are the very es-sential medical properties of the root, which give to it all its value. Any person can boil of stew the root value for a tack colored liquid, which is more from the coloring matter in the root than from anything else; they can then strarn this insight or sort di-quid, sweeten with sour molasses, and then call it "SARSAPAR-ILLAEXTRACT or SYRUP." But such is not the article known is the ILLA EXTRACTORY HUR, but such is not the article known as the GENUINE OLD DR. JACOR, TOWNSEND'S SARSAPA-RILLA. This is so prepared, that all the inert properties of the Sarsapa-tilla root are first removed, every thing 'gapable of becoming acid or of fermientation', is extracted and rejected; then every parti-cle of undical virtue is secured an a pure and concentrated formu-and thus it is rendered incapable of losing any of its valuable and healing properties.
