contended on the other hand, that the testimony he intended to introduce, was strictly in accordance with the principles of law recognized in a late case in England and reported by Espinasse. He remarked that he thought the counsel for the defence urged their objections against one letter only. That letter was one which the government of the county is the count the counser to the counser to the borough of two runone letter only. That letter was one which the government would prove what any one could see at once, was not written by a pen but by an instrument, which would be produced—alluding to the pen made of a reed and picked up in the laboratory by Littlefield. The Court ruled that the evidence was consistent for introduction bytuled that the evidence was consistent for introduction by-the Government.)

Examination of Gould resumed. From my knowledge of the hand writing of Dr. W. I should think the letter signed "Civis," and dated November 21st, and post signed "Civis," and dated November 21st, and post marked November 30, which is now exhibited, was his. The witness said he did not know that he should be allowed to specify the entire ground which he should take in explaining why he thought the hand writing of the Civis letter was that of Dr. W.

The defence contended that the evidence to be given the contended that the evidence to be given the contended that the court ruled that ruled the rule ruled that ruled the rule ruled that ruled the ruled that ruled

Formerly we used to hear and read of woman's "duty"—and the like of that—but now she has a "mission"—which we suppose is something different and a good doal more respectable. Her duties were always tolerably plain—plain enough for all practicable mirroses, at least, but what her "mission" is, is not quite so transparent. The writers differ among themselves about the matter, and the problem remains a questio rezata. Were it not for a shrewd suspicion that we should be considered an enemy to "female rights," and a very horrible tyrant, we would "very respectfully suggest" (as the diplomatists say)-we would "venture to remark in the most deferential manner" (as Count Chuckson used to observe) that, if women must be missionaries, the department of philanthropic labor entitled "home missions" is the most suitable to their sex, and are in doubt as to what they are to do with themselves for the benefit of the race, "and the rest of mankind." TAIR BANKS BCALDS.

This well-carned reputation of Fairlanks' S-ales has induced the venedres of imperfect and worthless balances to offer them as "Fairbanks' Scales," and purchasers have thereby, in many cases, been subjected to fraud and imposition. The subscribers have no controversy with honorable competitors who transact business in their own names, but regarding the perpetrators of the above fraud as pursuing a course alike unjust and dishonorable, they take this measure to caution the public of their impositions. CONSUMPTION

READ! READ!!

This medicine is just what it is declared to be above. A remedy for the complete care of all those affections of the Throat and Lungs, which is neglected, always and in Consumerrow. It is not a worthless, catherpeany article, under justle self, like many of the common nestrum? of the day, but is a strictly scientife Preparation—the original recipe having been furnished by an eminent Physician. (the late Prof. Rogers,) and that still further improved by one of the present proprietors, who is humself a regularly-caterities on the regent proprietors, who is humself a regularly-caterities in the vegetable kingdom, most of them of long-tried value and established reputation, and some of them; anticip are, particularly the Caserna-cara, a plan of most conderful medicinal virtues, intely introduced into this country from California. The Recipe has been shown to thourned of Physicians, who have universally approved it, and will be shown to any Physician who desires to see it, upon application either to the Proprietors or their Agents. If has been sucd in multitudes of cases, and is strongly recommended by Physicians, even Professors in our Medical Colleges, Ministers of Gopel, Judges, Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics, &c.—a conclusive proof that there is no guarkery or deception about it, but that it is, a medicine of most uncommon vulue and efficacy.

The Dr. A Rogers' Syrup of Liverwork, Tar, and Canchalaour has proved itself to be the most extraordinary medical aid in curing that usually fatal disease Commention. But, it should be remembered, this medicine is as efficacious and valuable in the incident stages, such as Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, &., before the Lunga are so far gone that utceration has taken place. It is relidom, if ever, known to fail in breaking up the most obstinate and distressing Congh or Cold, in a few hours' time, If the directions are strictly followed. From the Medical Reporter.
STRONG TESTIMONY. T"The columns of the Press throughout the country seem to be so failed with notices of cures and specifies for all diseases, "flesh is heir to," that one hardly knows what to do in case of dis-'flesh is heir to,' that enchardly knows what to do in case of dis-ease, for fear that in using one medicine, another and better may be overlooked. But from the remorkable cures, and the high order and vast amount of testimony lately brought under our personal no-tice of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liver-wont, Tar, and Camenatagua, we are compelled to regard the evidence of our senses, and confidently sinte, that for Coughs and Colds, and that hydra-headed monster, Consumption, we think the above preparation a safe, speedy, and certain cure. To all our friends we say, TRY IT; and if it does not help you, nothing class will."

DEATH FROM A SLIGHT COLD!

OF By neglecting those salutary precautions which common sense dictates, many, erry many, fall victims to their prudence. We have seen the young bride blooming like a bird of paradire—the fair of flower hope, the pride of her father, and the joy of her mother—her cheek flushed with anticipation, and her eye beaming with the soft expression of love—the gay dreams of life dancing before her faney, with the rich and variegated sints of the rainbow's hue. We have seen all this changed—aye, the wedding germeni for a skroud, and the bridal chamber for the sepulchre of the dead; and all this by neglecting a "common cold."—Now, before his too late, use Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Livenwort, Tar, and Carnelandau, which gives immediate relief, as thousands of our most intelligent and wealthy families are rendy and willing to testify.
