

There is some renewed checking here among the Whigs, over the note read by Mr. Pease, of Maryland, in the Senate, from Col. King, with reference to his opinion of the motion of Mr. Clayton...

The cautious and dignified language of Col. King does not in the least detract from the force of his opinion. The fact is, Mr. Clayton is in and can't be got out.

On the contrary, the note of Mr. King by no means justifies the anti-diplomatic attitude of Mr. Clayton with the English Ambassador, however ready he may be to admit the purity of his motives.

It is in fact rather tall, black hair, and quite deaf; though not so much so but what he was able to hear the accents of affection from his fair one, without her being overheard by her husband.

Remonstration-Soundralism, &c.

A fellow by the name of W. A. Wilcox, who has been stopping in this village a few weeks past, whose ostensible business was selling Crimping Machines...

The evening before he took his final leave, he called upon one of our mercantile houses, wishing to purchase a shawl for a lady friend...

The subjects of the above notice have been stopping at the American Hotel, in this city, for a few days past. The woman left on Thursday in the care for the west, and her companion followed yesterday morning.

WATER'S CHERRY RECTORY.

For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and celebrity far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends.

While it is a fraud on the public to pretend that any other medicine is superior to this, it is a fraud on the public to pretend that any other medicine is inferior to this.
