A great freshet has occurred at Harper's Ferry, Va.-Two bridger, one over the Shonandosh, have been swept away. The water was higher than ever before known. Immense destruction of property is apprehended.

The Baltimere whig Convention met to-night. The chairman appounced a letter to the convention from the and depricated every action on the part of the convention ia opposition to his nomination.

A letter was received with considerable ridicule, and a motion was made to return it to its author, which was carried. A series of resolutions were then proposed, pledging the support of the whige of Baltimore to the tertained at Washington, of an insurrection among the whig nomines for President, but recommending in strong slaves. terms the nomination of Gen. SECOND DISPLACE -The Cancus have fixed upon Baltimore as the place, and the 17th of June as the time. for helding the Whig National Convention.

An excited discussion has been going on. THIRD DISPATCH .- Mr. Marshall, of Ky., offering the riginal whig Caucus resolutions.

Mr. Stanly objected to them as out of order. The Chairman sustained the objection. After a discussion principally by Mesars. Marshall and Stanly, the decision of the Chair was enstained; year 46

Campbell, Sackett, Schoolcraft and others. Pirranung, Tuesday April 29. On Saturday last the waters of the Monogahela and Allegheny commenced rising at Brownsville. Yesterday morning the rise was at the appalling rate of two fee per hour. At Pittsburg, last night, at 10 b'clock, the water commenced rising at the rate of seven inches an hour, increasing during the night with unexampled rapidity. This morning the pier-marks of Monengahela Bridge were covered-the river having risen thirty feet and still

It has ARRIVED AND ON THE WAY!! been raining since Friday night almost incessantly, and it continues to swell the torrest. Namerous rais have been destroyed, and the piers of Allegheny bridge have been seriously broken by the crashing timber.

A number of men were seen floating down on parts of rafts, and doubtless many lives have been lost.

A raft without sweeps struck against the Mechanic street bridge, and was shattered in pieces. All on board perished, in sight of thousands who lined the shores, unable, however, to render assistance. A man on a fragment of log raft managed to escape the two upper bridges but struck St. Clair, where he managed to jump on the pier and was rescued.

The lower part of Alleghenv City is inundated, and amilies are removing their furnature, &c., in boats. In this city the dwellings along the effects near the river are also submerged. At the foot of Wood-street and Water, the cellars are filing, and merchants are remoring their goods to the upper steries. The rivers below pre everflowing, and great devantation must inevitably occur. The Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad near Beaver has muk one foot, and the road has been otherwise damaged, The travel on the road must be stopped for a time.

Second Disputch .- The river has been reseding here since 5 o'clock this morning. It had reached within three feet of the flood of 1832. The damage to property cannot yet be estimated, but must exceed $400,000. In the low grounds of Allegheny City, comprising the First and Feurth Wards, not less than 1,500 families were turned out of their houses or driven into the upper steries. Along Rebecca-street the water ran in terrents.

IF The ease with which a railroad excitement is get up in this city, and the intensity with which it rages when up, reminds us forcibly of the well known complet on Poter Pringle's wig:

"When it lived, it lived in clover, When it died, it died all over !"

D' It has been observed by a "clebrated Roman consul" that there is no necessity of a Theatre in this city. Whenever the public desire to see a farce or a tragedy. all that is necessary is to scare the old ladies that congregate around the Gazette office, and forthwith a railroad meeting is called, and the play commences.

The Guzette tells us that Mr. Cas-, Mayor of Cleveland, is at Harrisburg, boring for the passage of the supplement to the Sunbary road. As the Mayor of Cleveland's name is BROWSELL, we think the Editor of the Gazette must be a "hard case" himself to propagate such at ories.
