It is our deliberate opinion, that long before any adding of the British Government takes place, with Cork, took up a pair of pistols that had been lying defermice to Japan, the question will be settled by he interrention of the Americans.

The very harsh, indeed cruel treatment to which hipwrecked whalers have been recently exposed, shew cast upon the shores of Japan, and the disourtesy with which the American Commodore was treated on a late visit, will be in remembrance of our readers.

It may consist with the feeble policy of the present American Government, to postpone or neglect all MARRYING FOR FUN.—The New Yor reference to this matter, but on the advent of the dent of the Philadelphia Inquirer expr. more democratic party to office, we may certainly look for a vigorous and energetic impulse or action on the foreign relations of that great republic, and married without their knowing it. It is in the nature of things, that wrecks on the shores of Japan, will henceforth be of more frequent corrence, and should the treatment of the survivors be simi ar to that experienced there of late, the chances of a hostile collision between the United States and Japan, will be greatly increased. Republics, it is alleged, are essentially pugna-
