Again, I consider the appointment of another committee of one to "address the Society in regard to maisimony as an institution, showing by every possible argument in direct, evil influence upon the human race, even before the race began," as simply ridiculous; especially when each one is known to spend at least half his time before a mirror, thus having for that length of time certainly, the strongest and meet conclusive argument that could possibly be adduced of the "direct evil influence of matrimony upon the human race," before their eyes. "On motion, the Treasurer drew from the funds of the Society and paid the bill."

This, I have no doubt, will be good news to wash-women, and shirt-makers, as it is some evidence that some of their "bille" kose šeen paid.

A fire broke out here this afternoon, on the corner of Commercial and Water streets, which consumed the entire block, except the buildings occupied by Montenth and Bomen & Brothers. The loss of the buildings was not great, but the loss of goods in store cousiderable. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 -9, A. M.

THE CAPITOL IN PLANES: The Library already destroyed! The fire was discovered about day-light, and had then made good headway. The weather is very cold, and water being scarce, the engines can do nothing. The backet are the only thing. thrt can be used to suppress the fiames.

The Speaker of the House, and many of the members, are on hand, and are in hopes of being able to confine the fire to the Library, WASHINGTON, 12 o'clock.

The fire in the Capitol is subjued—the Library with the document room above are completely burnt out and fully three-fourthe of the library is consumed, including the most valuable portion of the same. Blany of the books are rare works and can never be replaced.

No serious damage has been done to any other part of the Capitol except by water. The fire was discovered about searies by the watch man and some time elapsed before the general alarm was given. The watchman endeavored for one or two hours to extinguish the firmes but without success .-The engines were delayed, having been engaged during the latter part of the night at another fire which destroyed Barker's Hotel, in the rear of the Inteligencer office and Branklin Ing, corner of 8th and Der streets. The fiames at the Capitol would have been subdued at a much earlier period, but the intense cold weather made the hose nearly useless, by freezing them. The fire is supposed to have caught from the flues connected with the furnaces, in the basement of the Cap-

Tranquility had been pretty generally restored in Paris on the evening of Friday the 5th; and by the following day, the uptorn pavements and the shattered walls and houses were all that remained of the i nearrection.

The Departments of Saone, Serre, and Aleins had been placed in a state of siege, but the disturbances which induced the act were insignificant. With scarcely an exception; the troops were triumphant,

The Tangier matter had been amicably arranged, and the town thus escaped bomberdment byfthe French. In his new Proclamation, the President invites the people to vote freely, and declares that if the majority should be against him, he will resign. This machine is destined to work miracles and cause a great revolution in the clothing business. This machine is the most important and useful mixention of the age. It has been used a sufficient length of time to be thoroughly tested upon a great variety of work, and in all cases is fully approved. It executes in the most perfect and satisfactory manner, the work of the following occupations, viz.—
Tailors, boot, shoc and guiter manufecturers, harness and saddle makers, whit makers, Corset makers, crocking trimmers, cap makers and hat bluders, dress makers, rocking turneriners, and makers and hat bluders, dress makers, rocking turneriners, and makers and makers.
