WASHINGTON, June, 29. 3D. DESPATCE.

Although Mr. Clay's death has been almost momentarily expected for some time past, yet those in attendance did not even this morning anticipate that the sad event was somear. . His son who has been with him for some time, has been deeply affected. Hundreds have, slready applied to take their last look upon the world-renowned man. Despatches have been received from Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Circinnati and Louisville, which state that the announcement of Mr. Clay's death had been received with every manifestation of sorrow. At Louisville a Mooting was delled, and a Delegation thosen to leave immediately for Washington. Secretary Graham, in accepting his nomination, sent in his resignation as Secretary of the Navy. He will remain in the Cabinet a few days, and then return to North Carolina. The nomination of the Pittsburgh Free Soil Convenlion will be affered first to John P. Hale, and should he refuse, it will then be tendered to S. P. Chase, of Ohio. Some correspondence has been had with Robert Rautoul with regard to the nomination, but he is said to be in doubt yet as to what course to parage. Cassins M. Clay - will be the Vice President,
