A Word about the "General."

The Detroit Free Press very pertinently remarks that some of the papers suggest that General Harrison ran in 1840 with Gen. DeWitt.

EDITORIAL REVIEWS.

Mr. Bloomer has appeared in the streets of New Orleans this season. We thought the race was quiet.

The wheat harvest is coming in fine in this part of the country. The yield is good, the grain unusually plump...

Mr. Scott may be very enthusiastic in this regard, but they must confine it all to themselves—it is not exhibited in the usual way.

Mr. Wadsworth—Somebody to sign a Scott song. A "light singer" would be preferred. For further particulars enquire of the "market horse clique."

The Commercial doesn't like the word "Frisco." It is a "bibbition and a name."

The charge for transporting the remains of Mr. Clay on the steamer from New York to Albany, including refreshments of committee, were $3,347.

Mr. Stanton, the progressive woman of Western New York, deposes an American to be "a machine that squires tobacco juice for three more years and ten."

The Louisiana Constitutional Convention have rejected a proposition prohibiting the introduction of slaves into that State, from other States, as merchandise.

A New York paper says everything in this country is (rice) except cigars and editors. The remark thought, is true in the main.

Mr. What's in the West?—That story of Pierce being a drunkard, started by the New York Tribune, has died out.

Editors are making in Alabama to establish a ship canal over the Florida peninsula, from the Atlantic to the Gulf of Mexico.

It is the advantage of being fat. Fat men swim more easily than spare men, because fat is lighter than water; the latter man the more buoyant he is.

How are the MONEY FALLS?—All the decency party have thrown off their starched collars and now answer to the cognomen of "soup boys."

It is said that Senator Bell agrees with Parson Brownlow, that Scott will be beat in Tennessee by about 10,000 majority.

More Revis.—An extensive malleable iron foundry is about to be established in Worcester, Mass., by White, Chapman & Co., giving employment to from 55 to 100 hands.

The New York Day Book asserts that there are so many Whigs seeking admission at "Tammany" that it is seriously contemplated to enlarge the old headquarters of the Democracy.

The Cleveland True Democrat says that E. C. K. Garvey, Esq. of Elvira, Ohio, formerly a Whig has come out as clear as the "glare of noon-day" for Pierce and King.

The Halifax British American says there is no doubt whatever, that gold, real variable gold, has been discovered in Nova Scotia, in large quantities and of great purity.

Pennsylvania.

The course of a portion of the people of this State, with regard to lines of Railroads which pass through Northern borders, seems to be at once selfish and indefensible.
