WASHINGTON, May 16.

In the Senate Mr. Seward presented a petition from citizens of Minesota asking for land for the construction of a canal.

A communication was received from the war department in reply to a call respecting light houses. The committee on foreign affairs in the house have agreed to report in favor of paying the long stunding claims for French spoilation. The report will be prosented at an early moment. Mr. Burt asked leave to report the Senate bill to increase the frontier force from the military committee. He said the frontier difficulties were formidable. Mr. Jones objected. In senate yesterday the debate on the compromise bill was resumed. Mr. Cass moved to lay the subject on the table and proceed to the consideration of the California bill seperately as a test question, which was lost. Mr. Davis of Mississippi, moved an amendment prohibiting legislatures from interfering with slave property. He said his object was to ascertain whether they were disposed to protect slavery. A discussion followed.

Foote opposed it and did not wish the extension of slavery MARKETS.
