☞ THE FIRE SPREADING.—We are pleased to record the fact that all the old Democrats, who went off from the party on the wild Buffalo chase of 1848, are wheeling into line for PIERCE and KING in beautiful order and force. Never was a party so thoroughly united as ours is now—never such a cordial determination evinced to defeat our opponents, and restore the government into the hands of the party that has stood by the country in peace and war—that has by its policy, added State after State, till the original thirteen has increased to thirty-one, and belted the entire continent with a belt of commerce from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

☞ THAT'S SO!—The N. Y. Mirror, (whig) in noticing the letters of the Democratic nominees, accepting their nomination says, "they are both open, manly expressions, every way worthy the chosen leaders of a powerful and intelligent party. The writers of such letters have yet to be beaten by other weapons than lies and vulgarity."

☞ In 1840 the Whigs went through the campaign with the emblem of 'Coon. They have now discarded the 'Coon, and in place put a Soup Bowl. What an improvement!

☞ WANTED—Wanted 500 subscribers—Whig in principle—Observer, payable when Pierce is elected—to whom we will give, gentlemen, and help break up.

☞ THE Cincinnati Enquirer is some of the "pepper" used in the Buckeye State "thick plate of soup" Scott set down to: "The Buffalo Bee still keeps at the head of its editorial column 'For President Daniel Webster.'" It also says a Pierce club is forming in that city composed of 250 Whigs—men. The Trenton (N. J.) True Democrat says: We are informed that there is a "Pierce Club" in Newark, composed of about 250 original whigs.

☞ Carlton & Phillips, No. 290 Mulberry street, New York, are about to issue "The National Magazine, devoted to Literature! Art, Religion, and General Intelligence." It will appear monthly, at $2 a year, or six copies for $10.

☞ A Whig editor out in Illinois is excusing Greeley of the Tribune for declaring that he scorned the whig platform—he would spit upon it! He says Greeley dont use tobacco, lives on Graham bread, never eats meat, and can, therefore, safely spit wherever he pleases, without violating the decency party.

☞ AN OMEN.—The large transparency in front of the Rockport House, New York, a full length portrait of Gen. Scott, took fire on the Fourth of July, and was entirely consumed. The N. Y. Times says, it was found necessary to take it down in order to preserve the buildings, which is occupied as the Head Quarters of the whig party, from total destruction.

THEY GIVE IT UP!—A Cincinnati correspondent of the Urbana Citizen, (Ohio) a whig paper of the ultra stripe, writes as follows, which is but a slight indication of the depressed spirit of Whiggery:

"The whigs might just as well give up, for it will be no use to run in '44—we'll be be like the Mexicans under Gen. Scott is semi in a chapparel fight, but there is certain inequality in the political field that will permit artillery or dragoons to manœuver at all to advantage. He will have to depend entirely on the rank and file. He can't even carry Ohio, as Clay did, for now '44 Old Nick has bought up the State, 'from the center of the earth even to the Heavens,' and given it to the Democratic party. I tell you it's no use kicking against the pricks, or knocking at the door of the White House, to none but good looking people can get in."

☞ The Buffalo Rough Notes calls for a cargo of fanning mills. Cannot somebody relieve the dear man.—Observer.

Just so—relieve him by all means; he wants to raise a wind for Scott and Graham!

☞ Hon John Henderson, formerly a Whig Senator in Mississippi, is now a zealous supporter of Pierce and King.

☞ On Saturday week, Gen. Toombs made a speech in Congress, in which he took strong ground against Gen. Scott.

☞ The Buffalo Courier states that the whigs of that city are betting that Scott will not carry New York, Ohio or Pennsylvania.

☞ DON'T COMPLAIN.—Don't complain, gentlemen; our paper must be political all over from this time until Pierce is elected in November. It can't be helped, and we would'nt help it if we could. We have enlisted for the campaign, and we intend to go through with it.

☞ Com. Charles Stewart has presented to the young democracy of Bordentown, New Jersey, a noble hickory tree, eighty feet high, which was raised on Wednesday last "Old Ironsides" thus manifests the interest he takes in the action of Pierce and King.

☞ William S. Parkem, Esq., one of the whig Electors in Louisiana, declines to serve in that capacity, as he has determined not to support Gen. Scott. Louisiana is going for Scott, is it?

☞ One of our exchanges indulges in the following extravagant burst of "political fire" upon the "manifesto" of the Southern Whigs:

"Rock from the 'Toombs' a doleful sound;
Attend the cry;
Gallagher, Brooke and White,
Are shortly die.
Mason, Gentry, Williams,
Are the ones,
Who
THE EAGLE.—The following extract from a letter of the proprietor of Cherry Pectoral, will be read with interest:

"I have received your letter of affectionate love; with the present of choice Eseuce in Bottles, by which your excellent skill teaches to cure the affections of my children.

As the life of one of my people is more dear to me than camels and gold, we shall pray for you in our heart when they are raised up from the tent of sorrow by this product of your deep learning and beautiful wisdom.

For this Gift of Love to your friend, so distant over many Seas, and for this rare invention of your skill, may you be placed in such seats of honor and dignity among the great in knowledge, as we should offer to you in our dominions.

Given in this Central City of our Power, by express command of
NESCHID EL HASSAN PASHA,

A BOOK FOR EVERY FARMER!

STEPHEN'S BOOK OF THE FARM.

THIS is a substantial and beautifully bound volume, embossed morocco, full gilt back, marble edge, containing 1088 pages, with 450 illustrations, 10 steel and numerous tinted plates.

Here what the press says of it:

"The Book of the Farm is a work which needs no encomiums. The author is one of the most sound and practical Agricultural writers of the day."—Albany Cultivator.

"It is a standard book without which no farmers library can be complete. It is a complete guide to the farmer, plowman, cattleman, sheep-farmer, field worker, and dairying.—Scientific American.

"We regard this volume as one of the most important which can be laid before the Farmers of the United States, and we rejoice to see such a large mass of practical knowledge, exceeding a thousand octavo pages, offered at so low a price."—Book Trade.

"The price is but $4. We cannot understand how it could be published, beautifully printed, with 450 well executed engravings, and firmly bound as it is, for less than $10."—Journal of Agriculture.

"A more valuable publication than this has never been given to the world. We hazzard nothing in stating that this book, if read and profited by, as it should be, will repay for itself in solid cash, a hundred times over."—Courier & Enquirer.

"This is really one of the best books for a farmer to possess."—Cleveland Herald.

"The high character of the author should at once commend it to the public favor. It is handsomely printed, abounds in valuable and well executed illustrations, and can be purchased on the most reasonable terms."—Pa. Farm Journal.

The above valuable work can be had, wholesale or retail, at the Cheap Book Store, No. 9, Brown's Hotel State st.

Erie, July 17 1852. DURLIN & SLOAN.

☞ N. B. Agents wanted to sell this and other valuable works, to whom a most liberal percentage will be allowed.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—This celebrated medicine is one of the very best in the country, and its good qualities only need to be known, to give it precedence over all others now in use. We have seen its good effects lately, after the total failure of many others. This is saying more than we can for any other medicine within our knowledge, and we feel it a duty to recommend the Bitters to the notice of our friends. The genuine is prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. 2m1

This way my friend, step in and view
Our ample stock, all fresh and new;
Just manufactured for your use,
By skilful hands that ply the Goose.
They are cut by him you are well aware,
That he can fit you just to a hair,
And make ev ery part look just so, so,
From neck to breast, from knee to toe.
Remember friend we sell as low
As any store in town can do,
And always try to please the taste
Of the most fastidious.
At Reed House Row, No. 8;
We are always pleased our friends to meet;
'Tis JUSTICE'S famous Clothing store,
Enough is said, you need no more. 6

ERIE DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

Park Row, a few doors West of the REED HOUSE.

SHERMAN is happy to invite all who wish DAGUERREOTYPE LIKENESSES, to a specimen of his particular what kind of pictures they have, to his new Rooms which have been built expressly for the Art. LIGHT is the great agent of the Artist, and it has been the constant study of all worthy of the name since the Art was discovered, to employ and control it in the manner best adapted to produce the most favorable results. The result of this study and of thousands of experiments is that there is not a respectable permanent Gallery in the U. States where the pictures are made by a northern window; and he who says he can produce superior pictures by such a window proves his ignorance of the Art. The subscriber therefore begs leave to say that by his superior LIGHT, and with an apparatus worth six times any other in this city, he is enabled to produce pictures which cannot be equelled in this part of the country, and offers to execute any thing which can be produced in other rooms, and in a far more fashionable manner. He has also a splendid Quick Working Camera with which he takes children of any age. Let it be distinctly understood his pictures will not fade if properly kept.

N. B.—The "recent improvements" may be seen at the above rooms. W. H SHERMAN
