STARTLING DE VELOPMENT OF CHIME .- We published yesterday the fact that a well known business man of wealth and standing in Cloveland, had been arrested for theft and committed to jail. The Cleveland Plaindealer has the following article on the subject of these developements of crime.

"The gentleman is Horatio N. Ward, of Ohio City; has hone business in Cleveland, more or less, for fifteen years, is most respectably connected, and to all outward appearance a most worthy member of the church. But as the evidence runs, it has been his habit for many years to visit this city in a one horse buggy, hitch his horse near some warehouse or store, sten in with a kind of business air, knowing that having been formerly a forwarder, dry goods morehant, and otherwise respec-tably connected in business, would be unsuspected; take such occasion to help himself when unobserved, to such articles as he could stow away in his buggy and shed, which was some distance from his house, and in a loft through a trap door which was always kept under lock, he would deposite his theft. There was no access to this garret except through said door which this garret except through said door which was reached by standing in the buggy under it, or by the use of a ladder. It seemed to be entirely in the keeping of Ward himself, his family knowing nothing about it.

REOGHS' BUFFALO

Piano Porte Manufactory,

What led to this discovery was the missing of a trunk from the warehouse of Handy & Harmon, yesterday morning. It was full of goods, and to be forwarded that day to a gentleman in Logan county. Ward was seen about 10 o'clock in the morning, by a grocer over the way, to rido up, hitch his horse as usual, and take from the street side this trunk put it in the buggy, cover it with his buffalo robe and drive off. It was soon missed, and as soon got track of. A search wafrant was put into the hands of Constable McKinistry, the premises of Ward scearched, this secret loft found, and not only this indentical trunk, but several others, found; in fact, a large quantity of miscella neous articles, in all probability stolen, was discovered. The canvas covering the trunk and having on it the directions, was taken off, the lock broke, and the contents apparently overhadled, but not removed. A trunk stolen a few days since from the warehouse of Hubby & Hughes, was also recovered, a case of fine boots. S.c., &c.,

For the first theft, Mr. Ward was arrested and without examination, gave bale, $1000, for his appearance before Esa. Cleveland on Monday next. He was afterwards arrested on the charge of stealing the trunk from Hubby & Hughes, and failing to give the bail required, $1500, was put in jail, where he now romains. Since his arrest, several operations of of this kind, known but to few, bave been brought to light, and for which he has either explained, apologized, or paid, to keep secret.

Sr. Louis, June 4.

FROM SANTA FE .- Letters from Santa Fe to the 14th April, have been received. Several meetings have been held in relation to Major Neighbor's commission to take possession of the Territory in the name of the Texan government. A good deal of bad blood was excited. The BRADDUCE'S EDYSTONE STATE meetings terminated without doing anything.

On the 6th of May, Major Neighbor's arrival at Santa Fe was welcomed by many warm friends, but cooly by the authorites. The 12th was appointed by him to meet the people and show them their rights. On that day, he stated his object in coming, and said he intended on some future day to issue orders of election under the Texan government.

Mr. White lost the entire train of mules and about $3,000 in Merchandize, by an attack of Indians between El Passo and Chihuaha.

Sr. Louis, June 4.

FROM THE PLAINS,-Dr. Carver, who has just returned from the Plains, states that a difficulty had occurred between the advance party of California emigrants and a marauding party of Indians. The depredations had been confined to valleys of the Vermillion river.

On the 12th May, the Indians attacted a small train of Californians, and succeeded in running off with 30 or 40 mules and horses. A young Pottawatamie chief, named Wawasah, proposed to follow and rescue the stock in two days. He came up with a small Party of Pawnees, and askirmish ensued, resulting in a victory of Wawasab. who shot the Pawnee chief. On his person were found four white and nine Indian scalps, apparently recently taken. A number of horses were recovered. The Potfawatamies are said to be constantly annoyed by the Fawnees.
