

Independence.
We like a conscientious independent man; one who takes the responsibility upon himself, and who is not afraid to set the consequences by what he does. He is always prompt to do what he thinks right, without regard to the opinions of others—some of whom he may have to contend with in a manner that there is no making. You always know in such a case that you have only to ascertain his opinion of things to know what he will do with regard to them. He can be depended upon in any emergency, acting upon the dictates of an honest conscience, he will not be swayed by favor or affection, from doing what he thinks is right. He is usually, supremely higher he stands in the estimation of the world, and we might say of his maker, than the poor apology who pines his ideas to the coat of some mad or sore of men, and dare not say or even do what he thinks right for fear of displeasing those who look upon him, as everyone does, in the light of a fact, or used as a base of pleasure. Nobody respects him, and even those who he serves despise him for his want of that noble principle, Independence, without which no man is as the best that laborer. We have seen examples of this lately and it has made us heart-sick for we lack the ability to exercise that manly principle, Independence.

Graham's Magazine for May is received. It is the end of the new series and fully contains the character, a magazine, which it had attained. Graham has been a favorite with the public for many years, and he is determined not only to keep up the interest, but he is determined to add to it all the improvements of the age in style and workmanship. The number before us is finely embellished, and its contents, mostly original, are from the pens of the best authors of the day. The work may be had at No. 3, Brown's Block. Price 25 cts. per copy.

God's eye is on hand for May. With a new series of his magazine it will keep up the old style, and be enabled to maintain it well, even against the great efforts of the Harpers, by most of the other magazines of the day. This we take to be a proof that his magazine is patronized for the matter and not for the style. He is one of the most prompt with his exchanges of Harper's success. The May No. has 700,000 and 40 engravings, a pretty magnet and a beautiful fashion plate. The work may be had at No. 3, Brown's Block.

There will be eleven trains on the Central N. Y. Railroad, leaving Albany daily. It hardly seems possible for a road with a single track to accommodate that number of trains and run with any safety. An occasional smash up, however, gives railroad riding a variety it would not otherwise have.

The Prefrontal Cortex states that the mate of the apple Republic was drowned on Saturday last, outside of New York. He was coming ashore with a number of others from the vessel, on the ice, and fell through a hole. His body was recovered.

The Cleveland Plaindealer says, that passengers on Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock, who left New York at 6 o'clock the morning before. They came by way of the Hudson River, Albany & Buffalo and Erie shore Railroads. This would bring them to Erie about 11 o'clock, being but 20 hours between here and New York. That is getting over the ground about as fast as necessary.

Rev. Mr. Bazz, our new Post Master took the 10 o'clock train last week. He seems to bear his honors well, and will undoubtedly be efficient as a civil officer, as he has heretofore been in a spiritual capacity. Much we expect to see with Mr. Bazz, we can be glad, that there is a change, that the office has fallen to his hands it has—Watchful Messenger.

The Cincinnati papers say that a mad cow broke down her stable, tossed a small girl in the air with her horns, and was making at another when she was seized by a ball dog, secured and killed. Good dog.

Schwarz.—The charter election of Schwarz took place on Thursday, the 5th inst. The entire Democratic ticket is elected by 400 majority!

Life Insurance Companies in England have recently undergone investigation by a Parliamentary committee, in consequence of alleged abuses, and the result has been a series of reforms, and the establishment of a new factory-factory. Several cases of gross frauds were discovered, such as the exhibition of companies without any real capital, &c. It appears that since 1844 nearly 400 Life Insurance Companies have been projected, of which only about 50 are now in existence. The accumulated capital of the present companies in Great Britain is said to be $75,000,000, and the annual income $2,000,000. In Scotland alone the total amount of policies has risen to $160,000,000, and their annual income exceeds $7,500,000.
