Democrats Stand Firm.

Fellow Democrats of the Keystone State, the eyes a be whole Union are upon you. Your vote on Tuesday " have an important bearing upon the November denet, not only in your own State, bet in New York, Ohie, other contested States. It has been said that Ponacivania is the most doubtful State in the Union, in this mitest-in a measure, that is so; but it is only so because tis desbifal whether, upon such an unimportant issue as that of Tuesday's, a full vote can be get out. The whige understand this, and as their ontire strongth in the State confined to a few closely settled localities, they are making superhuman efforts to rally their ontire force .--We can meet and defeat them, however, if we do our daty! That duty is plain-get out the vote! A full vote a Democratic victory! Will you not, then, or Tuesday sext harness up your horses, gather up your neighbers and go to the election? A few hears spent this way is Teceday will settle the contest-will remove the doubt pat havgs over the Keystone! There are hundreds of Democratic votes in Erie county that are never polled. which with a little attention may now be made to count is the grand result. We say again attend to them at sace, and a victory is certain!

The Meeting at Wattsburg.

The Democracy had a most enthusiastic rally at Watiabarg on Tuesday. A most splendid Hickory pole was rused on Monday, from the top of which streams out the names of Pierce and King. The meeting on Tuesday ess organized by calling Eli Duncombe, Esq., to the chair, with a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretartes Quite an array of Ludies were upon the ground. centributing by their presance and their smiles of approbattos, to the interests of the occasion. If our friend Bibbit had been at Watteburg, we rather think he would have withdrawn his boast, that all the prosty women are Whigs, for cortainly the evidence on Tuesday was directty to the contrary. The speaking was commonsed by J.F. Dancombe, Esq. a young Democrat of that viciniw in one of the most eloquent and masterly vindrestions of Gen. Pierco's services in Mexico we ever heard. He was followed by Murray Whallon and M. B. Lowry. E.grs, in their usual animated and imprensive manner: after which the growd gave three cheers for Pierce and King, and adjourned to meet at the polls on Tuesday.

Whig Enthusiasm in Springfield.

MR EDITOR: -- On account of the great flourish about . Whis meeting at this place on Saturday last, it was supposed a perfect avalanche of Whigs were coming down upon us "at 1 o'clock P. M." when and where a rally of the "Scotte" was to take place from Erie to Connesst. Expectations never ran so high before, nor were the whige of our village ever before so industrious. They had been off to the woods and had cut an ash pole, which was got on the ground out back where they thought best to raise it, then a remnant of cotton cloth was spoiled for better use by having the motte of the whig party "Scott". (who was nover conquered except at Queenston) and "Graham" marked on it.

About 2 o'clock, P. M., near a dozen whige gathered about the tavern and anxiously looked up and down the road to see if the rest were coming. Time wore on, a few more tame and among them Mr. Kelso, their speaker, who a few years since ... bloled" the regular whig t.cket because they skiped his name in making the nommations, and went in for Carson Graham, a lo-co-fo-co! and in his company came Mr. Gara, of the Gazette, to the notes probably of the eloquent address and the enthuses with which the "Perley schigs" would receive it. At 1 at about twenty persons gathered about the pole. shen, without a cheer or hurrah it was laboriously raised, and) not a cheer greated it after its elevation! Then mourafully standing around, the friends looked the place.

the desired effect-they gathered in, and being anxious to know how things stood with them. I took a seat early and counted the entire crowd, counisting of some sixtyseres persons, composed of five Democrats, some fileen
