3848 Impires ore Awake. WE are just beginning to receive our first purchase of spring goods, the first good rec'd is Erie this spring. This community has been g sed long enough about intying old stocks of goods at $5 to 30 per cent lower than new goods could be sold this year, any one can soon be convinced by examining our piles of new goods that dry goods can and will be sold at the Empires this year at less prices than were ever sold before in any market; o domestic goods we have the agency of a number of manufactur-ing establishments which will enable us to job goods to the trade as low as any jobbing house in New York.

59 SILKS AND FANCY DRY GOODS. NICOLSON & WRIGHT,
Importers and Jobbers of Silks and Fancy Dry Goods,
II AVING removed from 54 Cedar Street, to the New Marble Building, 33 Laberty Street, (four doors west of Broadway,) would invite the attention of dealers in distant cities and towns to a very extensive and rich stock of silks and Fancy Dry Goods consisting of WHITE GOODS, GLOVES, BILKS, DELAINES, SHAWLS, PARASOLS, MILLINARY ARTICLES, &c. MILLINARY ARTICLES, &c.

An examination of our Goods and prices will, we think, convince Country Bealers that we can offer them fully as advantageous terms as any bouse in New York—it not better. We pay particular attention to the auction sates, and if goods are selling at less prices than they can be imported—as its sometimes the case—we shall see that our customers will realize all the henefit cacruing from such sales. We are at all times willing to exhibit our stock to buyers, whether they purchase or not; we do not consider it any trouble to show our goodd.

Coash and close time purchasers are especially invited to give us a call. From our facilities, we are convinced that we can self them at such rates as must prove satisfactory.

In the fall of 1848, I was violently attacked with cold and inflamation of the lungs, which was accompanied with a very distressing cough, pain in the breast, side and back: with a very considerable discharge of offensive matter from the lungs, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, night aweats, &c. The family physician was called in; and slid all within his power but gave use no relief. My symptons grew worse, and I foun that I was not able to set up but a few minutes at a time. My physicians and sinking into consumption: I became so weak that I was not able to set up but a few minutes at a time. My physician with mo better success. He then told me that In the spring I would get better or worse. My friends from a distance came to see me as they supposed for the last time. I then called in another physician, and under his care and the warm weather, I got so that I could walk and ride about until fall; then I sunk down again, and my physician said that if I did not go south, I could not live longer than spring, so I gave up all holges of recovery. During the summer of 1850 I saw your advertisement, and concluded to see you, which I did, learned your course of treatment, and to my great astonishment, in six or eight weeks I was able to walk all over town and see my friends and neighbors, who were as much astonished as insystelf. This was in the spring of 1851, and all the physical of 1851, and all the physical points and all the physical of 1851, and all the physical of 1851, and all the physical of 1851, and all the physical points. ealth In April last: I was much exposed while riding on the canal, took a severecoid, and suffered a return of old graptons, which your medicines effectually removed as before.
