

The Tripartite Treaty.

We copy from the Philadelphia Ledger, a... We give a telegraphic account on Friday, 14th...

The Murder in Philadelphia.

We give a telegraphic account on Friday, 14th... The cause of this dreadful and deplorable tragedy...

Manufacturers of Iron.

The Danville Intelligence of Friday last says:—The Meador rolling mill...

Man Thrown Overboard.

A writer describing the Atlantic Asylum at Black Point, says:—Here is a woman whose joy has been deprived of her...

A Man Nearly Bled to Death by a Vampire Bat.

On Wednesday morning last, says the Panama Echo of the 18th December, the barkeeper of the Pavilion Hotel, Tabago, not appearing at the usual hour...

A Young Wanton.

This morning a girl about fifteen years of age, was sent to the House of Correction for two months for being a wanton. For a few weeks past she has walked the streets for her...

Sheduler Man.

The Medina, Ohio, Democrat, says there is an insane man in that town named Smith—his joints are all double, and he can displace them from their natural position without inconvenience or any great effort.

A Curious Case of Somnambulism.

is recorded in the Chillicothe Ohio Gazette. A daughter of Mr. Thomas Kaine arose from her sleep, and in her night clothes walked four miles up the Scioto River, waded into the stream, and swam across the deep part, and was found by an early riser sitting on the Holy Bible, in the river.

That Yankee Ensign.

There is a mixture of India rubber in the true, life, go-ahead Yankee. Wherever he falls, he is sure to rebound. Here is an instance in point.

Our Continental Policy.

It is evident the continental policy of this government is about to have more life infused into it—than as far from henceforth occupying a negative, or rather passive position among the nations of the world.

Gen. Patterson—the Cabinet.

There appears to be a calm in the newspaper world in regard to the Cabinet of Gen. Pierce. Perhaps the Cabinet makers have run out of steam; or, what is more likely, have come to the conclusion that the President elect can do the work himself!

Reform in the Navy.

The advocates of reform in the Navy, in and out of the service, are about to meet, in part, the friends of the service. We see that Senator Stockton, formerly Com. Stockton of the Navy, has introduced a bill for the re-organization of that department of the service.

Erie Weekly Observer.

ERIE, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 22, 1853. A FACT.—The children of those parents who take their country papers, are invariably more intelligent, better behaved, and better looking than the children of those who do not.

Our Continental Policy.

It is evident the continental policy of this government is about to have more life infused into it—than as far from henceforth occupying a negative, or rather passive position among the nations of the world.

Gen. Patterson—the Cabinet.

There appears to be a calm in the newspaper world in regard to the Cabinet of Gen. Pierce. Perhaps the Cabinet makers have run out of steam; or, what is more likely, have come to the conclusion that the President elect can do the work himself!

Reform in the Navy.

The advocates of reform in the Navy, in and out of the service, are about to meet, in part, the friends of the service. We see that Senator Stockton, formerly Com. Stockton of the Navy, has introduced a bill for the re-organization of that department of the service.

Our Continental Policy.

It is evident the continental policy of this government is about to have more life infused into it—than as far from henceforth occupying a negative, or rather passive position among the nations of the world.

Gen. Patterson—the Cabinet.

There appears to be a calm in the newspaper world in regard to the Cabinet of Gen. Pierce. Perhaps the Cabinet makers have run out of steam; or, what is more likely, have come to the conclusion that the President elect can do the work himself!

Reform in the Navy.

The advocates of reform in the Navy, in and out of the service, are about to meet, in part, the friends of the service. We see that Senator Stockton, formerly Com. Stockton of the Navy, has introduced a bill for the re-organization of that department of the service.

Our Continental Policy.

It is evident the continental policy of this government is about to have more life infused into it—than as far from henceforth occupying a negative, or rather passive position among the nations of the world.

Gen. Patterson—the Cabinet.

There appears to be a calm in the newspaper world in regard to the Cabinet of Gen. Pierce. Perhaps the Cabinet makers have run out of steam; or, what is more likely, have come to the conclusion that the President elect can do the work himself!

Reform in the Navy.

The advocates of reform in the Navy, in and out of the service, are about to meet, in part, the friends of the service. We see that Senator Stockton, formerly Com. Stockton of the Navy, has introduced a bill for the re-organization of that department of the service.

New Advertisements. A FULL attendance of the members of all the Lodges in the city... THE HALL now open for the reception of the Order of the Fellers will be held, and possession given on the first of next month...