

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS. FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM BIGLER, OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, SETH CLOVER, OF CLARION COUNTY.

For Justices of the Supreme Bench, JEREMIAH S. BLACK, of Somerset. JAMES CAMPBELL, of Philadelphia. ELMAS LEWIS, of Lancaster. JOHN B. GIBSON, of Cumberland. WALTER H. LOWRIE, of Allegheny.

For President Judge, HON. JOHN GALBRAITH, of Erie.

THE PRESIDENT JUDGESHIP.

John Galbraith's legal ability Endorsed by the Whig members of the Bar of Erie, Crawford and Warren.

What Next? We learn by letter from Warren county that the Whigs are reporting, and urging it as an objection to Mr. Galbraith, that he is over seventy years old!

Tricks of the Enemy. False reports are always the resort of a desperate faction.

On Tuesday next it will again be your privilege to participate in choosing a Governor and Canal Commissioner, and for the first time to select your own Judiciary.

In regard to President Judge, as it is not a political office, and in no event, let who will be elected, can be claimed as a political victory.

Let it be Remembered. Let it be remembered that a "beacon" friend of JOHN BARRETT, the "Slaughter-house" candidate for President Judge, has been busy buying up copies of a pamphlet upon Universalism.

Let the People Remember. That John Strohm, the whig candidate for Canal Commissioner, was a member of Congress during the war with Mexico.

Col. Paxton, of Columbia. All our readers who attended the Sanitary and Erie Railroad meeting at the Court House in this city, and who recollect the President of that road made a speech, recollect the gentleman whose name heads this article, and his energetic speech on that occasion.

What the h— is the loofee party composed of any how? Why, I'll tell you. It is composed of the off-scourings of Ireland and Germany and swarms of his kind.

Trouble in the Wigwam.

The trouble in the Wigwam of Whigery increases day by day. Scarcely an hour passes that some new deflection of the hitherto faithful is not reported at the head quarters of the "junta."

Has Gov. Johnston Reduced the State Debt? We find the following specious paragraph in the last Gazette, and publish it for the purpose of putting a quietus on the pretended claim of Johnston that the State debt has been reduced under his administration.

The following figures, copied from the Auditor General's report, prove what we have stated: Amount paid in 1846, was $1,964,633 77.

Look at the Contract.

The whig prospect the Hon. JOHN GALBRAITH is reported for the Bench because he is engaged in building Rail and plank roads.

The Gurnach Letter. The Gazette does not like the letter of Rev. Mr. Gurnach, (given in our paper two weeks ago) who, by the way, is a worthy and respected member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

A friend in Kentucky—a whig dried in the wood—wrote us to send him our paper on condition he pays for it when bigger is elected Governor.

It is stated that Col. Jefferson Davis stands pledged to resign his seat in the U. S. Senate, if his peculiar views are not sustained in the approaching Mississippi election.
