The following letter, though balef, contains the substance of The following letter, though balef, contains the substance of many that are almost daily being handed us, and will be read with interest by a numerous class of sufferers, who have felt that for them "there is no hope." Though never assuming to effect a cure ugall instances, yet experience will warrant the confident assertion, that seventy five out of every one hundred persons treated, have been executally improved or fully restored to health it will be remembered, too, that the most complicated, unyielding and hopeless cases constitute a large majority of the applications for treatment. "Ashtabuta, Oct. 10th, 1852.

DR. II. Tunns, Six. After a long true-some ex years—of suffering from what appeared to be almost every disease, and attereaffing on so many physicians, and trying so many cares, un-til help—seemed suppossible, I have again found health by pursuing a course of your treatment. Pain in the side, shoulders suing a course of voir treatment. Pain in the side, shoulders and hip, dissinces, weakness, bloating of the bowels and limbs, were among the ordinary symptoms; in addition to which, I at times became much, blind and quite helpless. I had nearly give to up all hope of ever being zene confortable, but by the aid of modicines given by you. I am now relieved from altithose symptoms and for aught that I know, am perfectly healthy. Treatment was commenced last April.

With each change of appointments given above we shall publish a new testimound, comprising in all a variety of interesting cases, and in all cases selected from neighboring counties that we are regularly visiting. Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidency n this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety,be far exceeding the most ranguine expectations of its friends.-Nothing but us intrinsic virtues and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has grined friends by every trial conferred benefits on the affected they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is a fraud on the public to presend that any one Midicine will infallibly cure-still there is abandant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably cure the mulidies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this mediing has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the tog cabin of the American Peasant, to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, and in many foreign countries, it is coming to be exten-THE Subscribers are now offering to the public a general and well selected stock of Dry Goods.
