Another reason is, we have the kest apparatus. The importance of this will be obvious to any one.

We shall not offer those who favor us with their patronage, the flat, insipid, corpse-like things which many who call themselves artists bresent to the public. Neither shall we offer those dark, gloomy images which human lesings are sometimes told resemble themselves; but clear and nesseste Likenesses, possessing the most benatiful hending of light and shade, richness and depth of tone, remarkable distinctness of features, true expression of the eye, botheres of relief, distance and invisibility of back ground, delicacy of finish, softness, transparent and artistic effect.
