

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT. GEN. FRANKLIN PIERCE, OF NEW HAMPSHIRE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT. WILLIAM R. KING, OF ALABAMA.

Democratic Electoral Ticket for Pennsylvania.

Table listing names of Democratic candidates for Pennsylvania, including Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and various judges.

Ingrated Young Hickory Club. A meeting of this Club will be held this evening, in the Court House, at half-past seven o'clock.

Democrats to the Polls.

To our Democratic friends in Erie county, we have a few words more to say relative to the contest on Tuesday next. We want you to go to the polls, and we want you to stay there until you have voted.

A Word in Time.

We beseech our friends at the different polls in the county to be exceedingly careful to have each voter examine his ticket before he deposits it in the ballot-box. This is necessary to prevent treachery.

Movements of the Friends of Mr. Webster.

The Boston Courier, the organ of the Webster men in Massachusetts, made the following announcement on Tuesday morning: The Webster Executive Committee, held a business meeting last evening, for the purpose of considering what steps the Union Whigs should take in relation to the death of their chief.

States that have Spoken!

SCOTT THUNDER!

'Scott leads The Column.' Vermont (Plurality) 4,000.

All the Decency.

We dislike personalities, but a circumstance occurred in this city on Wednesday that requires a notice at our hands. During the day the boys of the city had brought two poles into town—one a hemlock, and the other a hickory, and with the help of their elders, had raised them.

More Evidence of That Money.

The Meadville Sentinel says a United States office holder passed through Meadville on Sunday last and left five hundred dollars to be used by the Whigs for election purposes.

Scott's Popularity.

We have contended from the first that Gen. Scott is the least popular of any man the whigs could have nominated, and the result of the recent elections prove our opinion correct.

By the first place he touched in this State was York county, where on the 12th day he received 1,530 majority for Woodward and Hopkins—an increase of over 100 since 1851.

By New York he passed onward to the State capital, Harrisburg, Dauphin county. The vote of Harrisburg on the 12th, after he had left the place, exhibited a democratic gain of more than 200 over 1851.

General Scott visited Ohio, and he produced consequences no less disastrous to his cause. The first in which Cleveland is located, where he made his first appeal to the adopted citizens, gave a Democratic majority.

Indiana felt the influence of Gen. Scott's partial visit, and more sensibly than the others. His presence seemed to extinguish the last hope of the whigs of that State.

What is the cause of all this? Why is it that political victory recedes from the cause of Scott? Why is it that political defeat, like a thick shadow, follows in his footsteps?

Gen. Scott himself is a wet blanket upon all enthusiasm. He is an embodiment of the personal pronoun, I. He affects his hearers by his never failing vanity.

LOOK AT THE FIGURES. 19,710—21,308.

We've 'Stopped Her,' Colonel PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

We publish below the full official vote at the recent election in all the counties in the State, which shows the handsome majority of 19,710 for Wm. Hopkins, for Canal Commissioner, and 19,308 for Geo. W. Woodward, for Judge of the Supreme Court.

OFFICIAL VOTE—1852.

Large table showing official vote for 1852 across various counties, listing candidates and their respective vote counts.

It will be recollected that Col. Black, in his speech at the Court House on Saturday night, laid down the proposition that to large a majority in the State was not good for the party.

Only 290 to spare. The North Argus relates the following act of party meanness and malignant prescription.

Disrespectful.—One of the greatest acts of meanness and tyranny in the annals of oppression, occurred early or two since at the Gosport Navy Yard.

Pierce and King. Alabama, 9; Mississippi, 7; Louisiana, 7; Missouri, 9; Florida, 3; Pennsylvania, 3; Arkansas, 2; Connecticut, 6.

Our Prediction. On Tuesday is the election, and we wish to put on record our prediction of the result.

Will our whig friends just cut this out, and put it in their memorandum books—that they may look upon it, when the actual result stares them in the face!

The Native Americans belonging to the American Central Association, in Philadelphia, it is said, held a large meeting on Monday evening, and decided unanimously that under existing circumstances every member was at full liberty to vote as he pleased for president.

A Whig Fizzle at Edenboro. A correspondent sends us an amusing account of the whig fizzle at Edenboro on Saturday last.

The Commercial says it wants to make a holiday of the day that will see Gen. Scott elected President, and for this purpose the Editor announces that the next number will be issued on Monday.

THE LAST RESORT. CAN THE PEOPLE BE BOUGHT?

We clip the following exposure of the last resort of the desperate leaders of the whig party from the Pennsylvaniaian. We do so because the plot is so odious, and a part of the money is already in circulation in this community.

The following is the article from the Pennsylvaniaian: 'The leaders of Federalism seeing that there is no hope for Gen. Scott in Pennsylvania on the second of November, have determined to use the most extraordinary means to accomplish something.
