The Family Opposed to Newspapers.

The man that don't take his county paper was in town yesterday. He brought his whole family in a two horse wagon. He still believed that General Taylor was President, and wanted to know if the "Kamschatkians" had taken Cuba, and if so, where they had taken it. He had sold his corn for twenty five cents—the price being thirty one, but upon going to deposite the money, they told him it was mostly counterfeit. The only hard money he had was some three cent pieces, and those some sharper "run on him" for half dimes! His old lady smoked a "cob pipe" and would not believe that any thing else could be used. One of the boys went to a blacksmith's shop to be measured for a pair of shoes, and another mistook the market house for a church. After hanging his hat on a meat hook, he piously took a seat on a butcher's stall, and listened to an auctioneer, whom he took to be the preacher. He left before "meetin' was out," and had no great opinion of the "sarmint."

One of the girls took a lot of "seed onions" to the post office to trade them for a letter. She had a baby, which she carried in a "sugar trough," stopping at times to rock it on the side walk—When it cried, she stuffed its mouth with an old stocking, and sang "Barbara Allen." The oldest boy had sold two "coon skins" and was on a "bust" When last seen, he had called for a glass of "sody and water," and stood soaking gingerbread and making wry faces. The shopkeeper, mistaking his meaning, had given him a mixture of sal soda and water, and it tasted strongly of soap. But "he'd hearn tell of sody and water, and was bound to give it a fair trial, puke or no puke!" Some "town fellow" came in and called for lemonade with a "fly in it," whereupon our "soaped" friend, turned his back and quietly wiped several flies into his drink.

We approached the old gentleman and tried to get him to "subscribe," but he would not listen to it. He was opposed to "internal improvements," and he thought "larnin' was a wicked invention, and culterwated nothin' but vanity and vexation." None of his family ever learned to read, but one boy, and he "teached school awhile, and then went to studying diwinity."

Have a Trade.

By all means have a trade. Don't go up and down in the world, and find nothing to put your hands to. No matter if you don't have to work for a living; you may not always be as prosperous as you are now. This is a mutilating planet; the man that is up to day, may be down to-morrow. Thank Heaven, we live in no land of primogeniture, hereditary succession. Each man is morally bound to labor. Have a trade, we repeat—educate your hands; have something you can turn your energies to, when times pinch. It will be an everlasting resource. We never knew a man, with a good trade, who could not get a good living, and much more, with a right application. What though you are going to college, or into a profession? The case is not altered—you need just as much—it will come in play every day in your life—it is so much better. Discipline of the hand should always go with that of the head. We never knew a college boy who was not better with a substantial trade—he always graduates with the highest honors—he is sure to be a scholar. The fact is, he knows how to work—to pore—to conquer—he but transfers himself from the shop to the study. Young men, decide at once to learn a trade. Apply yourself with all your mind and heart, and be its master. And when you graduate and ask your diploma, if you do not want, or are not obliged to work at it you have laid by so much, and such kind of wealth can never be lost—never taken from you.

GOOD ADVICE NOT THROWS AWAY.—Two friends, rather famous for their convivial qualities, accidentally meeting one day, the following conversation took place between them—"Bill you ought to cut your excessive acquaintaces, and save your money." "I must, I will," was the answer, "I have been a free horse long enough." Several days transpired, during which Bill omitted his calls upon Jack, and when by chance he happened to meet him, he set his nose straight ahead, without a recognition or a blink. Upon this, Jack, one day, hailed Bill with, "Hallo Bill!—what ails you that you don't speak to me?" "Oh, nothing," replied Bill, "I was only following your advice."—Lowell Advertiser.

THE HEIGHT OF IMPUDENCE.—A young spark who boarded at one of our principal hotels managed, for a long time, by one artifice or another, to postpone the payment of his bill. At last the landlord became quite impatient, and, stepping up to his juvenile boarder slapped him gently on the shoulder, and asked him for some money. "I have not a red cent about me at present," was the laconic reply. "But, my dear sir," said the landlord, "I cannot afford to keep a boarding house without being paid." "Well, d——n it," exclaimed our young philosopher, "if you cannot afford it, sell out to some one that can!"—San Francisco Public Balance.

OF WILD HERRY.

The Original and Genuine Preparation!

CONSUMPTION, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Spitting Blood, difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the side and Breast, Palpitation of the Heart, Influenza, Croup, Broken Constitution, Sore Throat, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the Throat, Breast and Lungs; the most effectual and speedy cure known for any of the above diseases

COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY!

Another Home Certificate—Great cure of ESEKIEL THOMAS.

Dr. H. Swayne—Dear Sir:—Being for a length of time afflicted with a very violent cough, with pain in the side and breast, soreness of lungs, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, night sweats, &c., I made trial of various remedies which were recommended highly in the papers, but obtain ill'y grew worse. The violence of my cough was such that the blood rushed profusely from my nostrils when the paroxysm came upon me; indeed, my whole system seemed prostrated; and the hour of my departure seemed near at hand. At this time you recommended the use of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which immediately began to soothe, comfort, and allay the violence of my cough, relieved the pain in my side, strengthened and healed my lungs, &c. I continued the use of it, but now, thanks to God, and to the effect of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, I am cured, and able to pursue my daily labor. I think it an invaluable medicine in coughs, colds, and diseases of the lungs, and one that should be known to all afflicted. If persons would purchase the original and genuine article, as prepared by you, and not tamper with the many spurious and worthless preparations which are attempted to be palmed off on the republican of ours, it might be the means of saving many valuable lives. I freely offer this statement for the benefit of those who are suffering as I was

EZEKIEL THOMAS,

VERY IMPORTANT CAUTION.

Be very particular to enquire for Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, as some unprincipled individuals have stolen the name of Wild Cherry, thinking to borrow a reputation from that already established. Remember the genuine is put up in square bottles, covered with a beautiful wrapper, steel engraving, with the portrait of Dr. Swayne thereon, also his signature; all others are positively fictitious and counterfeit.

Swayne's Celebrated Vermifuge.

A safe and effectual remedy for worms, dyspepsia, Cholera Morbus, sick's or dyspeptic children or adults, and the most useful Family Medicine ever offered to the public.

This remedy is one which has proved successful for a long time, and is universally acknowledged by all who have tried it, to be far superior (being so very pleasant to the taste at the same time effectual) to any other medicine ever employed in diseases for which it is recommended. It not only destroys worms, but it invigorates the whole system.

Letter to Dr. Swayne from Andersontown In.

Dear Sir:—A man purchased a bottle of your Vermifuge, the other day, for his child, and by its use discharged 61 of the largest worms he had ever seen. It is somewhat difficult to get the people to try it, as they have often been so gulled by tasteless worm medicines. Yours being so very pleasant to the taste, at the same time effectual, I shall be able to dispose of a large quantity. Yours, T. T. SHARP. P. M.

KEYSTONE MUTUAL

Life & Health Insurance Co. of Harrisburg, Pa.

THIS Company continues to insure lives on more favorable terms than any other company in the State, and as an evidence of the utility of such institutions, and the promptness of this company in paying losses when they occur, they respectfully refer to the following letter of Mrs. Schoyer.

Practical Examples, Showing the Advantages to be Derived from Life Insurance.

Mr Solomon Schoyer, a highly respectable commission merchant of Pittsburg, effected an insurance of $5,000 on his life with the Keystone Mutual Life Insurance Company of Harrisburg, on the 17th of July 1850. He received his policy, and paid his premium on the 20th of July 1850, and died in a fit of Nightmare on the 22d day of July, but two days after he received his policy. He had enjoyed uninterrupted good health all his life up to the very moment of his death. This widow, Penelope Schoyer, received from this company within 30 days after his death, $5,000 as will be seen by her letter of acknowledgement below.

To the President and Directors of the Keystone Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Harrisburg, Pa

GENTLEMEN—The prompt manner in which your efficient agent, Mr. Henry Sibold, attended to the claim of myself and family for an insurance upon the life of my late married husband, S. Schoyer, and the promptness with which the Company paid that claimed $5,000, impels me to take this method of returning to the company my thanks, believing as I do that your company possesses advantages for the insurance of the lives of most of the community now in the country, and that the Business is conducted by judicious and careful managers and agents I would cheerfully recommend your Company to all who may wish to avail themselves of so important an operation. PENELOPE SCHOYER.

Pittsburg, Nov. 22, 1850.

Still another, showing the wise forethought of a Clergyman.

Rev. T. Mackey Rogers, pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Mount Joy, Lancaster County, Pa., took out a policy of Insurance in this company in June, 1850, for $400. He died of Dysentery fever on the 8th of Nov 1850; but by his provident care and forethought left to his bereaved family his Policy of $800, which had cost him but $22

For particulars, and forms of insurance, call on the company's agents, or call on the Secretary at his office, No 20, Market st. Harrisburg, or S. Merwin Smith, Agent for Erie County, Office 3 doors west of Laird & Rust's Store.

DR. LUTHER REILY, President.

ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION

With the aid of medical science, affordingas they do, ample proof of the power and value of many medical agents, have furnished no examples to compare with the salutary effects produced by "AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."

The remarkable cures of diseases of the Lungs which have been realized by its use, attested as they are by many prominent professors and physicians in this and foreign lands, should encourage the afflicted to persevere with the strong assurance that the use of the "CHERRY PECTORAL" will relieve and ultimately cure them.

We present to the public unsolicited testimonials from some of the first men in our country, upon whose judgment and experience implicit confidence may be placed.

DR. PERKINS, President Vermont Medical College, one of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, considers it a "composition of rare excellence for the cure of that formidable disease, Consumption."

NORWICH, April 26, 1846.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Dear Sir:—Agreeable to the request of your agent, we will cheerfully state what we have known of the effects of your CHERRY PECTORAL, and they have been astonishing indeed. Mrs. Betsey Streeter had been afflicted with a severe and relentless cough, which reduced her very low; so low that little hope could be entertained of her recovery. Numerous remedies had been tried without effect, before the CHERRY PECTORAL. And that has cured her. George Watkinson, Esq., had to our knowledge been afflicted with Asthma, for seven years, and grew gradually worse, until the CHERRY PECTORAL has now restored the disease and he is as free from any of its symptoms as we are. The Rev. Mark Dane had been so severely attacked with the Bronchitis, as to disable him from his duties, and nothing had afforded him relief until I. Mr. Thorning, carried him a bottle of your PECTORAL, which cured him at once, and he now officiates as usual in his place.

These are three of the cases we have known it successful, but never to fail. We have got it pleasure in certifying to these facts, and are, respected sir, your humble servants.

REV. DAVID THORNING,
HON. JOSEPH BATTLES.

The public have but to know the virtues and astonishing success of the "CHERRY PECTORAL," in curing diseases of the Lungs, when they will feel secure from the dangers, whenever this remedy can be obtained.
